

Athletics Boot Yanks, 11-7; Pierce Notches 15th Win

By THE CANADIAN PRESS
Kansas City belted New York Yankees 11-7 Wednesday in one of four daytime games in the major league leagues. The Athletics scored seven unearned runs in the first inning after two were out.

Tom Gorman, who relieved Ralph Terry after Yogi Berra had slammed a homer in the third inning, got credit for his fourth victory against four losses. Mickey Mantle hit his 37th homer in the seventh.

Pierce stopped Washington on a four-hitter, and would have had a shutout except for Norm Zauchin's seventh-inning home run.

Brewer Bests Bunning
Boston's Tom Brewer made a brilliant pitching recovery to down Detroit in the opener of a split day - night doubleheader. Brewer gave up two runs before he could retire a man in the first inning, then blanked the Tigers.

Also in the American League, Billy Pierce pitched his 15th victory as Chicago White Sox nosed out Washington 2-1, and Boston edged Detroit 3-2.

In the National, Ernie Banks slammed his 42nd home run of the season to lead Chicago Cubs to a 5-2 win over Philadelphia.

Pierce's Tom Brewer made a brilliant pitching recovery to down Detroit in the opener of a split day - night doubleheader. Brewer gave up two runs before he could retire a man in the first inning, then blanked the Tigers.

Porterfield suffered a wrenched and swollen knee in a collision with Cardinal outfielder Wally Moon at first base.

Vern Handrahan Signs Contract With Milwaukee

Vern Handrahan, 20-year-old Charlottetown pitcher, has signed a professional baseball contract with Milwaukee Braves, the Guardian learned last night.

This was the first year he hurried anything other than strictly island baseball. Although he started in relief roles with the tail end Albions he came along fast and caught the eye of at least three other scouts, other than Jones of Milwaukee.

VERN HANDRAHAN
H.D. League, especially with last place team.

Only yesterday, after he had already signed with the Braves, he received a letter from Bill Stewart, supervisor of scouts for the Cleveland Indians, which invited him to the Indians' training camp next fall. Chuck Ward of Cincinnati Redlegs and George Owens of Philadelphia Phillies were also interested.

Final statistics of the H.D. League show that Vern appeared in 15 ball games - all but one in relief and chalked up two wins while losing two.

TOP CAREER

His career in Island baseball was a brilliant one. He always could throw hard and was a top pitching star for several years during the junior and intermediate Abbies. In 1956 he was one of the principle reasons why the intermediates emerged as Maritime champions after a tight series with the Annapolis Rovers.

Joe O'Brien Takes Heat Of Rich Hambletonian

DUQUOIN, Ill. (AP)—Emily's suddenly broke stride and finished 12th.

Little Rocky, an unofficial 12-1 shot in this betless Hambletonian where pari-mutuels are prohibited, shot from the outside in the stretch and won the second heat in 2:02. Driving him was Joe O'Brien of New Glasgow, N.S., and Alberton, P.E.I., who won with Scott Frost in 1955.

The triumph was worth $62,750.92 to the owners of Emily's Pride—the Castleton and Walnut Hall Farms of Lexington, Ky.

Trained by 78-year-old Fred Egan and driven by Flick Nipe, Emily's Pride showed 22,500 fans Duquoin's Clay Mile oval why she was the most favorite in the field of 14 three-year-olds.

She won the opening heat in 2:00 1-5, fastest time ever for a filly, then was well towards the front in the second mile when she

Little Rocky, owned by the S.A. Camp Farms of Shafter, Calif., took second money of $26,146.22 on finishes of 14-1-4.

PRACTICE

Charlottetown Junior Legionnaires will hold a workout this evening at Memorial Field at 5:30. Coach Brian Lewis requests the presence of all players for this important practice.

Shepherd Silences Lions On 2 Hits As Aces Win

Wif Shepherd demonstrated some lefthanded wizardry before 400 fans at the Old Diamond last night to whitewash Barry's Lions, 3-0 on two hits and give the Rollaway Aces a 2-1 lead in their City Softball League semi-final series.

