

A POLITE NOTICE

PARKING ENFORCEMENT WILL COMMENCE ON OCTOBER 2nd, 2000

Those vehicles not displaying a valid parking permit will be ticketed and, if required, towed at the owner's expense.

(THANK YOU)

Yearbooks

Both the 1998-99 AND the 1999-2000 editions of the yearbook are in!

Limited copies are available, so get yours today at:

The Breezeway: Thursday, Sept. 28 9:30AM-2:00PM
Friday, Sept. 29 9:00AM-1:00PM

The Student Union Office: Monday-Friday 9:00AM-4:00PM

The Yearbook Office: Hours are posted on the door.

ONLY $10 for returning students. FREE for grads!
Don't miss out!

ALSO

Want some valuable volunteer experience? Want to get involved in the campus community? Here's your chance!

The yearbook staff is looking for creative, energetic, and enthusiastic people to fill paid and volunteer positions. Contact us @ 566-0708 Main 09 or yearbook@upei.ca

Bad Cadre. Bad, bad, bad Cadre.

Last week's issue of The Cadre was inexplicably riddled with errors and we decided to make a formal apology, but bury it, as you can tell, among the other notices. The following typos were spotted by our crack team of error-spotters:

Founders' Day is not Founders Day, nor is it Founder's Day. Amherst is not Ahmerst. The new assistant hockey coach is not named Jeff Squire, he is Jeff Squires. The hockey coach is not named Curry like what you eat, nor Kurri like the famous hockey player of the Jari variety, but Currie. It is not that hard and, frankly we should have got it right the first time. We are spending so much time selling out, editing is not even mentioned in our meetings anymore.

We would like to blame the aforementioned errors on the good folks at Central Printing. It's not their fault, but they deserve the blame and they know why, sitting in their glass-encased wonderland like they do. If only we had our own photocopier...

Student Union Elections!!!

Positions Available!!!

3 Arts Reps
2 Science Reps
1 Business Rep
Nursing Rep
Education Rep
First Year Rep
Graduate Student Rep
Veterinary Medicine Rep
Board of Governors
Ombudsman

Nominations Open
Monday, October 2nd (9AM)

Nominations Close
Friday, October 9th (1PM)

Please drop by the barn to pick up your application form and to ask any questions!!!