Fun and Games

Once again, we were driving around town, smoking joints and waiting to see what might happen. As we drove around Victoria Park we passed an old man riding a bicycle; a likely target for some sort of mischief. WE drove right on by though not feeling the proper vibes just yet.

About 1/4 mile up the road the vibes started getting stronger. Lo and behold, there were two pretty little 15 year olds, peddling their asses with the utmost finesse. If you've ever smoked dope with a 15 year old girl, you might understand what went through our minds as we cautiously approached the pair and asked: "How would you girls like to come smoke a joint with us?"

"I don't think we'd better right now," said the cutest of the two. Just as we were groping for the right words to follow up our approach, along comes the old man on the bicycle, just in time to solve the problem.

"Don't you think those girls are a little young for you boys?" said the old whipper.

"They're never too young to learn, if you follow my drift," came the reply from someone.

"Well, I think that cute one there is," retorted the old fellow, starting to sound harsh and getting red in the face. "She's my daughter and if I see you anywhere around her, I'll get out the shotgun."

"Screech. That familiar sound of rubber peeling, as we quickly got away from that predicament. Sheesh. You just can't win these days.
