

HAPPENINGS

Andrey Jenkins, Women's Editor, Phone 4-8386

The Legion Hall at Cardigan was the scene of a large gathering on Thursday evening when a Christmas party for the children of Cardigan and 11 neighbouring school districts was sponsored by members of the Cardigan Branch and Ladies Auxiliary of the Royal Canadian Legion. The hall was decorated for the event and a large Christmas tree was the centre of attraction.

A variety concert, in which each school participated, consisted of songs, dialogues, recitations and stencaping. The arrival of Santa Claus was the highlight of the evening for the children, and each received treats of fruit, candy and soap from Santa.

Lunch was served to both children and adults by members of the Ladies Auxiliary at the conclusion of the party.

Alan MacLean of Borden, and Lewis Newman of New Haven, students at Dalhousie university, arrived over the week-end to spend Christmas at the home of their parents.

A well-known tourist couple, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Coffin left recently to take up residence in Guelph.

Mrs. Coffin, who has been on the teaching staff of St. Mary's Convent, will join the staff of Georgetown High School. Mr. Coffin is employed with Barrow's Hardware.

Mr. and Mrs. Coffin were widely entertained in Souris prior to their departure.

One hundred and fifteen pounds of clothing was presented to the Brunswick Mission Halfway by the North Wilshire Women's Guild. Mrs. Frank Mitchell presided. Money was voted for the ACTC and treats and a Christmas card. A Christmas worship service closed the evening.

SOCIALS SOLICITED

PHONE 4-8386

Crisp December weather has arrived, inspiring the usual round of social events. News of coffee parties, afternoon teas, bridge parties or house warming are only a few of the items The Guardian - Evening Patriot will be happy to publish free of charge. Do you have visitors? Perhaps a formal or semi-formal dinner would like to contact.

If you are planning a holiday, giving parties or entertaining your club, phone 4-8386 and help make the social column interesting.

IDA BAILEY ALLEN

Sweet And Sour Aspic Perfect Taste Balance

COOL; put together and top with Orange Juice

ORANGE ICING
Stir 1/2 cup soft butter, work in 1/2 cup sifted confectioner's sugar. Add 1 beaten egg yolk, 1/2 cup cream or half 1/2 cup half, 1/2 cup orange juice and 1/2 cup lemon juice. Add more sifted confectioner's sugar, about 1/2 cup, until smooth enough to spread.

THE CHEF "OLD" PANS
Medicines: Reads of this is a sweet, cream or half 1/2 cup half, 1/2 cup orange juice and 1/2 cup lemon juice. Add more sifted confectioner's sugar, about 1/2 cup, until smooth enough to spread.

TOMORROW'S DINNER
Cabbage in Sweet - Sour Aspic (See or Rolled Shoulder)

Green Pans (Frozen or Canned)
Orange Cake Orange Juice Coffee or Tea Milk

CELEBRY - CABBAGE IN SWEET - SOUR ASPIC
1 envelope unswetened gelatin
1/2 c. cold water
1/2 c. mild vinegar
1/2 tsp. lemon juice
1/2 c. boiling water
1/2 tsp. sugar
1 c. cabbage, shredded fine
2 c. diced tender celery
2 pinches cut chives
Salted greens
Mayonnaise
Stalk celery in cold water 5 min.; add vinegar, lemon juice, boiling water, sugar and salt.
Strain; when hot, get 1 c. firm, add remaining ingredients, except greens and mayonnaise. Refrigerate until firm; cut in all married children should run for their lives; that is, if they desire to have a happy life.

ORANGE CAKE
1-3 c. room - soft shortening
1 c. sugar separated
Grated rind 1 orange
1/2 c. dust of lemon
1/2 c. sifted flour
1/2 tsp. baking powder
1/4 tsp. salt
1/2 c. orange juice
Orange juice (recipe follows)

Combine shortening, sugar and egg yolks, and mix until very light. Add grated orange and lemon rind.
Sift together dry ingredients; add alternately with orange juice, beaten stiff.
Transfer batter to 2 lined 8" x 3" layer cake pans, and bake 20 to 25 min. in mod. oven, 350 degrees to 375 degrees F.

you were reacting to another's unsuitable aggression - M.H. Dear Mary Haworth: Many thanks for publishing the interesting informative letter from D.G. who reminds the steady overall decline of the one-time personalized humane doctor-patient relationship to an impersonal commercial transaction nowadays, with the doctor symbolizing the business, the patient the consumer, and the doctor's secretary the middleman.

