A man who recently died at Dexter, Me., has been so ill for weeks that he was unable to lift a hand or even turn his head. Suddenly, to the astonishment of his attendants, he raised himself in bed with apparent strength and ease, a glad look overspreading his features, and, pointing into space, with upraised hand, exclaimed: "There he is! There's Ben!" Then he fell back dead. Ben was a brother who died several years previously.

THE PROPRIETORS,

Make a Few Pertinent Remarks to their Patrons.

TORONTO, Jan. 28.—Dr. L. A. Smith & Co., of this city, whose name has become a household word through the Dominion, and in many states of the Union, in consequence of the wonderful cures effected by Dodd's Kidney Pills, desire to thank their patrons for the good words they have spoken for this remedy. During the past few months these expressions have been wired to nearly every paper in the country by grateful people whose lives have been prolonged. These expressions are straightforward and honest, and should convince any unprejudiced mind of their sincerity and truthfulness. You know now, reader, that Dodd's Kidney Pills will do all that is claimed for them. They have stood the test.

HOW TO TREAT A COLD.

Don't stuff a cold, as the old adage advises, if you do you will have a fever to starve. A genuine cold is a shock received by the many million nerves which approach near the surface of the human body, and which control the nearly seven million pores of the skin. This shock closes the pores of the skin, is transmitted to the nerve centre and back to the mucous membranes, forcing a great amount of blood to these membranes, creating more or less irritation and consequent fever, inflammation, dryness, then watery discharge and catarrh. The shock may have its cause from a chill, from improper eating, a nervous fright and various other causes which irritate the nerves of the skin and mucous membranes of the nose, throat and bronchial tubes. Excess of blood in the stomach still more clogs the system and pores of the skin, so that effete matter, which should be carried off by the natural courses is retarded; which is ample reason for not stuffing a cold. Experimenting with a severe cold is a dangerous custom, as most persons try one remedy until some friend suggests another "sure cure." When slight hoarseness or tightening of the nasal membranes warns one of a skin exposure or chill from whatever cause, act promptly, delays are dangerous; with children it may mean croup and strangulation; with adults, catarrh, bronchitis, perhaps pneumonia. Scores of mothers would as soon go to bed without matches in the house as without that old-fashioned remedy, Johnson's Anodyne Liniment near at hand for colds and croupy children. The proprietors, I. S. Johnson & Co., Boston, Mass., will send their new illustrated book entitled "Treatment for Diseases," free to any person for the asking. .....

DON'T DIE BEFORE YOUR TIME.

"Why will you die?" That is the question the scientist now asks the miserable sufferer from consumption or lung trouble The answer naturally is "because I can't help it." But the consumptive can help it. Miller's Emulsion made from Norwegian Cod Liver, and combined with the hypophosphites of lime and soda will cure nine cases out of ten of consumption, and the tenth case can get a reprieve for a year or two. New blood is what the consumptive requires, and Miller's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil, when taken produces it. Miller's Emulsion is the great nerve strengthener and blood maker, and cures Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Scrofula and all lung affections. In Big Bottles, 50c. and $1, at all Drug Stores.

DR. G. C. OSGOOD,
Lowell, Mass.

"Castoria is the best remedy for children of which I am acquainted. I hope the day is not far distant when mothers will consider the real interest of their children, and use Castoria instead of the various quack nostrums which are destroying their loved ones, by forcing opium, morphine, soothing syrup and other hurtful agents down their throats, thereby sending them to premature graves."

UNCLE SAM NEVER PAYS

A DEBT IF HE CAN HELP IT BY HOOK OR BY CROOK.

He Owes All Classes of People for Every Sort of Thing, But Will Not Balance Accounts So Long as He Can Avoid It.

Our government makes money in divers scaly ways, says the Chicago Times. For one thing, it's the worst hand to pay its debts of anybody, public or private. It will cheat you every chance it gets. It will refuse to settle up at times. Then it will refuse to pay after it's settled up. It owes all sorts of people for all sorts of things. It has never paid for the Dolphin. It owes still for the dome on the Capitol. It owes white men, negroes and Indians. It owes Americans and foreigners. Everything it can get out of paying in the way of debt it invariably does. Millions are due to people from the government on claims which have been passed on, allowed, and ordered paid. In a myriad of instances the lucky fellow never knew it, never found it out. Nor is he notified by the government. Indeed the effort of Uncle Sam is to keep him in ignorance and as a result never be called on for the money. It is an open, iron rule in the Treasury Department that if an employe or clerk notify anybody that money for any cause is coming to him from the government the good-natured informant is to be instantly dismissed. So much does the Nation dislike to pay its honest debts that it would incontinently decapitate a clerk who opened the eyes of some ignorant creditor to the fact that money was coming to him. Now that may not be a pleasing statement for a proud American to believe, but we have investigated and declare that that's about the way it stands.

There is one source of money making constantly flowing a profit to the Nation which depends on the misfortunes of others rather than the concealment of active dishonesty of the government. This is when money is lost or destroyed by private individuals. It all goes to the public credit.

Uncle Sam can figure out pretty well before the beginning of a fiscal year that so many thousand dollars will be put to his credit on "profit and loss" account before the year is over. The profit will come from bonds and bank notes destroyed and never presented for redemption, from money orders which are lost and never duplicated and from stamps which are not put to the use for which they were intended. These profits are never cast up, because debts of the government are seldom outlawed. But they are as real as though they were credited to Uncle Sam on the books of the Treasury. Of course, it is no fault of the government that this profit accumulates. Every effort is made to find the man to whom the government is indebted, and every reasonable opportunity is given to him to claim the amount of the indebtedness. In the case of a lost or stolen bond, he has simply to prove ownership and give an indemnity bond to protect the Government against loss. In the case of a Treasury note injured by fire, he has to send in the charred remains, and the Treasury experts will decipher, as far as possible, the value of the pile (its original value) and the money will be restored to him. In the case of a money order, both the remitter and the remittee are advised again and again that the money remains unpaid. Still, claims against the Government aggregating many thousands are left unpaid every year, and the total of even the last thirty years will run up far into the millions. Even in the matter of unpaid money orders the Government has just made an accounting of $1,300,000, earned in the last thirty years and now turned into the Post-office Department fund, probably never to be repaid to its owners.

The greatest source of unearned income, of course, is the destruction of Treasury notes. Nearly $15,000,000 have been made by the government up to the present day, as nearly as can be estimated, by the destruction of Treasury notes.

Here is the statement in detail of the notes and certificates issued by the government estimated to have been destroyed beyond all possibility of redemption up to Jan. 1, 1891: United States notes, $5,410,541; silver certificates, $447,004; gold certificates, $200,000; national bank notes, $6,394,555. Total, $12,452,100. Huntington, the chief of the loans and currency division of the government, estimates that not more than $1,000,000 or $2,000,000 have been destroyed since January 1, 1891. The carelessness which prevailed during the war period, he says, was responsible for a large amount of the missing money, and the destruction, while it increases in proportion to the amount of money issued, is not so great proportionately as it was at that time. It amounts probably to less than $500,000 every year.

Priestley's Dress Goods

A good name is more potent than thrones and kingdoms. In business a good name is vital. The name of Priestley is a synonym for what is delicate, durable and beautiful in Black Dress Goods. In England it is a household word. Priestley's dress fabrics are worn by the well dressed women of Great Britain, while on this side, they have attained to general favor. Ladies should buy no other black dress goods till they have seen Priestley's. They add to an unequalled durability, a beautiful draping quality. Women of taste understand what that means in the success of a costume.
