Prospectus
The Colonial Times.

A T an early date after the opening of the navigation, we intend publishing in Chatham, under our own immediate superintendence, a large quarto weekly newspaper, called the

COLONIAL TIMES.

We consider it quite disreputable to this section of the Province, possessing as it does so much influence and talent, that it has allowed its interests to be represented for nearly half a century by one paper, while another well-conducted Journal could be supported with so much ease We have resolved, that this state of things shall exist no longer, and are gratified with the cordial reception our proposal has met from all classes of the community

The COLONIAL TIMES shall be devoted to the advancement of Education, Agriculture, the Fisheries, Commerce, Literature and Science.

Eschewing all sectarianism, we shall represent equally the different denominations of Christians.

While we avoid, as much as possible, entering the arena of politics, our colums shall be open to the discussion of all important questions, with this proviso, that no scurrilous attack on any man's private character shall ever disgrace our pages.

We intend, as far as possible, to encourage and develope local talent. With this object in view—as well as to make our pages the more interesting—we shall endeavour to procure one or more original articles weekly. When desired, the names of contributors will be kept strictly private.

Our best efforts shall be used in the advancement of every useful local institution: all, therefore, who take an active part in promoting the welfare, elevating the character, or advancing the interests of the people, will find in us a faithful friend; their efforts shall not be allowed to pass unnoticed.

We shall advocate the introduction of Railways, and other internal improvements, best calculated to develope the resources of this most valuable, though much neglected, section of the British American Colonies.

We shall furnish our readers with the latest news, foreign and domestic. Selections from the English, Irish, Scotch, American and Colonial papers will be given under their respective heads.

The market prices current shall be revised weekly for the benefit of our country subscribers.

For the entertainment of those who love a good story, every issue of our paper will contain one, carefully selected, and attractive; its length however, will be limited.

The COLONIAL TIMES shall sustain an unquestionably moral tone, so that parents may safely place it in the hands of their children; and as we have always felt a particular interest in this class, we shall not fail to reserve a corner for their special perusal.

Confident that we shall be nobly sustained in our present enterprise by an intelligent public, our preparations for publishing are going forward with all possible haste.

Our terms will be Ten Shillings per annum, payable half yearly in advance, or Twelve and Sixpence at the end of the year.

NEWS BY THE ENGLISH MAIL.

COOLNESS WITH RUSSIA AND AUSTRIA.

On his way from Warsaw to Berlin, via Szakova and Myslovitz, the Emperor Alexander had to pass through a part of the Austrian territory. On his arrival at the frontiers His Majesty was received with considerable ceremony by a few Austrian employes and a company of soldiers; but he was probably offended that no person of superior rank had been sent by this court to meet him, as he continued his journey to the Prussian frontier without delay. The relations between the St. Petersburgh and Vienna Governments are at present so extremely cool that the post of Russian Ambassador at Vienna is likely to remain vacant for some time to come. M.de Balabine, the Russian Charge d'Affaires, serviley imitates Count Orloff, insomuch as he is attentive and complaisant to the French, somewhat distant towards the English, and neglectful to the Austrians. He seems to have received instructions to smooth the ruffled plumes of the Turks. The recent insinuation of the Nord, that troubles are likely to take place in Italy "within six weeks," has greately incensed the professional politicians of Vienna, who are inclined to suspect that Russian agents are now endeavouring to excite discontent and disaffection in Lombardo-Venitian kingdom.

PROPOSED MATRIMONIAL ALLIANCE BETWEEN GREECE AND SPAIN.—The King of Greece has sought to strengthen himself by a marriage alliance with Spain. The heir presumptive to the Crown of Greece would if the suit be accepted, become the husband of the Spanish Infanta. There is every likelihood that the alliance will take place.

FRANCE.

The Emperor Napoleon, on his arrival at St. Cloud yesterday, immediately summoned a council of Ministers, and demanded ten million francs for the damages caused by the flood, in addition to two millions already voted. This demand will be immediately referred to the Legislative Chamber.

PARIS, June 6.—There is some probability of the postponement of the imperial baptism, or its being devoted to the sufferers from the inundations.

General Sir W. F. Williams, the hero of Kars, arrived in Paris on the 5th, en route for London.

RUSSIA.

The Emperor of Russia has empowered the Minister of Finance to grant passports to merchants desirous of forming branch establishments abroad, without previously presenting an application to a Council of Ministers.

RUSSIA AND CHINA.

The Russian Government has appointed (the Court of Pekin having given its consent) a Charge d' Affaires at the Government of the Celestial Empire, in the place of a simple consul at Canton. Baron Solvinski, a celebrated Chinese scholar, has been chosen for this post. He will reside one part of the year at Macao, and the othor at Canton. Three new consuls have also been appointed. These are placed at his disposal, and they will be fixed according to the exigencies of the service.

ITALY.

The Turin correspondent of the Times states that Austria and France are not pursuing an identical policy in Italy. When the proposal was made for a Tuscan Concordat with Rome, after the Austrian model, the French representative at Rome was charged to assure the Tuscan government that it might, if necessary, reckon on the support of France in resisting the demands of Rome. France and Austria are also likely to be rivals whenever a new election for the Papacy may occur. The Austrian Cabinet lately complained to the Tuileries of injustice done to Austria in the late debates in the Sardinian Chambers. The French Government communicated this fact to the Sardinian Cabinet, accompanied by expressions of sympathy stronger than ever.

The Risorvimento of Turin says, Italy is agitated from Etna to Ticino, all is in a state of ebullition.

The Gazette notifies the promotion of Major-General Sir W. Codrington to the brevet rank of Lieutenant-General. The Gazette also contains a list of officers promoted to the brevet ranks of lieutenant-colonel and major.

THE EAST.

The Times Vienna correspondent telegraphs—Advices from constantinople of the 28th May have been received. News from the provinces satisfactory. Cholera Tripoli. Stourdza is a member of the Bessarabian commission.

MARSEILLES, June.—The Hydaspe has arrived here, with advices from Constantinople to the 26th and the Crimea to the 24th ult. The Times Crimean correspondent writes on the 24th—"Troops healthy, although a few cases of opthalmia. Weather stormy and cold."

ENGLAND, FRANCE, AND AMERICA.

The Paris correspondent of the Post writes—"I believe I am correct in stating that the French Government has used every effort to prevent those unhappy complications which have led to the suspensions of diplomatic relations between England and America. The Government of the Emperor will, I understand, combine to exercise its good offices in the same spirit of reconciliation, and should the two nations be found engaged in actual war, no doubt England may reckon on the active alliance of France."

GEN. WILLIAMS AT ST. PETERSBURGH—A letter from St. Petersburgh of the 17th says:—"The festivities of this week were closed by a ball given by the Pricess Yousoupoff. The Emperor was prevented by slight indisposition from being present. General Williams was one of the lions of the night. A valiant and brave Russian soldier like the English General would no doubt have been well received in England, but it is permitted to be questioned whether the principal ladies of the English aristocracy would, as was done at this ball, have caused the General to be presented to them, and have shown him such deep interest. General Williams has a fine head, and wears his uniform well; but General Ney was even more remarked. Russian sympathies for France being greater than any that England can inspire."

MRS. L. B. WILSON, Clapham-common, died lately aged 83, leaving £15,000 to the British and Foreign Bible Society.