Successory my had been taken at her doctor's suggestion. He told her to call back after a few days. She called the doctor and was told by his secretary to call again in a week.

The next day I called and was told "The doctor is busy with a physical and can't be disturbed. I will have him call you when he is free."

So far as I know, he is still conducting that show. I am sure Mary Haworth's counsel through her column, not by mail, is the best. Write her in care of The Guardian.

Dear Mary Haworth: I am sure you are right. I have been reacting to another's unsuitable aggression - M.H. Dear Mary Haworth: Many thanks for publishing the interesting informative letter from D.G. who reminds the steady overall decline of the one-time personalized humane doctor-patient relationship to an impersonal commercial transaction nowadays, with the doctor symbolizing the business, the patient the consumer, and the doctor's secretary the middleman.

Successory my had been taken at her doctor's suggestion. He told her to call back after a few days. She called the doctor and was told by his secretary to call again in a week.

The next day I called and was told "The doctor is busy with a physical and can't be disturbed. I will have him call you when he is free."

So far as I know, he is still conducting that show. I am sure Mary Haworth's counsel through her column, not by mail, is the best. Write her in care of The Guardian.

Dear Mary Haworth: I am sure you are right. I have been reacting to another's unsuitable aggression - M.H. Dear Mary Haworth: Many thanks for publishing the interesting informative letter from D.G. who reminds the steady overall decline of the one-time personalized humane doctor-patient relationship to an impersonal commercial transaction nowadays, with the doctor symbolizing the business, the patient the consumer, and the doctor's secretary the middleman.

Successory my had been taken at her doctor's suggestion. He told her to call back after a few days. She called the doctor and was told by his secretary to call again in a week.

The next day I called and was told "The doctor is busy with a physical and can't be disturbed. I will have him call you when he is free."

So far as I know, he is still conducting that show. I am sure Mary Haworth's counsel through her column, not by mail, is the best. Write her in care of The Guardian.

Dear Mary Haworth: I am sure you are right. I have been reacting to another's unsuitable aggression - M.H. Dear Mary Haworth: Many thanks for publishing the interesting informative letter from D.G. who reminds the steady overall decline of the one-time personalized humane doctor-patient relationship to an impersonal commercial transaction nowadays, with the doctor symbolizing the business, the patient the consumer, and the doctor's secretary the middleman.

Successory my had been taken at her doctor's suggestion. He told her to call back after a few days. She called the doctor and was told by his secretary to call again in a week.

The next day I called and was told "The doctor is busy with a physical and can't be disturbed. I will have him call you when he is free."

So far as I know, he is still conducting that show. I am sure Mary Haworth's counsel through her column, not by mail, is the best. Write her in care of The Guardian.

Dear Mary Haworth: I am sure you are right. I have been reacting to another's unsuitable aggression - M.H. Dear Mary Haworth: Many thanks for publishing the interesting informative letter from D.G. who reminds the steady overall decline of the one-time personalized humane doctor-patient relationship to an impersonal commercial transaction nowadays, with the doctor symbolizing the business, the patient the consumer, and the doctor's secretary the middleman.

Successory my had been taken at her doctor's suggestion. He told her to call back after a few days. She called the doctor and was told by his secretary to call again in a week.

The next day I called and was told "The doctor is busy with a physical and can't be disturbed. I will have him call you when he is free."

So far as I know, he is still conducting that show. I am sure Mary Haworth's counsel through her column, not by mail, is the best. Write her in care of The Guardian.

Dear Mary Haworth: I am sure you are right. I have been reacting to another's unsuitable aggression - M.H. Dear Mary Haworth: Many thanks for publishing the interesting informative letter from D.G. who reminds the steady overall decline of the one-time personalized humane doctor-patient relationship to an impersonal commercial transaction nowadays, with the doctor symbolizing the business, the patient the consumer, and the doctor's secretary the middleman.

MR. AND MRS. HARRY BARBOUR

50th Wedding Anniversary Observed By Alma Couple

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Barbour of Alma recently celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary. The observance was made more meaningful by the fact that both were active in the life of the community and of Montrose United Church where they are both members of the choir.

They were married at the home of her parents by Rev. E. Lockhart, who had just begun his ministry in Elmdale and Montrose Presbyterian congregations. Their attendants Janet Home, now Mrs. John E. Mountain and Hester H. Hardy were both present at the celebration.

