Pleads Guilty To Manslaughter

MONTREAL (CP)—Wilfrid White of Saint John, N.B., pleaded guilty Wednesday to a reduced charge of manslaughter arising from a street brawl last Sept. 15 that caused the death of taxi driver Auguste Gagner.

Mr. Justice Wilfrid Lazure said he will sentence White Friday.

White, 24, originally was charged with murder but was allowed to plead guilty on the reduced count.

The defence claimed that White, while under the influence of alcohol, became involved in the fight after being insulted by another man who ran away. The lawyers said the taxi driver had no reason to become involved in the affair and the blow that caused his death was an extremely unfortunate and unlikely one.

Medico-legal expert, Dr. J. M. Roussel, said the taxi driver's life could in all probability have been saved if he had gone immediately to hospital.

A witness testified that Gagner refused to go to hospital when police suggested it.
