Why the Light Went Out.

In front of the high altar in the cathedral at Salzburg there is a great lamp that is supposed to burn "forever and a day." One morning, years ago, worshippers were surprised to see it go out, and this was repeated morning after morning, always about the same time. It was thought the attendant had neglected to give it sufficient oil, and though he declared his innocence, he was told that he would be discharged if the oversight were repeated. Unwilling to deal unjustly with the man, the dean of the cathedral hid himself one night to see if he could solve the mystery. He had not long to wait. About 10 o'clock a big rat was seen descending the rope by which the lamp was suspended. Having reached the oil, it fed freely, and then went away by the way it came. Needless is it to say that the attendant held his place.

Farragut's Opinion of Dewey.

Rear Admiral Dewey as a young officer impressed one as a self contained man with powerful native force. I often think of the remark made by Admiral Goldsborough to Farragut on the occasion of the visit of the latter to our ship. The two admirals were standing within a few feet of my table, and Dewey had stepped back to give an order to the orderly. "Farragut," said Goldsborough, "Dewey will make his mark in the world if he ever gets an opportunity." "Aye," answered Farragut, with the pleasant smile so becoming to his homely face, "and he will make the opportunity."

Revenge.

"Hurry up, there!" yelled the conductor to a man who had chased the car about a quarter of a mile. "We can't wait all day for you." "Is this a Woodward avenue car?" asked the tall, thin man, who was panting like a tugboat after his long run. "Yes," was the curt reply. "That's right," said the thin man, "always speak the truth, and your neighbors will respect you." And so saying he hurried around the corner, while the conductor came down from the car to look for a brick.—Detroit Journal.

The Tobacco Flower.

"There is one flower," says a writer in a London paper, "which has apparently been overlooked by Americans in their search for a suitable floral emblem which, I think, is worthy of their attention. I refer to that of the tobacco plant (nicotiana) in its many varieties. It is handsome. The plant is, I believe, indigenous to America, and its importance, as the solace of the human race, is indisputable."

The Woman and the Directory.

"I have been amused many a time," said a clerk in a drug store, "to note the way women consult the directory. They never turn swiftly to a name like a man, skipping down through the alphabetical subclassification, but pore over it by sections, as if it were a novel. If a man doesn't find a name exactly where it ought to be, he steps instantly and walks off, but a woman will examine everything under that letter before she gives up. Moreover, she is sure to be reminded of other people in the course of the search and never fails to look them up also. "A lady came in one morning, sat down and opened the book. She would linger over one part for awhile and then

KIDNEY-SICK PEOPLE!

By far the largest army of sufferers in the world are the kidney-sick people—but by far the largest army of the cured ones attribute their freedom from disease to the great South American Kidney Cure—Cures Bright's disease. Cures diabetes. Cures all bladder ailments.

Kidney diseases are the most insidious of all diseases common to humanity; within the past few years medical science has made wonderful strides in coping with its ravages. South American Kidney Cure has proved rich in healing power, and every day testimony is piled up for its great curative qualities. Where kidney disease exists it is generally indicated by certain changes in the urine, such as mucus, sediment, albumen, brick dust, acid and blood—pain is not necessarily an accompaniment, which only aggravates the insidious nature of it. Testing and experimenting has disclosed the fact that the passing through these organs of the solid particles in the ordinary course of circulation do in a remarkably short while clog up, grind out and impair them so that the functions of these organs are not performed and disease lays hold on the patient with a ruthless hand. Kidney diseases require a solvent—South American Kidney Cure is a solvent—it is a kidney specific—claims to be no more—it has been tested by eminent medical authorities on kidney diseases, and proved and testified to by them as the surest and safest cure for all diseases of the kidneys and bladder. It's a purifier—a healer—a health builder—efficacious alike to man or woman. Good News from the North Country—A young machinist in a large manufacturing concern in Northern Ontario, fell a victim to the dropical form of kidney disease through atmospheric changes in following his daily labors—he continued his work until almost commanded to quit by the physician from whom he had been receiving treatment. He visited Toronto and consulted an eminent authority on kidney diseases. The doctor sent him home with as hopeful a story of himself as he could give, but wrote privately to the young man's physician that it was only a matter of time with him until death would claim another kidney victim. When he began to realize for himself that his case was hopeless he took his case in his own hands, determined to fight for his life. He experimented with many so-called cures without relief. South American Kidney Cure was brought to his notice, and like everything else, he tried it—to his astonishment he began to feel better under its use. He continued to gain strength—he took six bottles—and to-day that same young man can be found at that same lath, working for that same concern, hale and hearty as the first day he went there. He gives all the credit to South American Kidney Cure. SOUTH AMERICAN NERVEINE.—Is a nerve healer. Cures indigestion and all stomach troubles which are forerunners of nervous collapses. SOUTH AMERICAN RHEUMATIC CURE.—Has lifted men off a bed of pain after a few days' use, who have not been free from suffering for years. DR. AGNEW'S OINTMENT cures blind, bleeding, itching or ulcerating piles in from three to five nights. 25 cts. Sold by Dr. S. W. Dodd and Geo. E. Hughes, Druggist.