Mr. and Mrs. Barbour have lived all their married life in the family farm at Alma. They are active in the life of the community and of Montrose United Church where they are both members of the choir.

They have a family of six children - Waldron of Alma, Sterling of Brax, Eldon of Montrose, Elmer of Thornhill, Ott Marion at home and Mrs. Basil Maclellan of Alberton South. All were present for the anniversary. There are twelve grandchildren and three great grandchildren.

A number of friends called in the afternoon to extend felicitations and in the evening there was a large gathering of friends.

Yellow received in a recent blue dress and wore a corsage of yellow carnations.

During the evening an address was read to Mr. and Mrs. Barbour by their son, Elmer, and gifts were presented by their children and great grandchildren. Mrs. Barbour was assisted by Donna and Beatrice Barbour, and verses were read by

Three complete layettes and three boxes of used clothing were presented to Mrs. Joseph Cross convener, Mrs. Joseph Rooney at the Morell VI December meeting for a supper for 500 commiserators from all parts of P.E.I. and Mrs. Frank Dunn gave a detailed account of this event.

Applies will be given to the children of the elementary school and Christmas gifts are being sent to persons in hospital, sanitarium and nursing home.

Mrs. William Aylward reported a box remains had been sent to the T. Eaton Co. Ltd. These were shown to the members and will be sold later in the season.

Gifts were exchanged and returned to persons in hospital, convalescing, Mrs. Leo Murphy, assisted by her committee.

H. BENNETT CARE
District Supervisor
Charlottetown, P.E.I.
100 St. John's St. Canada
Phone 4-8317 - 4-5415

ARMY TRUMPET
VIENNA (Reuters) - Romanians have cut the army's service from two years to 18 months. Bucharest radio reported Saturday. However, soldiers are still serve two years.

THE METHOD
Here's how to do it: brush a thin coating of cooking or vegetable oil (not olive oil) over the pans with a pastry brush or small piece of paper towel.
If making a white or yellow cake, dust the pan with flour into the oiled pan and shake it over the bottom and sides; if making a chocolate or devil's food cake, shake over a little dry cocoa.

In either case, turn the pan upside-down and pat it smartly to shake out excess flour. It comes off more easily on modern pans with "oiling" instead.

MOORE & McLEOD LTD.

Holiday Treats Are Distributed

Three complete layettes and three boxes of used clothing were presented to Mrs. Joseph Cross convener, Mrs. Joseph Rooney at the Morell VI December meeting for a supper for 500 commiserators from all parts of P.E.I. and Mrs. Frank Dunn gave a detailed account of this event.

Applies will be given to the children of the elementary school and Christmas gifts are being sent to persons in hospital, sanitarium and nursing home.

Mrs. William Aylward reported a box remains had been sent to the T. Eaton Co. Ltd. These were shown to the members and will be sold later in the season.

Gifts were exchanged and returned to persons in hospital, convalescing, Mrs. Leo Murphy, assisted by her committee.

H. BENNETT CARE
District Supervisor
Charlottetown, P.E.I.
100 St. John's St. Canada
Phone 4-8317 - 4-5415

ARMY TRUMPET
VIENNA (Reuters) - Romanians have cut the army's service from two years to 18 months. Bucharest radio reported Saturday. However, soldiers are still serve two years.

THE METHOD
Here's how to do it: brush a thin coating of cooking or vegetable oil (not olive oil) over the pans with a pastry brush or small piece of paper towel.
If making a white or yellow cake, dust the pan with flour into the oiled pan and shake it over the bottom and sides; if making a chocolate or devil's food cake, shake over a little dry cocoa.

In either case, turn the pan upside-down and pat it smartly to shake out excess flour. It comes off more easily on modern pans with "oiling" instead.

MOORE & McLEOD LTD.

Holiday Treats Are Distributed

Three complete layettes and three boxes of used clothing were presented to Mrs. Joseph Cross convener, Mrs. Joseph Rooney at the Morell VI December meeting for a supper for 500 commiserators from all parts of P.E.I. and Mrs. Frank Dunn gave a detailed account of this event.

Applies will be given to the children of the elementary school and Christmas gifts are being sent to persons in hospital, sanitarium and nursing home.

Mrs. William Aylward reported a box remains had been sent to the T. Eaton Co. Ltd. These were shown to the members and will be sold later in the season.

Gifts were exchanged and returned to persons in hospital, convalescing, Mrs. Leo Murphy, assisted by her committee.

