"Five years ago I had a constant cough, night sweats, was greatly reduced in flesh, and had been given up by my physicians. I began to take Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, and after using two bottles of this medicine was completely cured." Anga A. Lewis, Ricard, N. Y.

SOME RECENT SHIPMENTS.—The Agricultural says: MESSRS. AVARD & DRUMMOND shipped to St. John, on Thursday last, five head of cattle and two hundred sheep and lambs. Mr. W. K. McKay shipped two horses the same day, and Mr. J. Raynor crossed to the Point with his hater Darkey, which he there disposed of, Mr. A. W. Moffat, Amherst, being the purchaser. Mr. John McGrath, of St. John, shipped 196 lambs by the St. Law on Friday morning.

LECTURES TO-NIGHT.—The subject of Mr. Braden's lecture in the Y. M. C. A. Hall to-night at 8 o'clock will be—"Does the Bible sanction chattel slavery—the degradation of women and polygamy?" "The wars and laws customs of war of the Bible;" "Is the Bible an indecent book?" As these are regarded by infidelity as unanswerable objections, all should hear this lecture. Remarks, replies and objections are invited. Lectures will be continued every night this week.

MILITARY.—The members of Nos. 1 and 2 Batteries, G. A., are requested to meet in uniform at the Drill Shed to-morrow evening at 7 o'clock sharp to march to the Railway Station to participate in the reception of the artillery team who will arrive at 8 o'clock. The Charlottetown Engineers will meet at the Drill Shed to-morrow evening at 7 o'clock for the purpose of marching to the Railway Station to meet the successful team on their arrival. A full attendance is particularly requested.—W. A. WEEKS, Captain.

PENMANSHIP.—We have been shown a handsome specimen of penmanship by Ewen Cameron, son of John Cameron, Royalty. The designs are original, and are well executed. The chief design is a pen sketch of the harbor's mouth, with one of the S. N. Co's. steamers coming in. Mr. Cameron is a former pupil of L. B. Miller. On one side of the work is the following testimonial: To Mr. L. B. Miller: I shall ever have a kind word for the Charlottetown Business College, for to it I owe whatever success I have achieved.—Ewen Cameron. Mr. Cameron took a three months' course at the Business College last year, and the above testimonial speaks highly for that institution.

PROF. BRADEN'S LECTURES.—Prof. Clarke Braden began his second course of lectures in the Y. M. C. A. Hall yesterday. The subject in the afternoon was "A Defence of the Bible," and in the evening, "A Defence of the law of Moses." J. T. Mellich, Esq., the President of the Association, occupied the chair. The lecturer handled the subjects in most masterly manner. His voice was good in his manner deliberate, and his style scholarly, logical and convincing. No one can listen to him without profit, and no one who possibly do so, should fail to hear him. He is certainly a valiant champion of Christianity as against infidelity. It was announced that the lectures will be continued every evening this week.

THE GAUDAUR-TEEMER RACE.—John Teemer and Jake Gaudaur rowed a four-mile race for $1000, over the McKeesport course, at Pittsburg, Penn., on the 13th inst., Gaudaur winning in 23 min. He was not awarded the race however, owing to Teemer putting in a claim of foul. He claims that Hamm, Gaudaur's trainer, fouled him at a critical stage of the race by rowing in front of him, and in his view Hamm claims that he was 50 feet in front of Teemer and did not foul him. The referee took Teemer's claim under consideration. About 30,000 people witnessed the race. Teemer kept up at the rate of 36 strokes for two miles, rowing the balance of the way home at a rate of 30 strokes, while Gaudaur still kept pulling steadily at the rate of 34, and crossed the line a quarter of a mile ahead of Teemer, in 23 min.
