Wayne Schleyer Wins Swim Event

ALBERTON — Eighteen-year-old. Wayne Schleyer, of Charlottetown won the three mile swimming race on aquatic day contests in Alberton, under extremely arduous swimming conditions. The youngest ever to win the annual event, Wayne, a swimmer with the YMCA Blue Fins, covered the course from Montrose to Kildare Bridge in one hour, twenty-five minutes and thirty seconds; very close to the record of one hour, twenty two minutes and eighteen seconds set several years by Morgan Mitchell of Charlottetown, who came in second this year, reaching the finish line nine minutes after Schleyer.

Robert Broderick, Alberton, was in third place followed by Helen Carragher of Elmsfleet, the only last contestant, who received first place prize in the ladies division.

Head on winds gusting to about forty miles per hour made the swim a tough one and also gave the accompanying dory's a hard time. Otherwise the weather was warm and sunny and an outgoing tide favored the swimmers.

Boyd Shaw of Charlottetown gave up the swim at about the one third mark in the three mile course.

Contact with the swimmers was maintained by Walkie Talkie and announcements of their progress were made from time to time. The eastern bakeries trophy was presented to Wayne by Jack Nesbitt, Maritime representative for the company.

In the outboard races Boyd White of Charlottetown proved unbeatable as his 60 H.P. hydro runabout captured the free for all and the 69-60 HP class with Gus Houston, also from Charlottetown, giving him tough competition coming in second in both events (close second).

William Maxfield, Summerside, chalked up third place in both races. Gus Houston won the 40 HP and under with Ira Thompson, Summerside second and Maxfield third. Houston also won the 30 h.p. class with Maxfield second and Floyd Hardy, Alberton, third.

The coveted hayes paving Company trophy for the most skilled swimmer at the meet was won by Andrea Duvar of Charlottetown for the third consecutive time. Frances Whitlock was second and Nancy George third, both from Charlottetown.

Judges were David Mills, Marilyn MacLean and Heather Ramsay. Alberton Industries trophy for boatmanship was won by Wendell Weeks of Alberton. The trophy was presented by Wally Williamson, of the Canadian opera company, presently in Charlottetown. For the best demonstration of skiing, Dale Turner, O'Leary placed first, Floyd Hardy, Alberton, second and Vern McTaggert, Summerside was third.

Eleven - year-old Paul Banks of Chicago was the, only entry in the 200 yard tourist swim and he received first prize for his fine effort.

A demonstration of skin diving was put on by Cst. John Grier, Alberton RCMP detachment and Don Bartlett, Summerside detachment. Over twenty swimming events were run off under the supervision of the water safety division of the Red Cross. The director of water safety, Mrs. Evelyn Cudmore was in attendance. Edwin Turner, president of Alberton and West Prince board of trade, sponsors of aquatic day, extended a welcome to the large crowd and called on Bob Simmons, canadian champion discus thrower, to officially open aquatic day.

Hon. L. G. Dewar, minister of education, noted that Islanders are doing well in track and field and congratulated the board of trade for sponsoring the sports events. Robert Campbell and Don Campbell spoke briefly. Rev. David MacDonald capably handled the mike as master of ceremonies. Owing to high winds, Dave Kierson of the sky divers, announced that their program could not be held but those wishing to do so could make a flight over the area. A chicken barbecue was held on the grounds and the day concluded with a dance in Alberton legion hall sponsored by the ladies auxiliary.