MR. AND MRS. DONALD PALMER

Reception At Curling Club Follows Summertime Vows

The marriage of Donna Ann Gail MacDonald, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Macdonald of North Bedouque, and Donald Edwin Prouson Palmer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Palmer of Albany took place recently at St. Paul's Roman Catholic Church in Summerside. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Austin Bradley.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was wearing a four-length gown of nylon net and lace over satin with a full hooded skirt. The bodice was of nylon net over satin with a sculptured neckline embroidered with sequins and pearls, and long, long sleeves. Her shoulder length veil of nylon net was held in place by a headpiece of white tulle decorated with pearls and rhinestones. She wore a pearl necklace and earrings and carried a bouquet of red and white roses.

The groom's sister Arlene was bridesmaid, wearing a street-length dress of blue nylon over white with matching headpiece and shoes. Her bouquet was a circular shape of blue and white carnations.

Ronnie MacDonald, the bride's brother, was groomsmen, and the ushers were E. J. Herriot, and John Plavell of Summerside.

A reception was held at the Summerside Curling Club. Rev. Preston Hammill was a master of ceremonies and Rev. Reginald MacDonald of Seven Mile Bay officiated at the wedding.

The bride's mother received wearing a suit of blue nylon net with accessories of fuchsia, and a corsage of yellow carnations.

The bridegroom's mother chose a dress of brown cut velvet, a green hat and corsage of deep red roses.

For a honeymoon to points of interest in the Maritimes, the bride wore a blue double-breasted suit with accessories of black and white of red and white roses.

The groom's sister Arlene was bridesmaid, wearing a street-length dress of blue nylon over white with matching headpiece and shoes. Her bouquet was a circular shape of blue and white carnations.

Ronnie MacDonald, the bride's brother, was groomsmen, and the ushers were E. J. Herriot, and John Plavell of Summerside.

A reception was held at the Summerside Curling Club. Rev. Preston Hammill was a master of ceremonies and Rev. Reginald MacDonald of Seven Mile Bay officiated at the wedding.

The bride's mother received wearing a suit of blue nylon net with accessories of fuchsia, and a corsage of yellow carnations.

The bridegroom's mother chose a dress of brown cut velvet, a green hat and corsage of deep red roses.

For a honeymoon to points of interest in the Maritimes, the bride wore a blue double-breasted suit with accessories of black and white of red and white roses.

The groom's sister Arlene was bridesmaid, wearing a street-length dress of blue nylon over white with matching headpiece and shoes. Her bouquet was a circular shape of blue and white carnations.

Ronnie MacDonald, the bride's brother, was groomsmen, and the ushers were E. J. Herriot, and John Plavell of Summerside.

A reception was held at the Summerside Curling Club. Rev. Preston Hammill was a master of ceremonies and Rev. Reginald MacDonald of Seven Mile Bay officiated at the wedding.

The bride's mother received wearing a suit of blue nylon net with accessories of fuchsia, and a corsage of yellow carnations.

The bridegroom's mother chose a dress of brown cut velvet, a green hat and corsage of deep red roses.

For a honeymoon to points of interest in the Maritimes, the bride wore a blue double-breasted suit with accessories of black and white of red and white roses.

The groom's sister Arlene was bridesmaid, wearing a street-length dress of blue nylon over white with matching headpiece and shoes. Her bouquet was a circular shape of blue and white carnations.

Ronnie MacDonald, the bride's brother, was groomsmen, and the ushers were E. J. Herriot, and John Plavell of Summerside.

A reception was held at the Summerside Curling Club. Rev. Preston Hammill was a master of ceremonies and Rev. Reginald MacDonald of Seven Mile Bay officiated at the wedding.

The bride's mother received wearing a suit of blue nylon net with accessories of fuchsia, and a corsage of yellow carnations.

The bridegroom's mother chose a dress of brown cut velvet, a green hat and corsage of deep red roses.

For a honeymoon to points of interest in the Maritimes, the bride wore a blue double-breasted suit with accessories of black and white of red and white roses.

The groom's sister Arlene was bridesmaid, wearing a street-length dress of blue nylon over white with matching headpiece and shoes. Her bouquet was a circular shape of blue and white carnations.

Ronnie MacDonald, the bride's brother, was groomsmen, and the ushers were E. J. Herriot, and John Plavell of Summerside.

A reception was held at the Summerside Curling Club. Rev. Preston Hammill was a master of ceremonies and Rev. Reginald MacDonald of Seven Mile Bay officiated at the wedding.

