ECONOMY, ETC.

SIR,—A writer in the Guardian of this morning advocates the corporation reducing the price of waters so as to admit of the use of water motors. His strong plea is that the use of water motors would reduce the cost of manufacturing, and signs himself "Economy." Why, bless you, sir, what use has the Boss for economy. Lately the printing of the City Report was let, and the first intimation the Council had was to be told by the boss that Messrs. So-and-so had the job. The chairman of the Tender Committee seemed to know as little of the motter as the majority of the Council. Several printers say they were not asked to tende.

Economy is very good in theory: but, in practice, not worth r cent. Economy had shown how Some one could secure an advantage pecuniary or political, his chances of consideration for his suggestion would have been beteer.

OBSERVER.

A GOOD STORY

A certain young lady in delicate health was advised by her doctor to take a half-teaspoonful of Scott's emulsion of cod-liver oil after dinner—once a day—and found herself almost suddenly growing robust.

So small a dose is by no means the rule; the rule is whatever the stomach will bear—not more. Another rule is: take it on every least occasion, but not too much; don't overdo it.

We'll send you a little to try, if you like.

Successful Negotiations.

LONDON, Dec 21.—Lord Lansdowne, secretary of state for foreign affairs, has concluded negotiations, according to the Daily Mail, by which Russia will Januarr 1st, give Great Britain entire control of the railway from Pekin to Shan Ha Kwang.

PUBLIC OPINION.

SIR,—The every-second-day mail system is one of the progressive moves of this up to-date administration. The country is delighted with such a service naturally and now that Sir Louis has his ends served it can be delighted and be blowed to it.

P. C.

SURELY Premier Farquharson will not dare to ask the Governor to allow him the whole administration one day longer than is necessary to ascertain who are his elected supporters. We want to know who are responsible for the government of the country at once. Even the Guardian may depart from the sunny ways of peace if the information is long withheld.

"IT certainly looks well" writes a correspondent "for a New Brunswick politician to come over here atd dish up mean personalities to our prominent conservatives politicau when argument to bolster up a strikingly dishonest course on temperance and purity, is altogether wanting. Senator Ferguson can well afford to treat this organized by policy with contempt.

CHRISTMAS.

As the fair Christmastide draws nigh
May gladness beam from every eye.

Let all the world rejoice, and sing,
And hail the birthday of our King.

Trim up your homes so bright to see
And don't forget the Christmas Tree.

Such glad reunions have been planned
By many a happy household band.

The little ones are glad because
They all believe in Santa Claus.

And they'll hang up their little socks
For Santa's lovely Christmas box.

They think he's now upon the roap
With such a miscellaneous load.

The stores clad in their Christmas,
Look beautiful we must confess.

The ladies with an anxious sigh,
Have asked themselves, "What shall I buy?"

The questions solved, and in galore
Parcels are carried from each store

Such lovely ornaments. and toys,
To please ths darling girls, and boys.

The turkeys, and the geese, are bought
And all the goodies—such a lot.

Now on this blessed Christmastide
Open your hearts, and purses wide.

And out of your abundance spare,
Enough to give the poor a share.

With hearts unselfish, pure and true,
Strive to make others happy too.

O may the Lord his people bless,
With true and lasting happiness.

To rich, and poor, to great and small,
A Merry Christmas unto all.

"Imitation is the Sincerest Form of Flattery"

The best proof that

MINARD'S LINIMENT

has extraordinary merits, and is in good repute with the public, is that IT IS EXTENSIVELY IMITATED. The imitations resemble the genuine article in appearance only. They lack the general excellence of the Genuine.

This notice is necessary, as injurious and dangerous imitations liable to produce chronic inflammation of the skin are often substituted for MINARD'S LINIMENT by Dealers, because they pay a large profit.

They all Sell on the Merit and Advertising of MINARD'S

One in particular claiming to be made by a former proprietor of MINARD'S LINIMENT, which simply is a lie.
