LIFE AMONG THE LEPERS — Sister Rose Gertrude has written another article for the Ladies' Home Journal for June, on "What it is to be a Leper," in which she gives a clear glimpse of leper life in Molakai: how the disease is contracted; how it is treated and cured, and how the lepers live in their exile.

A SUGGESTION.—All ladies attending the Dramatic Entertainment in the Lyceum on Thursday evening next are requested to kindly remove their bonnets or hats, as the favor will be greatly appreciated by those occupying back seats, and add much to the pleasure of all present. The ladies will kindly bear this in mind.

EARLY NOTICE. — The parishioners of Miscouche were the first to publish the date of their tea party. As only a limited number of tickets are issued, application should be made early.

A WORD IN SEASON.—It is reported that a number of the passengers on board the West River steamer last evening were drunk. If the report be true, the fact is discreditable to West River. Men should, in these days, be above getting drunk. On the other hand, those who sell liquor in this town had better beware lest they create a public feeling which will again place them upon the criminal list and enforce the law.

PRICES GOING UP.—An exchange says: European and American grain markets were excited and again higher on Saturday. In Chicago cash wheat closed at $1.12, May wheat 1.12½ cash, corn, 7 3¼, May corn, 7 2¼, cash pork, 12 87½, May pork, 12 97½. The "bulls" look for still higher prices due to the shortage in "available supply."

THE DISPLAY of novelties to-day at Beer Bros. is again the centre of attraction for the ladies. The variety of gloves and handkerchiefs shown is almost bewildering, and the late arrivals of mantles and millinery are very attractive. The show windows again deserve special mention. The taste shown in draping and arranging reflects additional credit on the designers.

VALUABLE TESTIMONY.—Mrs. Wm. Lavers, of No. 70, Hypolite Street, writes to the proprietors: "I have pleasure in certifying to the efficacy of Campbell's Quinine Wine. A member of my family has taken it for some time with marked benefit, and during the late epidemic of influenza was the only one in my house who escaped the disease. I believe the wine possesses all the tonic and restorative qualities you claim for it." For sale by all druggists.