The bride's mother received wearing a suit of blue nylon net with accessories of fuchsia, and a corsage of yellow carnations.

The bridegroom's mother chose a dress of brown cut velvet, a green hat and corsage of deep red roses.

MR. AND MRS. DONALD PALMER

Reception At Curling Club Follows Summertime Vows

The marriage of Donna Ann Gail MacDonald, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Macdonald of North Bedouque, and Donald Edwin Prouson Palmer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Palmer of Albany took place recently at St. Paul's Roman Catholic Church in Summerside. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Austin Bradley.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was wearing a four-length gown of nylon net and lace over satin with a full hooded skirt. The bodice was of nylon net over satin with a sculptured neckline embroidered with sequins and pearls, and long, long sleeves. Her shoulder length veil of nylon net was held in place by a headpiece of white tulle decorated with pearls and rhinestones. She wore a pearl necklace and earrings and carried a bouquet of red and white roses.

The groom's sister Arlene was bridesmaid, wearing a street-length dress of blue nylon over white with matching headpiece and shoes. Her bouquet was a circular shape of blue and white carnations.

Ronnie MacDonald, the bride's brother, was groomsmen, and the ushers were E. J. Herriot, and John Plavell of Summerside.

A reception was held at the Summerside Curling Club. Rev. Preston Hammill was a master of ceremonies and Rev. Reginald MacDonald of Seven Mile Bay officiated at the wedding.

The bride's mother received wearing a suit of blue nylon net with accessories of fuchsia, and a corsage of yellow carnations.

The bridegroom's mother chose a dress of brown cut velvet, a green hat and corsage of deep red roses.

For a honeymoon to points of interest in the Maritimes, the bride wore a blue double-breasted suit with accessories of black and white of red and white roses.

The groom's sister Arlene was bridesmaid, wearing a street-length dress of blue nylon over white with matching headpiece and shoes. Her bouquet was a circular shape of blue and white carnations.

Ronnie MacDonald, the bride's brother, was groomsmen, and the ushers were E. J. Herriot, and John Plavell of Summerside.

A reception was held at the Summerside Curling Club. Rev. Preston Hammill was a master of ceremonies and Rev. Reginald MacDonald of Seven Mile Bay officiated at the wedding.

The bride's mother received wearing a suit of blue nylon net with accessories of fuchsia, and a corsage of yellow carnations.

The bridegroom's mother chose a dress of brown cut velvet, a green hat and corsage of deep red roses.

For a honeymoon to points of interest in the Maritimes, the bride wore a blue double-breasted suit with accessories of black and white of red and white roses.

The groom's sister Arlene was bridesmaid, wearing a street-length dress of blue nylon over white with matching headpiece and shoes. Her bouquet was a circular shape of blue and white carnations.

Ronnie MacDonald, the bride's brother, was groomsmen, and the ushers were E. J. Herriot, and John Plavell of Summerside.

A reception was held at the Summerside Curling Club. Rev. Preston Hammill was a master of ceremonies and Rev. Reginald MacDonald of Seven Mile Bay officiated at the wedding.

The bride's mother received wearing a suit of blue nylon net with accessories of fuchsia, and a corsage of yellow carnations.

The bridegroom's mother chose a dress of brown cut velvet, a green hat and corsage of deep red roses.

For a honeymoon to points of interest in the Maritimes, the bride wore a blue double-breasted suit with accessories of black and white of red and white roses.

The groom's sister Arlene was bridesmaid, wearing a street-length dress of blue nylon over white with matching headpiece and shoes. Her bouquet was a circular shape of blue and white carnations.

Ronnie MacDonald, the bride's brother, was groomsmen, and the ushers were E. J. Herriot, and John Plavell of Summerside.

A reception was held at the Summerside Curling Club. Rev. Preston Hammill was a master of ceremonies and Rev. Reginald MacDonald of Seven Mile Bay officiated at the wedding.

The bride's mother received wearing a suit of blue nylon net with accessories of fuchsia, and a corsage of yellow carnations.

The bridegroom's mother chose a dress of brown cut velvet, a green hat and corsage of deep red roses.

For a honeymoon to points of interest in the Maritimes, the bride wore a blue double-breasted suit with accessories of black and white of red and white roses.

The groom's sister Arlene was bridesmaid, wearing a street-length dress of blue nylon over white with matching headpiece and shoes. Her bouquet was a circular shape of blue and white carnations.

