MORE TOURISTS

LONDON, (CP)—The royal tour of Australia is said to have resulted in the biggest rush for years by would-be emigrants at Australia House here. The Daily Sketch said "every time the Queen smiles and flash bulbs pop in Australia thousands of Britons want to go to Australia."

Oslo, (CP)—The 5,640-foot Gausta mountain peak in central Norway is being developed as a relay centre for microwave radio communications as part of the NATO communications structure in northern Europe. The project includes building a railway tunnel to within a few feet of the summit.

OTTAWA, (CP)—Tourist traffic continued to increase during February. The number of foreign vehicles entering Canada on travellers' permits rose to 59,615, up three per cent from February, 1953. The bureau of statistics reported Friday.

Above the house where you live...

... there's a new horizon of sky and space to challenge every adventurous, air-minded young Canadian. That air is free — so long as we keep it so! The Royal Canadian Air Force's target is freedom of our skies. The young man who enrolls for Aircrew training in the RCAF makes his target "freedom".

In the Royal Canadian Air Force, he will

- develop resourcefulness, initiative, self reliance.
- broaden his knowledge and develop his character with travel and adventure.
- receive the benefit of top aviation training.
- enjoy good pay and working conditions.
- earn the prestige of officer status.
- and
- have the personal satisfaction of serving his country.

You've got to be good — and if you have the necessary qualifications, you, too, can become a member of the Aircrew team in the RCAF and benefit from the specialized training in aviation. Have a chat with the RCAF Career Counsellor at the address in the coupon — or mail the coupon.
