

Things That it is Well to Know.

That it is easier to retain health than regain it.
That serious headaches often come from ill-fitting spectacles.
That tin cleaned with paper will shine better than when cleaned with flannel.
That cistern water may be purified by charcoal put in a bag and hung in the water.
The powdered rice, sprinkled upon lint and applied to fresh wounds will stop bleeding.
That salt will remove the stain from silver caused by eggs, when applied dry with a soft cloth.
That hot, dry flannels, applied to the face and neck, is a very effective remedy for a "jumping toothache."
That fruit or rust stains on table or other white cloths, may be removed by soaking in a weak solution of oxalic acid.
That hard waters are to be preferred to soft waters in the teapot, as the hard waters dissolve less of the tannin of the leaves.

That after tea has been steeped in boiling water for three minutes, a large proportion of the valuable constituents are extracted.
That the most effectual remedy for slimy and greasy drain pipes is copperas dissolved and left to work gradually through the pipe.—Good House-keeping.

Failure and Success.

No true work since the world began was ever wasted; no true life since the world began has ever failed. Oh, understand these perverted words, failure and success, and measure them by the eternal, not by the earthly, standard. What the world has regarded as the bitterest failure has often been in the sight of heaven the most magnificent success. When the cap, painted with devils, was placed on the brow of John Huss, and he sat dying amid the embers of the fame—was that a failure? When St. Xavier died, cold and lonely on the bleak and desolate shore of a heathen country—was that a failure? When the frail, worn body of the apostle of the Gentiles was dragged by a hook from the arena, and the white sand scattered over the crimson life-blood of the victim when the dense amphitheatre despaired as some obscure and nameless Jew—was that a failure? And when, after thirty obscure, toilsome, unrecorded years in the shop of a village carpenter. One came forth to be pre-eminently the man of sorrows, to wander from city to city in homeless labors, and to expire in lonely agony upon the shameful cross—was that a failure? Nay, my brethren, it was the life, it was the death, of the Son of God.—W. F. Farrar.

It Captured Him.

"Say," he said to the officer on deck, "I'd like to go on the next expedition."
"It's awful cold up there," remarked the officer discouragingly.
"I don't care for that."
"You'd have very little to eat, and you might starve to death."
"That wouldn't be pleasant," observed the visitor.
"I should say not," returned the officer. "And you might be eaten by our comrades."
"Is that so? That would be tough."
"And then, continued the officer, "you wouldn't see your wife for three years or possibly longer. You know you can't take her with you."
"Well, returned the old gentleman after a long pause, "I guess you can put my name down on your books. Your last argument captures me.—N. Y. Independent.

A MARVELOUS STORY

TOLD IN TWO LETTERS.
FROM THE SON: "23 Cedar St., New York, Oct. 23, 1882.
"Gentlemen: My father resides at Glover, Vt. He has been a great sufferer from Scrofula, and the inclosed letter will tell you what a marvelous effect has had in his case. I think his blood must have contained the humor for at least ten years; but it did not show, except in the form of a scrofulous sore on the wrist, until about five years ago. From a few spots which appeared at that time, it gradually spread so as to cover his entire body. I assure you he was terribly afflicted, and an object of pity, when he began using your medicine. Now, there are few men of his age who enjoy as good health as he has. I could easily name fifty persons who would testify to the facts in his case.

Yours truly, W. M. PHILLIPS."

FROM THE FATHER: "It is both a pleasure and a duty for me to state to you the benefit I have derived from the use of

Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

Six months ago I was completely covered with a terrible humor and scrofulous sores. The humor caused an incessant and intolerable itching, and the skin cracked so as to cause the blood to flow in many places whenever I moved. My sufferings were great, and my life a burden. I commenced the use of the SARSAPARILLA in April last, and have used it regularly since that time. My condition began to improve at once. The sores have all healed, and I feel perfectly well in every respect—being now able to do a good day's work, although 73 years of age. Many inquiries what has wrought such a cure in my case, and I tell them, as I have here tried to tell you, AYER'S SARSAPARILLA. Glover, Vt., Oct. 21, 1882.
Yours gratefully,
HIRSH PHILLIPS."

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA cures Scrofula and all Scrofulous Complaints, Erysipelas, Eczema, Ringworm, Itches, Sores, Bolls, Tumors, and Eruptions of the Skin. It clears the blood of all impurities, aids digestion, stimulates the action of the bowels, and thus restores vitality and strengthens the whole system.

THE INDEPENDENT. The Largest, The Ablest, The Best Religious and Literary Weekly.

The Most Influential Religious Organ in the States.—The Spectator, London, Eng.

THE INDEPENDENT is one of the best papers in the world. Its good points are many and striking. They have only to be stated to be appreciated; and for proof of our claims appeal may be taken to any of the fifty-two issues of the year. Any number of THE INDEPENDENT will show that its contents are marked by—
ABILITY, VARIETY AND INTEREST.—The great thinkers, the great story-writers, the great poets, men of the highest reputation in all departments of human knowledge, make up his list of contributors. Religion, philosophy, science, literature, art, travels, discoveries, stories, and all conceivable topics are embraced in the contents, and every body, old or young, learned and unlearned, without regard to sex, employment or condition, will find something of special interest in every issue.

COMPREHENSIVENESS.—It is a religious, a literary, an educational, a story, an art, a scientific, an agricultural, a financial and a political paper combined.

BREADTH OF CANDOR, EARNESTNESS.—THE INDEPENDENT is tied to no denomination; it is the organ of no clique or party in state or Church. It is free, therefore, to discuss all questions, and to speak its mind candidly. It is not swayed by fear or favor. It is a vigorous defender of the Evangelical faith, it preaches practical righteousness, and earnestly supports all moral reforms. All its columns—the advertising as well as the reading—are free from everything of doubtful or objectionable character. No matter what a person's religion, politics, or profession may be, if he desires to keep up with the times and know what the brightest minds are thinking of, the ablest pens are writing about, and what the world at large is doing—he should read THE INDEPENDENT.
