OBITUARY

Inserted by friends and relatives as a tribute to the deceased.

MRS. JOSEPH COADY

The death of Mrs. Joseph Coady of Emyvale, Lot 65 took place in the Sacred Heart Home in Charlottetown on Tuesday evening June 25 after a lengthy illness. Throughout her life she had endured many illnesses all of which she bore with Christian faith and fortitude and with a perfect resignation to the Will of God. Her last illness, too, was accepted as coming from the hand of God and she approached death without fear and with a perfect acceptance of God's Will.

She had been well fortified by the last rites of the Holy Catholic Church in which she had always been a good and faithful member, and had the consolation of having her husband and also her sister and family with her in the end.

Mrs. Coady who was in her eightieth year, was the former Mary Campbell of Campbell's Cove. She received her early education in the local school and later entered the nursing profession in New York City. She later returned to her native province and was for some years Matron of The Dalton Sanitorium which had been built in the Wiltshire area by the late Sir Charles Dalton, later Lieutenant Governor of this province.

In 1918 she married Joseph Coady of Emyvale and continued to reside in that district ever since. The late Mrs. Coady was a very humble and retiring woman despite her professional training and natural intelligence. She nevertheless possessed a natural kindness and friendliness which endeared her to all with whom she came in contact. In those days of lack of travelling facilities and scarcity of doctors her professional advice and aid was often sought, both within and without her own district. This help was freely given with no thought of self-sacrifice or personal gain. The knowledge that she was helping others was sufficient reward for her.

Besides her sorrowing husband she leaves to mourn their loss two sons and two daughters. They are Aeneas of Emyvale; Mamie (Mrs. John E. Mulligan) New Haven; Bernice (Mrs. Gregory Murphy) of Hope River; and Joseph of Edmonton, Alberta. Also one sister Mrs. Teresa Ching of Merrow, Connecticut and one brother, Aeneas in New York City. Three brothers Bernard, Joseph and Duncan predeceased her.

Her funeral which was very largely attended was held to St Annes Church, Lot 65 on Friday June 28. Requiem High Mass was sung by her Pastor, Rev. Charles McCarthy. Present in the sanctuary were Rev. Dr. Callaghan of Indian River Parish; Rev. James Smith, P.P.; Kelly's Cross and Rev. Fr Gallant of Hope River. Father McCarthy also performed the committal service at the grave side.

The pall-bearers were: Matthias Callaghan, Walter Coady, William Griffin, James Cudmore Dominick McDonald, and John Cusack.

May She Rest In Peace. Amen.

CARD OF THANKS

The family of the late Mrs. Joseph Coady wish to thank Dr. Clarence Coady, the Sisters and Nurses of The Sacred Heart Home, also all their kind friends and neighbours who were so kind and helpful in their time of sorrow. Also all those who gave Mass Cards, flowers and spiritual bouquets and all who sent cards and messages of sympathy.

THE FAMILY.
