PROVINCIAL LEGISLATURE.

HOUSE OF ASSEMBLY.

MONDAY, March 18.

Mr. Sutherland resumed the debate on the Draft Address. He spoke in defence of the six gentlemen who represent Prince Edward Island in the House of Commons, and said that the wharves, which are not of Federal importance, still belong to the Province, and said that the farmers of the Province should not suffer on account of a rift between the Dominion and Federal Governments. He contended that the amounts received from the Dominion Government on account of the amounts expended by the Province in the construction and maintenance of wharves, were in full settlement of the Provincial claims, and reviewed and criticised the Address.

Mr. Wise thought that the disposition of stock proposed by Mr. Underway was not practicable. Mr. Bell criticised the Address. He considered the paragraph about exhibitions somewhat mysterious, and thought that the Government should give every attention to providing the necessary accommodation for the patients in the Hospital for the Insane. He referred, also, to the consolidation of the statutes and the piers question.

Hon. Mr. Sullivan again explained the matter of the taking over of the piers by the Dominion Government, who were responsible for their maintenance. Mr. Bell spoke briefly in reply. House adjourned.

TUESDAY, March 19.

House in committee on the Draft Address.—Mr. Kelly in the chair. Mr. Sinclair asked for some information concerning the policy of the Government as regards exhibitions.

Hon. Mr. Sullivan replied that he thought it would be inadvisable to announce the policy of the Government while the address is under discussion. He would, however, be very happy to hear the opinions of members of the committee. In his opinion the number of the Commissioners should be reduced.

Mr. Sinclair understood that the exhibitions were hereafter to be under the control of joint stock companies. He would like to know whether or not such was the fact. Mr. Yeo desired information as to the proposed enlargement of the Hospital for the Insane.

Mr. Sullivan said it was intended to provide for the accommodation of a larger number of patients. There is some space in the building which can be utilized; but in order that this may be done, a good deal of money will have to be expended. It is proposed to curtail the apartments of the Medical Superintendent, and add to the number of rooms for patients.

Mr. Sinclair criticised the consolidation of the laws, and said that he thought the Commissioners must have been negligent, or the work would have been done ere this. Why does the Government permit such delay?

Mr. Sullivan explained the matter at length, and said that the laws, as consolidated, should be printed before they are submitted to the Legislature.

Mr. Sinclair agreed as to printing the laws for the use of members of the Legislature; but said they should now be ready to submit to the House.

Mr. Sullivan said that the laws to be consolidated extend over a century, and the task of the Commissioners is a very arduous one. In Ontario the work of consolidation occupied seven commissioners for five years.

The Concert Last Night.

One of the largest audiences we have seen in the Lyceum for some time, attended the Benvolent Irish Society's concert last evening. The programme was well rendered, almost every number being rapturously enjoyed. The singing of Mrs. James Byrne and Miss Stranberg was splendid, that of the first-mentioned lady being particularly good. Mr. L. J. Williams' songs were, as all his songs are, well sung, and Mr. Tanton excelled himself. Mr. A. J. MacDougall has a rich voice, and knows how to use it, but his comic songs could be made more acceptable by a little more action. Mrs. A. J. Quirk was unable to sing, owing to illness, and her place was taken by Mr. Williams, who sang "The Last Rose of Summer," with cornet and piano accompaniment, in finest style. The quartette singing of Messrs. McDougall, Tanton, McNally and Foster, was good, as was also the chorus of St. Dunstan's Glee Club. The instrumental portion of the performance was capital. The violin duet by Mrs. Dixon and Miss Macdonald was well played, as was also the piano solo by the first-named lady. Miss Benoit's harp playing was very artistic. Master James Hyndman's violin solo showed that this youthful performer is fast becoming an expert on the "king of instruments." Mr. Fletcher's cornet solo, and the piano duet by Messrs. Tanton and Foster were also pleasing features. The accompanists were Miss Hyndman and Mrs. Williams, and Messrs. Hyndman and Foster. Mr. Tanton was the Director. The performance closed with "God Save the Queen." We have not heard the amount realized, but it must have been large.

Local and Other Items.

Got Three Months.—A Montreal man named Joseph Fontaine, who built a house for himself but stole most of the materials and tools with which to build it, has been sent to jail for three months only, on account of his large family and previously good character.

