IN MEMORIAM

JAMES S. BIRT

Relatives and friends were greatly shocked at the sudden passing of James S. Birt in Charlottetown on Jan. 13, 1951, in his 74th year. He had been with his son all afternoon and had left him, about fifteen minutes previous to being found alongside the road where he had been gripped with a heart attack and died instantly.

The late Mr. Birt was born at Pisquid and was the son of the late William Henry and Mary Ann Birt. He was married in 1900 to Lisna Beatrice Adams of Hartland, N. B., and lived for a short while in the United States before coming back to P. E. I. where he bought a farm in Covehead Road and carried on a blacksmith trade. He lived there up to a year ago when after the death of his youngest son with whom he lived, he moved to Charlottetown with his daughter Stella and was very active and smart for a man of his age. He had just completed a new house for his daughter-in-law and grandchildren a few weeks prior to his passing.

There are left to mourn his passing two brothers, William of Covehead Road, and Benjamin of Powell River, B. C.; also five daughters and four sons, namely, Arthur, Seymour, Harry, all of Covehead Road; Uttley, of Parkdale; Ruth, Mrs. Brinsley Smith, East Royalty; Grace, Mrs. Leonard Ford, Oyster Bed Bridge; Avis, Mrs. T. W. Barrett; Stella, Mrs. Raymond Doucette, and Erma, Mrs. Everett Wylie, all of Charlottetown.

The funeral was held from the MacLean Funeral Home on Jan. 15th and was largely attended, the service being conducted by Mr. Frederick Bryenton. Hymns sung were "All My Springs", and "Is There Anyone Can Help Us." His remains were laid to rest in the Covehead Road Cemetery beside those of his wife who predeceased him by sixteen years, and son Russell one year ago. The pallbearers were his five sons-in-law and a nephew, namely, Brinsley Smith, T. W. Barrett, Leonard Ford, Raymond Doucette, Everett Wylie and Garth Birt.

MRS. RUSSELL MARTIN

There passed away peacefully at the City Hospital on Ash Wednesday, Feb. 7th., Mrs. Russell Martin, age 49, beloved wife of Mr. Russell Martin. 64 Victoria Street, City.

Suffering a lengthy illness and being aware of her condition and evitable death, she was resigned to the will of God, having absolute faith in his ultimate mercy and justice. A devout member of the parish of the Most Holy Redeemer, her faith and piety was well known to her many friends as well as to the rector and clergy who were in frequent attendance during her illness.

Left to mourn a loving and saintly wife and mother are: Reginald, Elliott, Augustine and Gerald, now in Ontario, who were home to visit their mother just previous to her death; five children at home. Pius, Letitia, Margaret Rose, John and David; another daughter, Arvella (Mrs. George Pineau) of Toronto, flew home to be at her mother's bedside, a month previous to her passing.

Formerly Mary Madeleine Peters of Oyster Bed Bridge, she is also survived by three sisters, Mrs. Charles McDonald, Charlottetown, Mrs. Richard Cullen, Morell and Mrs. Edward Cormier, Brantford, Ont.

The funeral was held from her late residence on Friday, Feb. 9th., to the Church of the Most Holy Redeemer, thence to the Roman Catholic Cemetery.

The many Mass offerings, spiritual bouquets, flowers and cards testified to her popularity among her friends. She will be fondly remembered by all.

Card Of Thanks

Mr. Russell Martin and family wish to thank Dr. J. A. McMillan, sisters and nurses of the Charlottetown Hospital, also those who sent Mass cards, flowers, messages of sympathy and all the kind neighbours and friends who helped them in their recent sad bereavement.

Renews Battle In Commons For Soldier Settlers

OTTAWA, Feb. 22 — (CP) — A persistent Irish farmer from the Prairies yesterday suffered another setback in his annual battle to persuade the Government to liquidate immediately the indebtedness of veterans settled on farms with Government assistance following the First World War.

Robert Fair, a native of Kellocues, Ireland, who came to Canada in 1914 to settle in Vermilion, Alta., was told by a Government spokesman that the $1,428,069 still owed by the veterans cannot be written off "in one fell swoop."