The lanky southpaw was almost the whole story as he hurled the first shutout of the playoffs giving up only two singles, one a bunt, and putting the Aces into the driver's seat for the best-of-five set.

BOX SCORE

Nobody on the Lions got any farther than second base. Only three times were they able to get that far. The final time was in the last frame when Shepherd walked two in a row after getting the first two hitters out of there. But Shepherd bore down and breezed a third strike by Mike Connolly to end the game.

Two insurance runs came in in a thrilling fourth inning. Again with one down Jimmy Hughes singled. Straight hits by Wif Shepherd and Joey LeClair loaded the bases. MacKinnon grounded to short but a quick play by Dick Carroll forced Hughes at the plate. But Hennessey slashed a single to right bringing home Shepherd and LeClair.

ISRAEL LOSER

While Shepherd kept Barry's hitters under control, the Aces were clipping Lorne Israel rather freely. Nine hits rang off their bats and all came in the first four frames, to hand the Lions' coach his first setback of the series.

The Aces scored the winning run on three hits in the third frame. With one away Irv MacKinnon slashed a sacrifice hit or his first appearance. Ulic Grady had 2 base blows in 3 tries. For Springhill Harold Murray hit 2 for 3, and brother David 1 for 2.

Build a Butler metal building

...with advantages you want at prices you can afford

Butler metal buildings perform every function of high-priced traditional buildings, yet, for equal quality, they cost less to buy, erect and maintain!

Butler metal buildings are pre-engineered and mass-produced. You get the benefits of highly specialized engineering, plus precision-formed parts that assemble quickly into a permanent, weather-tight building.

Butler metal buildings are so economical they are widely used for warehouses and terminals, yet so attractive and well made they are also used for offices, factories and retail stores. If you can afford to build at all... you can build better with Butler. We'll show you why. Call or write today.

THE PRESERVING KETTLE

What could taste better on hot buttered toast than peach jam? Here's my very successful recipe!

PEACH JAM
4 cups prepared fruit (about 2 quarts ripe peaches)
1/4 cup lemon juice (2 lemons)
7 1/2 cups (3 1/2 lbs.) sugar
1/2 bottle Certo fruit pectin

How to prepare fruit. Peel and pit about 2 quarts fully ripe peaches. Grind or chop very fine. Measure 4 cups into a very large saucepan. Add 1/4 cup lemon juice.

How to make the jam. Add sugar to fruit in saucepan and mix well. Place over high heat, bring to full rolling boil. Boil hard 1 minute, stirring constantly. Remove from heat; stir in Certo at once. Stir off foam with metal spoon. Stir and skim for 5 minutes to cool slightly, to prevent floating fruit. Ladle into glasses. Cover at once with 1/2 inch hot paraffin. Makes about 11 medium glasses.

Pectin: What is it? Here's the answer! Pectin is the jelling substance found in all fruits in varying amounts. Certo is pectin extracted from fruits rich in this natural substance, then refined, concentrated and performance-controlled. Using Certo and following the tested Certo recipes, makes your jam and jelly will always set right.

Preserving Pointer: Certain fruits, such as peaches, pears, apricots and apples darken easily while you're preparing them. To prevent this, immerse them in a solution of 1/2 cup of ascorbic acid or place the fruit in a bath of 1/2 tablespoon salt and 1/2 tablespoon of vinegar to 4 cups of water. Then rinse them in clear water before you pack them in jars. That way they'll look every bit as good as they taste!

More recipes—more hints. Watch for them! If you've had a problem with your jam or jelly making, drop me a line. I'd be glad to help. Bye for now.

SPORTS FRONT

By PIUS CALLAGHAN

B.I.S. Shamrocks have their backs solidly to the wall in their City Softball League semi-final playoff with Junior Basille Youth Club.

The Irish trail in the best-of-five series two games to one and unless they can bounce back in the fourth contest, they can forget about softball for 1958.

"I've been working with horses all my life and have been teamed up with Egan for 12 years," said Nipe.