Sudden Death.—Mrs. Donald McMecken died very suddenly at her home in Sackville, N. B., on Wednesday night, of apoplexy. She had been out spending the evening and was attacked after returning home. A physician was speedily summoned but his skill was powerless to help her and she died about two hours after.

Sorrows of the Sea.—A Norfolk, Va., despatch of the 16th says: Captain Knight of Baltimore, second mate Richards of Philadelphia, and three sailors of the brig Agnes Barton wrecked near Virginia beach yesterday afternoon, were drowned last night and this morning. During the night three of the men were washed overboard and lost. When day broke this morning the life saving crew saw the three remaining men lashed in the rigging. At 7 o'clock the vessel burst and the masts fell and the men were lost.

Fasted and Died.—John L. Adams, cotton factor of Macon, Ga., was jailed on February 16th, in that city, on a charge of forgery. He acknowledged his guilt, and humiliated with a deep sense of his disgrace, refused to take food after his incarceration. He steadily grew weaker. When he was obliged to go to bed his family were allowed to remove him under a guard to his home. The tears and entreaties of his family, the advice of his physicians and the prayers of ministers were unable to move him from his purpose, and he died last Wednesday night of starvation, after 26 days' fasting.

Fatal Boiler Explosion.—The battery of the boiler at the West Point boiler works of R. Monroe & Sons, Pittsburgh, Pa., exploded shortly after noon on the 14th, while many of the workmen were at dinner. The place was completely wrecked. Of 65 employees five were killed and eleven injured, a number quite seriously. One will die. It is feared that many more are buried in the debris. The cause will probably never be known as the engineer was killed outright. No one else has been found who was in the engine room at the time of the explosion. The loss will reach $30,000.

Locked the Cashier In.—On Saturday week, Mr. F. L. Smith, cashier of the Norwood Bank, Watertown, N. Y., was alone in the building about noon, when Charles Phelps, the post-office clerk, entered and asked for some stamps. Mr. Smith stepped into the vault to get them, when Phelps quickly closed the door and turned the combination, locking the cashier in. The robber then turned to the money drawer and took all the paper money that it contained, $278, leaving several hundred dollars in silver. Phelps had a horse ready, and with it he started for the Canadian border. Meanwhile a customer entered the bank, heard the cashier calling to him from the vault, and being instructed as to the combination, released him. Phelps was captured on the midnight train and delivered to the officers. Phelps had fallen into bad habits of late, and is said to have become an opium-eater.

Personal.

The papers in the case of Louis Riel were laid before the United States Senate yesterday.

The wife of Major Gilbert, who printed the first Mormon bible, died at Palmyra, N. Y., on the 13th.

L. C. DesBrisay, late of the Amherst agency, is now attached to the Bank of Nova Scotia, New Glasgow.

Tennyson is said to be keeping wonderfully well. He is too energetic to be idle, and he reads his daily paper and preserves full freshness of interest in the events of his time.

Probably no military man has ever served his country so long and faithfully as Count Von Moltke, of Germany. On the 9th of March the seventieth anniversary of his entry into the army was celebrated. The imperial and all the royal families of the empire sent and presents messages of congratulation.

Austrian bent wood cane chair. Newest and most fashionable furniture of the day; call and examine. Also his large general assortment of furniture cheap at John Newson's Furniture Warehouses.

Boston Markets.

THURSDAY, March 14.

POTATOES.—Receipts past six days 43,000 bus.; previous six days 60,000. Arrivals have been lighter than last week, but the supply is ample for all demands, so far. Trade continues very moderate, and the general condition of the market unchanged from last week.

EGGS.—Receipts for the week, 4 boxes, 173 bbls., 13,211 cases; last week, 1 box, 80 bbls., 6,692 cases. The market ruled fairly steady during the first half of the week, but under the largely increased receipts has been steadily losing strength for the past three days, and closes dull at reduced quotations.

FISH.—The Lenten demand causes a little better tone to prevail, but trade is still moderate. The market is well stocked with all kinds of fish except mackerel which are scarce and nominal. We quote:—
Mackerel, extra shore, per bbl $25 00 @ 26 00
" No. 1..... 23 00 @ 24 00
" No. 2..... 22 00.....
