

is not only a sneer from the "Mountain," but a snarl from the "Moderates." In prospect there is more reaction: desperate assaults upon the press are said to be contemplated; and the coup d'etat which is to overwhelm the republic is fixed—for some day before the next general election. In the meantime, M. Thiers comes to London, to have interviews at Claremont with Louis Philippe and the Duchess of Orleans, in the hope, the gossip says, of inducing a definite withdrawal of the Orleanist claims, that Henri the Fifth may be introduced to French politics as the single alternative after the republic. Lamartine goes to Smyrna; and, on all hands, it seems agreed that there is to be a lull—the first disturbance being likely to arise, not from within, but from without.

HOUSE OF LORDS, June 7.

CUBA.—In reply to a question from Lord Brougham, the Marquis of Lansdowne said the piratical expedition to Cuba had been undertaken not only without the sanction, but against the strict prohibition of the American Government; and he had not the least doubt that that Government had done all that lay in its power to prevent it.—The Earl of Aberdeen was satisfied of the sincerity of the Government of the United States, but he regretted that when he himself had proposed, twenty years ago, that England, France, and America, should guarantee the possession of Cuba to Spain, the United States refused their consent to the proposal.—Lord Brougham was of opinion that, by the law of nations, every British cruiser was bound to assist the authorities of Cuba in destroying the 8000 execrable pirates who had entered the expedition.—Lord Stanley asked what course Her Majesty's Government had taken in reference to the expedition. He wished to know whether any, and what, instructions had been sent out to the commander of our naval forces upon the West India seas.—The Marquis of Lansdowne said the expedition had been matter of rumour for some time, and of more than one communication between Her Majesty's minister at Washington and the Government of the United States. He declined to answer the question relative to what instructions had been sent out to our naval commander upon the West India seas.—Lord Stanley insisted upon being informed whether any instructions had been sent out at all.—Earl Grey declared it would be a breach of duty on the part of the Queen's ministers to give the answer further than that the matter was under their consideration. After a short conversation, the question was not further pressed, and the subject dropped. The house adjourned at five minutes past six o'clock.

Lord Cottenham will be forthwith raised to the rank of Earl of Cottenham, in the County of Cambridge, and Viscount Crowhurst, of Crowhurst, in the county of Surrey.

ITALY.—The Pope has published his "harangue" in explanation of the startling events of his reign: and commenting on the affairs of the Roman Catholic world. He specially stigmatizes the persecution of the Archbishop of Turin by the Piedmontese government. He expresses his grief that Catholicism should be "menaced" in the kingdom of Belgium. His Holiness has decided on the merits of two candidates for canonization; viz., Peter Claver, a Jesuit Missionary, who died two hundred years ago, and whose beatification the Pope declared might be safely proceeded with, since his virtues and miracles were clearly established; and Germaine Cousin, a secular virgin, a shepherdess, born at Pibrac, in the Diocese of Toulouse, in the year 1579, whose theological and cardinal virtues his Holiness pronounced to be so evidently proved, that the discussion of the four miracles said to be wrought by her might safely come on.

SUPREME COURT.

The June Term of the Supreme Court commenced yesterday. The following gentlemen were sworn in as Grand Jurors:—W. Cundall, Foreman, James Warren, Martin Doherty, Joseph Holroyd, Peter Macgowan, Daniel Davies, Robert Hutchinson, H. D. Morpeth, H. W. Lobban, Ewen McMillan, Henry Haszard, Thomas Dawson, Joseph McDonald, Robert Longworth, A. H. Yates, John C. McDonald, George Hooper, Kenneth McKenzie, T. B. Tremain, E. L. Lydiard, R. Faught, John Trenaman, Richard Heartz.

His honor the CHIEF JUSTICE briefly but lucidly charged the Jury. He directed their attention to several cases of larceny on the calendar—alluded to the several cases of stabbing, a crime which, he regretted, had become too prevalent of late, that required their earnest consideration, and his Honor commented particularly on the case of Beaton, in which death ensued. The Chief Justice concluded his charge by exhorting the Grand Jury to diligence in the discovery of unlicensed dealers in spirituous liquors, describing the habitations of such persons as being, in too many cases, the haunts of vice, and the sources whence spring the most deplorable evils to society.

The Court adjourned at an early hour yesterday,—several causes, of minor interest, were, however, disposed of—his Honor the Assistant Judge presiding.