Egan, fondling a rabbit's foot given him by an admirer earlier this week, said: "I didn't coach Flick on how to ride the race—he's old enough and wise enough to go without my advice."

Danny MacCormack's last exploded any such hopes on Tuesday and left the Irish with a tremendous task facing them.

This time has been the only consistent moundsman Ev Beagan has had all season long and unless Ev comes up with a real sensational dark horse, then the Juniors are as good as finalists.

"I've said all along I thought Emily's Pride had a chance at the record and she proved it."

There's no such worry about hurriers in the B.Y.C. camp. Young Mike O'Brien whom Thistle bested in the opener, will likely be given the job of attempting to wind up this semi-final round. Mike is a pretty fancy pitcher and the Irish will have a real job on their hands handling the S.D.U. student his second defeat of the series.

Coach Danny MacCormack pulled a surprise on Tuesday when he sent Father Clarence Roche to the mound to face the Irishmen. The move made Danny look good indeed as Father Roche came through with a brilliant four-hitter.

Four times this season in regular schedule play, Father had hurled fine games for the Youth Club and each time he was charged with the loss. His mates' bats were extremely silent on those occasions, and all four well-pitched games went down the drain.

But it was a different story Tuesday. B.Y.C. knew full well they were getting the young priest a victory and they wasted no time in getting it for him. While their bats boomed against Thistle, Father Roche was making the Irish batters look very feeble. He was master of the situation all the way.

Any foolish idea that the Juniors won't bat behind Father Roche was dispelled Tuesday evening. Want any proof? Just ask Joe Thistle.

Congratulations are in order to Jack 'Spy' Ready whose Little Leagueurs won the Island Championship from Summerside on Tuesday.

The Charlottetownians took the best-of-three series in straight games edging the western youngsters in the second game here by a 2-1 score.

Charlottetown's Pony Leaguer's also came up with a 7-5 win over their Summerside opponents after dropping the opener in the western capital. This time the Ready-coached youngsters got to Donnie Schurman who had fanned nineteen in the opener. A third game scheduled for here wasn't played, so what happens to the championship we don't know.

At any rate, all the boys gave these playoffs games all they had. To winners and losers this column extends congratulations for a really good show.

Barry's Lions have been dealt a heavy blow. Playing coach Lorne Israel who has been stationed here with the R.C.M.P. has received word of his transfer to Fredericton, N.B. Lorne may be around till Lions complete their semi-finals with Rollaway Aces, but should Lions sideline the Aces, there will be no Lorne to hurl for Barry's in the finals.

Lorne has been a tower of strength to the Parkdale boys and to say the Lions will miss him is the understatement of the year. He has been a great competitor and his pitching feats are something that opposing batters will remember for a long time to come. Above all, Lorne has at all times proved himself a true sport. He dearly loved to win but when defeat did come he knew how to accept it like a gentleman.

Somebody jokingly remarked that Willis Hennessey was behind the move to have Israel shunted to Fredericton. Willis and the Lions are not exactly on the best of terms in this bitter sentimental struggle of theirs. However, Willis was one of the first to express his regret over the transfer of the likeable Mountie. Willis wants to beat the Lions but he would much sooner do it with Israel around and therefore he's hoping Lorne won't depart till the semi-finals are over.

Lorne has made a lot of friends while in Charlottetown, especially in softball circles. Everybody had the same word for him—that he was a mighty nice guy.

Nice to have known you, Lorne, and the best of everything wherever you go.

There's plenty of talk these days about the woes of the minor leagues. Bill Terry, one time boss of the New York Giants, and now Sally League president, adds his comment to what has already been expressed.

Here's Terry talking: "We baseball men are not supposed to talk about the minor leagues, but I'm going to talk about them anyway. We have a bad situation that has to be rectified if they're going to get players from the minors. Nearly every body in the minors is losing money and we have to get down to earth on this and talk man to man. And I'm not talking about any meeting between league presidents or people like that, I'm talking about the men in baseball who put up the money."