Labor Minister Gregg, speaking in the absence of Veterans Minister LaPointe, said that since 1948 the Government has been gradually liquidating the indebtedness of the old soldiers. He hoped this policy would continue, but he could not undertake on behalf of the Government to eliminate all remaining indebtedness immediately.

The statement did not satisfy Mr. Fair, Social Credit member for the Alberta constituency of Battle River. He called for a vote on the resolution he has been presenting at almost every session during the last 15 years. It urged the Government to grant clear titles to soldiers settled on farms under provisions of the old Soldier Settlement Act.

Th resolution was defeated by a vote of 133 to 53. Supporters included Social Credit, Progressive Conservative and C.C.F. members, P. E. Gagnon (Ind—Chicoutimi). Tom Goode (L—Burnaby-Richmond), George Cruickshank (L—Fraser Valley), Fernand Viau (L—St. Boniface), William Mott (L—New Westminster), Walter Thomson (L—Ontario), and J. A. Simmonds (L—Yukon-MacKenzie River).

The resolution was one of two discussed at the brief mid-week sitting, devoted to proposals of private members. Roch Pinard (L—Chambly-Rouville) set off a discussion with a resolution calling for abolition of tolls on the Victoria and Jacques Cartier Bridges over the St. Lawrence River in Montreal. The debate was not concluded at adjournment and will be resumed later in the session.

Traffic At National Harbors Shows Increase

OTTAWA, Feb. 22—(CP)—Traffic at Canada's national harbors increased during 1950, the Transport Department reported yesterday.

Both the number and the registered tonnage of vessels were higher, and there was a gain of eight per cent in total cargo handled.

Red Cross Sunday To Be Observed In Canadian Churches

TORONTO, Feb. 22—Next Saturday and Sunday, February 24th and 25th, have been set aside as Red Cross Sabbath and Sunday in support of the Society's annual national appeal, Hon. Leopold Macaulay, chairman of the National Executive Committee announced today.

Observance of the two special days in churches and synagogues throughout the nation precedes the March 1st opening of the Red Cross appeal for $5,000,000. This year the Society is appealing for an over-subscription of its regular $5,000,000 objective for peacetime work, in order that it may answer the request of the Department of National Defence for the provision of blood plasma for the armed forces.

Red Cross branches in many communities are planning additional functions this week-end to give the days special significance.

"The spiritual ideal and wide humanitarianism of the Red Cross is emphasized by this traditional practice among clergymen of all faiths," Mr. Macaulay said.

NEW LONDON W. M. S.

The Auxiliary of the W.M.S. of New London United Church held its regular meeting at the home of Mrs. Sterling MacKay on Thursday evening, February 1st. The meeting opened with Mrs. Frank Brown conducting the worship service, the theme of worship being "His Silent Presence". Scripture reading was Psalm 23 followed by hymn 286 and closing prayer. Dedicatory prayer for missionaries was offered by Mrs. Marshall Constable.

The business period followed, conducted by the president. The minutes were read and approved, and roll call was answered with a verse containing the word "Service". There were thirteen members and three visitors. The secretary reported twenty-three calls made and twenty-five cards and eight boxes sent to sick and shutins.

There were thirteen books read during the month. A buying committee was appointed to purchase material to be made into articles of clothing to be sent to United Church Overseas Relief. It was decided to send for an Easter pageant.

A very interesting report of the Presbyterial meetings recently held in Summerside was given by Mrs. J. M. Campbell, Mrs. Harold Dunning, and the president, Mrs. Ray MacLeod. The World Day of Prayer committee gave its report and plans were made for the World Day of Prayer meeting. A bazaar, which was held after the meeting, netted $13.50, the proceeds of which go toward defraying the expenses of mailing overseas parcels. The offering amounted to $8.65.

Mrs. Marshall Constable kindly invited the members to her home for the March meeting. The leader will be Mrs. C. B. Goss and dedicatory prayer will be offered by Mrs. Louis Campbell. The program will be in charge of Mrs. Marshal Constable and Mrs. James Cole who will give readings on Easter The textword for the meeting will be an "Easter Thought."

The meeting closed by repeating the Lord's Prayer in unison. A delicious lunch was then served by the hostess.
