

Some Day.

Some day I shall be dead. Some day this third head, With all the anxious thoughts it now doth know, Shall be laid low.

This body, pain-racked, ill, Shall lie at length, and still, Under the clover and the wind-swept grass, Nor hear you pass.

That were, indeed, strange sleep, When even you might weep, And come, and go—even you—unheard of me As bird or bee.

Nay, sweet heart, nay! believe Here is no cause to grieve. One so wayward, of trouble so opprest, Is glad of rest.

Perchance, when that release Hath wrought its spell of peace, O'er this unquiet heart, long vexed with woe, Heart's-ease may grow.

Who loves me will not weep When that I lie asleep, But rather joy to think such sorrow may Have ended some day.

—Isabella Grant Moretti, in Harper's Magazine for December.

A Clergyman on the Press.

The Rev. M. J. Savage, of Boston, in a recent sermon on the newspaper, said:—"I believe that the daily newspaper is an engine of incalculable power; and that, in the main and in the long run, its power is exerted for the enlightenment and lifting up of mankind. I believe that it only needs that public opinion should be so developed as to make it a living process for any newspaper to be guilty of these things I have indicated. It only needs this to make it what it claims to be, the most potent factor in moulding and guiding the life of the world. And we, of all others, have reason to rejoice in this. For the modern newspaper, in diffusing the latest teaching of science, in revealing the religious condition of other races, past and present, in scattering knowledge common to the few best thinkers of the world, so as to make it the common property of men, is preaching our gospel and doing our work. If true to this function, it cannot help preaching the gospel, first, of intelligence—wide, free, fearless intelligence—and then the gospel of the public good, which means, translated into Biblical phrase, the gospel of everlasting righteousness.

Horsford's Acid Phosphate

AS A BRAIN TONIC. DR. E. W. ROBERTSON, Cleveland, O., says: "From my experience can cordially recommend it as a brain and nerve tonic, especially in nervous debility, nervous dyspepsia, etc."

Advices from Aspinwall contain the news that the Caral Company's hospitals at that city and Panama are crowded with sick, several patients suffering from yellow fever.

HEBRON, Yarmouth, Oct. 15th, 1882. To DRs. BLANNEY & L.W.S. 119 Hollis St., Halifax.

DEAR SIR,—I desire to express my feelings of profound gratitude to you who have helped me so much by the use and application of your wonderful medicine known as your Absorbent Pads and Mastix, &c. I was sick about two years and spent a large sum of money with physicians but received very little benefit until I tried your absorbent treatment. When I commenced using it this summer I could scarcely walk across the floor, I had such a weakness across the tie, and now I can walk a mile at a time and attend to household duties much better than I could before, and feel only too glad to recommend this truly great treatment to any person or persons who may be afflicted as I was. You are at liberty to make any disposition of this note you may deem proper.

LORNE HIGHLAND WHISKY

AN ANALYTICAL INSTITUTION 54, Holborn-Edinburg, E.C., London, Aug. 8, 1879 Report on the LORNE HIGHLAND WHISKY:

"We have visited the bottling stores of Greenlee Brothers, and have selected from the vats, samples of their Lorne Highland Whisky, and have subjected them to careful examination and analysis. The samples were very fine, fragrant, mellow, and of pleasant flavor, and possessed all the characteristics of pure and well-matured Scotch Whisky of the first quality."
