Heavy Rains Washout Excavation In Souris

SOURIS — Throughout the northeast Kings County area, the heavy rains and winds which started Wednesday continued throughout Thursday, but no reports of damage were received up until last night.

During the more severe period of Wednesday evening, the heavy rains, caused the fill around the new sewer line, recently installed across Main Street, in the vicinity of the home of Mrs. Genevieve Roach, town clerk, to cave in.

In the darkness the cave-in became difficult to see, and as a result two large dump trucks became bogged down in the trench and required the services of tow trucks. Later a large model car of United States registry, dropped into the trench and also had to be hauled out.

Neither of the trucks suffered any damage, but the car suffered damage to the rear end.

Town workmen Wednesday night filled the trench with clay fill, but with the continued rains it continued to sink and wash away, and required refilling yesterday and a close watch was being maintained as it was anticipated hat a large portion of this second filling would wash out.

S'side Coin Club Holds Discussion

SUMMERSIDE — The Summerside Coin Club held its September meeting Wednesday evening. Three visitors interested in neumesmatics were welcomed and two decided to join the club's growing membership. Discussion was held regarding meetings for the remainder of the year.

Each member is expected to bring a guest with him and members of the armed forces newly posted here who are interested in coin, medal or stamp collecting are welcome at the next meeting in Oct. 10.

Treasurer Wally Moase reported the 1963 catalogues had been received and moved that all due bills of the club be paid.

President George Seel concluded the meeting with an exchange auction in which all members participated.

BRIDGING GAP

MANCHESTER, England (CP) — A Manchester student has organized a national Sixth-Formers, Association, designed to bridge the difficult gap between the secondary school and university social life. Branches are being formed in seven other centres.

E. Kings Prowler Disappears But RCMP Check Reports

SOURIS — Residents of the North Lake area, Wednesday night were anticipating that the red-coated prowler reported to have been seen in the district a few days prior, would be caught soon.

The reason for their anticipation, was the reporting by a resident that the prowler had been seen, and was apparently making no attempt to hide or disappear. Cnst. DeWitt of the Souris detachment RCMP, proceeded to the location and following investigation found that the excited resident had mistaken another resident of the area for the prowler.

This latter person at the time he was seen, was making his way home through the heavy storm which was blowing at the time.

With regard to the original red-coated prowler, police report that he or she has apparently disappeared from the scene, as no firm reports of sightings have been received for the last three days.

At one time it was thought that the prowler might be a woman and some residents thought they had a definite idea as to who the person was. But this idea was dispelled Wednesday, when the woman they thought it was returned to her home.

TOOK NO CHANCES

LONDON (CP)—Police were called to remove a bomb from the Belgian Embassy, and found it was a First World War souvenir kept on a mantelpiece. An embassy official had simply decided to get rid of the object after 40 years.

MARINE DESIGNER

CLYDEBANK, Scotland (CP) Sir James McNeill, the naval architect largely responsible for the design of the world's largest liners, Queen Mary and Queen Elizabeth, is retiring from the board of John Brown Company, Clydebank shipbuilders.

Opening lead — queen of hearts.

Good technique is simply a matter of making the right play at the right time. This is not always easy to do, because many situations require precise and unfaltering reasoning, but most of the time the declarer has no trouble figuring out the proper play.

Take this hand where South plays three notrump after West overcalls in hearts. A heart is led and good technique requires declarer to let West win the trick. The purpose of ducking the queen is to interfere with subsequent communication between the East and West hands.

West continues with the jack and South takes the king. There is no hope of winning nine tricks without tackling clubs, so South plays a low club at trick three. West follows low, of course, and now South must play the nine to make the contract.

He doesn't expect the nine to win, and in fact it loses to the ten, but he plays the nine because he can afford to lose a club to East and another one later to West, and can't afford to lose both tricks to West.

The combination of ducking the heart on the first trick and playing the nine of clubs on the third trick makes the hand for South.

East wins the club, but, thanks to the opening play by South, East does not have a heart to return at this stage. Let's say he plays the ten of diamonds. South wins it and leads another club.

West can take his ace now or later, but that is the last trick for the defense. South winds up with ten tricks to make the contract.

Declarer's problem from the beginning is to prevent West from establishing and cashing his long heart suit. All his moves are directed to that end. The first step is to sever connections between East and West, and the second is to prevent West from winning two club tricks. Declarer just keeps his eye on the ball to make sure that both missions are accomplished.

DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE — Here's how to work it:

A X Y D L B A A X R is L O N G F E L L O W

One letter simply stands for another. In this sample A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophies, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.
