ADVICE TO MOTHERS.— Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup should always be used when children are cutting teeth. It relieves the little sufferer at once; it produces natural quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain; and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhœa, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Be ure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup, and take no other kind. [April 1 '88

AND CUTS HER IN TWO.

Narrow Escape From Drowning

HALIFAX, N. S., May 23.

Mr. Henry Gerrard, of Gerrard's Island, reports that while he and another man were returning home in their fishing schooner on Tuesday they were run into by the steamer William, bound for Charlottetown, and that his vessel was cut in two, sinking at once. The steamer proceeded on her course without offering any assistance. A lot of supplies etc. that were on the schooner were lost. Mr. Gerrard and his mate had a narrow escape from being drowned. They were rescued by some men in a boat.

THE POLYNESIAN-CYNTHIA DISASTER.

What Capt. Wylie Says About It.

AN ENQUIRY TO BE HELD.

QUEBEC, May 23.

Captain Wylie, of the Polynesian, says that upon meeting the Cynthia he blew the whistle twice and backed his ship. He was on the right side, so much so that he could go no farther. The Cynthia tried to cross his bows and that was the cause of the collision. The morning was fine and clear with very little wind at the time of the accident. Captain Wylie, the first officer, and a pilot were on the bridge, and all who were on deck at the time on board the Polynesian state they did their best to avoid a collision. It is not decided how the Polynesian passengers will be sent forward, but the mails will be despatched by the Buenosayrian to-day.

MONTREAL, May 23,

The Harbor Commissioners will hold an inquiry into the circumstances of the Polynesian-Cynthia collision, having the power either with or without formal complaint having been made. Capt. Shaw, Port Warden, has gone to the scene of the catastrophe for the purpose of making an official report.

Terrible Accident.

HALIFAX, May 23.

Wm. Gage, aged 15, leaned over the side of the elevator at the cotton factory to throw something at the girls for fun. At that moment the boy's head was caught between the elevator and the floor above as it ascended. Half of the boy's scalp, ears, cheek and part of his chin and neck were torn off, the left temple and skull and cheek bone being scraped to the bone. The eye, although it had not been torn from the face, was hanging from the socket. Surgical aid was summoned, and the scalp sewn up as well as possible. He is not likely to recover.

Constipation

Demands prompt treatment. The results of neglect may be serious. Avoid all harsh and drastic purgatives, the tendency of which is to weaken the bowels. The best remedy is Ayer's Pills. Being purely vegetable, their action is prompt and their effect always beneficial. They are an admirable Liver and After-dinner pill, and everywhere endorsed by the profession.

"Ayer's Pills are highly and universally spoken of by the people about here. I make daily use of them in my practice."—Dr. I. E. Fowler, Bridgeport, Conn.

"I can recommend Ayer's Pills above all others, having long proved their value as a cathartic for myself and family."—J. T. Hess, Leithsville, Pa.

"For several years Ayer's Pills have been used in my family. We find them an for constipation and indigestion, and are never without them in the house."—Moses Grenier, Lowell, Mass.

Effective Remedy

"I have used Ayer's Pills, for liver troubles and indigestion, during many years, and have always found them prompt and efficient in their action."—L. N. Smith, Utica, N. Y.

"I suffered from constipation which assumed such an obstinate form that I feared it would cause a stoppage of the bowels. Two boxes of Ayer's Pills effected a complete cure."—D. Burke, Saco, Me.

"I have used Ayer's Pills for the past thirty years and consider them an invaluable family medicine. I know of no better remedy for liver troubles, and have always found them a prompt cure for dyspepsia."—James Quinn, 90 Middle st., Hartford, Conn.

"Having been troubled with costiveness, which seems inevitable with persons of sedentary habits, I have tried Ayer's Pills, hoping for relief. I am glad to say that they have served me better than any other medicine. I arrive at this conclusion only after a faithful trial of their merits."—Samuel T. Jones, Oak st., Boston, Mass.
