A Great Day's Sport. — The races at Souris to-morrow promise to be very successful. There are twenty-six horses now in training for the various races on the track at that place, including Elmo, Golden, Blackbird, Neptune Lee, King of the Turf, and Gay Boy. The track is in good condition. The attendance from the city will undoubtedly be very large. The train leaves town at a quarter past seven in the morning, local time. Return fare only 85 cents.

Some Beans.—In March last the four-year-old daughter of John W. Matheson, who lives on Grafton Street, between Hillsborough and Weymouth Streets, planted a bean in a flower pot. The pot, with its contents, was kept in the house until the warm weather set in, when it was put outside where it would have plenty of sun. There are now no less than 147 pods growing from this one bean. This is certainly a remarkable yield.

Letters to the Editor

Letter From Mr. P. P. Gillis.

Sir,—As regards Dr. Strickland's letter, he gave the challenge, and I think he had a right to see me if he wants to do business. Let him deposit what sum he likes in the Secretary's hands and I will cover it, and have the race to come off after the exhibition.

P. P. Gillis.

Exchange of Pulpits.

Sir, — Your correspondent "Loyal Churchman" has really retired. He stakes all on the remarks of Canon Lucock, and offers nothing in their defence. He would have us believe what he cares not to defend. What will Canon Lucock think of his admirer now? Having dragged the Canon's remarks from the obsecurity into which they had justly fallen "Loyal Churchman" had neither the courage to defend them when assailed nor the tact to apologize for having brought them to the notice of the public. Perhaps it is best. Newspaper controversy is not always a safe venture, and the Canon's remarks, it is hoped, may pass without ridicule by passing without public notice.

If "Loyal Churchman" is possessed of any of that faith of which he alleges I am deficient, he should adopt a more prudent course to make it known. I am sure cowardice is no evidence of faith, and yet that is the only attribute he gives us any evidence of being possessed of.

Pacers and Trotters.

Sir,—I do not think some of the track associations are using Mr. P. P. Gillis and his pacer right. There should be a pacing class. There are some who pretend to know, who say his contention that the pacer and trotter enter in the same race "all through the United States" is not tenable. Mr. Gillis has, I presume, all the statistics on this point, and just to convince these parties, I would like to see Mr. Gillis name half a dozen of such racing events, such as he advocates which occurred through the Grand Circuit in the United States, or over the kite track of Mr. C. W. Williams at Independence. Then again, there are great racing meetings out in California. No doubt Mr. Gillis could adduce numerous cases this season where the trotter and the pacer went the diagonal and sidewheel in the same race. If Mr. Gillis would only name the dates and places and the trotters and pacers that scored off together "through the United States," he would do much to close the mouths of some people who pretend "to know all about it," some of them who never owned a piece of horseflesh in their lives that could beat that wonderful and speedy inbred Hambletonian filly now being jogged with such consummate skill by that wizard of the sulkey, Mr. DeCourcey.

The Exhibition.

Sir,—I hear complaints from all quarters because of the admission for the two leading days of the Provincial Exhibition, namely, "50 cents for each time of entering," exclusive of the extra charge for admittance to the grand stand. The universal rule at exhibitions elsewhere is "25 cents each time of entering." At Charlottetown children are charged 25 cents each time of entering and at the Halifax Provincial Exhibition the admission for children is 10 cents. I know that the excuse given by the Directors of the Charlettetown Driving Park for their high charges as compared with other places is, that on our two leading days all who enter have access to the race course, as well as to the general agricultural and industrial departments of the Exhibition. Hence the charge of fifty cents each time on entering at the front gate. The prevailing opinion, however, is that country people and others who are more interested in the growth of the soil and its products than they are in horse racing, should not be forced to pay for shows in which they take little or no interest. The grand stand was erected for the purpose of accomodating those who wished to witness the proceedings on the race course. It is said to be capable of seating at least 2500 people. Why not charge those who desire to see the races 25 cents each time on entering the grand stand, being the only place from which exhibitions of speed can be witnessed, and make the front gate general admission 25 cents, which is the prevailing and popular fee at all agricultural shows.

Telegram From the Clouds.

People are generally disposed to ridicule the idea of good things dropping from the clouds; but it is the unexpected that happens, and no one need, during the next few weeks at least, be surprised if a bottle of whiskey, or an order for such, fall at his feet. The proprietors of the celebrated "Claymore" whiskey (Messrs. Greenlees Bros.) have adopted an ingenious method of advertising their specialty, for, like all shrewd commercial men, they are well aware that advertising is the soul of business. From the naval exhibition they are sending up a balloon from which the æronaut showers down circulars. At the back of some of the sheets is printed a coupon entitling the finder to a bottle of six-year-old "Claymore" whiskey. Several of these coupon bearing papers have fallen in West Sussex, and persons at Oakley, Abingeer, Charlwood and Capthorne, who have been lucky enough to come across them have received a bottle of the liquor from Messrs. Greenlees agents.—Extract from the West Sussex Times.

Messrs. Lawrence A. Wilson & Co., the Canadian agents, inform the public that this same balloon will make several ascensions during the Exposition here, and distribute in its flight over the city hundreds of telegrams bearing coupons good for a bottle of Claymore Scotch, redeemable at their office or at any of their customers.

Notice.—To the working men of Charlottetown: Call to-morrow evening, Saturday, between the hours of seven and nine at Jas. Paton & Co's., and see the wonderful Gramophone or talking machine. We will give an exhibition of the above wonderful curiosity free to all who will call.—Jas. Paton & Co.

AGENTS WANTED!—"Life of Sir John A. Macdonald," by Col. J. P. Macpherson. In the dark days of 1873-78, Col. J. Pennington Macpherson, nephew of the late Premier, proposed to him to write the story of his life. He consented, and gave assistance by letters to persons in possession of the necessary information respecting his public life, since which time the work has steadily proceeded. Owing to the author's connection and intimacy with his uncle, he is in a position to give many interesting facts which no other writer could, and much fuller information regarding the events with which Sir John was so closely connected.