Some Plain Questions.

Have you catarrh? Have you offensive breath? Have you bronchitis? Have you light symptoms of consumption? Then send for a free sample of Catarrhobone. What is catarrhobone? Not a snuff, wash or ointment, but an odorous gas, which is carried by air directly to the diseased parts. It penetrates wherever air can go, and never fails to cure. We do not ask you to believe this until you have tested it for yourself. Send for a trial bottle gratis to N C Polson & Co., Kingston, Ont.

tuft to another, keeping the places with her fingers and bent apparent, on reading the whole thing. Meanwhile at least half a dozen men collected behind her, all waiting impatiently to get a chance at the volume. At last she turned around and was startled to see the crowd. "Are you quite through, madam?" asked one of the men. "Oh, yes," she replied, "I was just running through it to see who was there." It's an everyday occurrence for women to come in to wait for a car and get so interested in the directory that they miss a dozen or so. The book seems to have a weird fascination for the sex.—New Orleans Times-Democrat.

"A Dangerous Man."

Here is a story illustrative of the ignorance of the colonies that once prevailed in the colonial office and is not yet entirely banished from Downing street. As we all know, the late Lord Carnarvon, when colonial secretary, officially recorded his opinion of Sir George Grey as "a dangerous man." Sir Charles Gavan Duffy, on one of his visits from Victoria, called upon Lord Carnarvon in Downing street, and in conversation chanced to introduce a reference to Sir George Grey.

"A very strange and comprehensible character," said Lord Carnarvon, with a shake of the head. "I hear he has now withdrawn to an island off the coast of New Zealand and surrounded himself with a number of wallabies." "Oh, yes; I think that is not at all improbable," replied Sir Charles. "You surprise me," rejoined Lord Carnarvon. "What must be the state of morality in a country where you make light of such a proceeding?" "Why, my lord, what do you suppose a wallaby to be?" "A half caste female, of course. Is that not so?" "Certainly not; a wallaby is simply a small kangaroo."—London Chron.

Statistics of Marriage.

The chances at birth that baby will eventually marry are 9 in 20, or rather less than one-half. This result may seem surprising, but it is largely accounted for by the great mortality of persons under marriageable age, especially of infants up to the age of 5. No fewer than 38 per cent of babies die before they are 5 years old, and 44 per cent of the whole population before the age of 18. In England, as in this country, according to belief, the females outnumber the males.

Out of every 100 persons now living, 60 are single, 35 are married and 5 are widowed. So that on the average 1 person in every 20 you meet in the streets, in the train, or wherever it may be, will be either a widow or a widower, and 3 out of 5 will be unmarried. In England an average husband and wife on their wedding day may expect to live together for 27 years, in France only 26, in Holland and Belgium 23, but in Russia 30.

Too Hasty.

"Ruggles, I am in some embarrassment. I want to make a present of a jewel box, appropriately inscribed, to a young lady." "Corbus, I'm sorry, but I haven't a cent." "Confound you, did you think I was asking you for money? I only wanted your help in getting up the motto to inscribe on the jewel case." "Corbus, you interrupted me. I was about to say that I hadn't a sentiment in my mind that would be appropriate to the occasions."

Not Exact.

In one of Miss Mulock's stories she says that "a cheerful heart seeth cheerful things," and gives this incident in proof of it: A lady and gentleman were in a lumber yard situated by a dirty, foul smelling river. The lady said, "How good the pine boards smell!" "Pine boards!" exclaimed the gentleman. "Just smell that foul river." "No, thank you," was the reply, "I prefer to smell the pine boards."

Rough on the Solons.

It was in Maine that an outspoken parson of the old school prayed: "O Lord, have compassion on our bewildered representatives and senators. They have been sitting and sitting and have hatched nothing. O Lord, let them arise from their nests and go home and all the praise shall be thine."

Figures have been collected in a suburb of Berlin showing that 44 per cent of all the children work two to three hours at home before school hours.

By the howls emanating from it, we judge that the baby is not cutting teeth, but that the teeth are cutting the baby. —Philadelphia Times.