Ronnie MacDonald, the bride's brother, was groomsmen, and the ushers were E. J. Herriot, and John Plavell of Summerside.

A reception was held at the Summerside Curling Club. Rev. Preston Hammill was a master of ceremonies and Rev. Reginald MacDonald of Seven Mile Bay officiated at the wedding.

The bride's mother received wearing a suit of blue nylon net with accessories of fuchsia, and a corsage of yellow carnations.

The bridegroom's mother chose a dress of brown cut velvet, a green hat and corsage of deep red roses.

Real Meaning Of Christmas Stressed By Kensington UCW

A donation of $250 to the new chapel at Mount Allison was reported at the annual meeting of the Kensington U.C.W. held at the home of Mrs. Alexander MacLeod last month.

The president, Mrs. Harold Palmer, reported work accomplished during the year, which included: supporting two orphans, one in Korea and the other in Hong Kong; treats were supplied for children at the Sunday School concert, also for shut-ins and money donated to ACTC, Pine Hill Divinity Hall, and Maritime Home for Girls. Shipments of clothing were sent to Brunswick St. Mission in Halifax and several boxes overseas.

The programs presented during the year were well received. Mrs. Lloyd Miller read appropriate material about the work that the United Church is endeavoring to do, both at home and overseas. The aim is for greater cooperation to the work, in the year ahead.

"Christmas in Many Lands" was described by Mrs. W. P. Pratt, Mrs. W. F. Johnston, Mrs. Newton MacLure and Mrs. Fred Davison appearing in the costume of the country each representing a different land. Mrs. Leslie Clark (aid of customs) from many lands. This was arranged by Mrs. Marven Clark with a poem. She also acted as pianist for the evening.

Mrs. Lloyd Miller read appropriate material about the work that the United Church is endeavoring to do, both at home and overseas. The aim is for greater cooperation to the work, in the year ahead.

The programs presented during the year were well received. Mrs. Lloyd Miller read appropriate material about the work that the United Church is endeavoring to do, both at home and overseas. The aim is for greater cooperation to the work, in the year ahead.

The programs presented during the year were well received. Mrs. Lloyd Miller read appropriate material about the work that the United Church is endeavoring to do, both at home and overseas. The aim is for greater cooperation to the work, in the year ahead.

The programs presented during the year were well received. Mrs. Lloyd Miller read appropriate material about the work that the United Church is endeavoring to do, both at home and overseas. The aim is for greater cooperation to the work, in the year ahead.

The programs presented during the year were well received. Mrs. Lloyd Miller read appropriate material about the work that the United Church is endeavoring to do, both at home and overseas. The aim is for greater cooperation to the work, in the year ahead.

The programs presented during the year were well received. Mrs. Lloyd Miller read appropriate material about the work that the United Church is endeavoring to do, both at home and overseas. The aim is for greater cooperation to the work, in the year ahead.

The programs presented during the year were well received. Mrs. Lloyd Miller read appropriate material about the work that the United Church is endeavoring to do, both at home and overseas. The aim is for greater cooperation to the work, in the year ahead.

The programs presented during the year were well received. Mrs. Lloyd Miller read appropriate material about the work that the United Church is endeavoring to do, both at home and overseas. The aim is for greater cooperation to the work, in the year ahead.

The programs presented during the year were well received. Mrs. Lloyd Miller read appropriate material about the work that the United Church is endeavoring to do, both at home and overseas. The aim is for greater cooperation to the work, in the year ahead.

The programs presented during the year were well received. Mrs. Lloyd Miller read appropriate material about the work that the United Church is endeavoring to do, both at home and overseas. The aim is for greater cooperation to the work, in the year ahead.

The programs presented during the year were well received. Mrs. Lloyd Miller read appropriate material about the work that the United Church is endeavoring to do, both at home and overseas. The aim is for greater cooperation to the work, in the year ahead.

The programs presented during the year were well received. Mrs. Lloyd Miller read appropriate material about the work that the United Church is endeavoring to do, both at home and overseas. The aim is for greater cooperation to the work, in the year ahead.

Old Tragedy Brings Gifts To Many Orphans

TORONTO (CP) - A grotesque tragedy that occurred many years ago in New Brunswick has resulted in 237 Toronto orphans receiving Christmas gifts from the city.

A doctor who died in 1870, leaving a fortune in Cuban sugar, died in 1927 to use his money to help children all over the continent.

Toronto, like many other cities, accepted a $10,000 trust fund, proceeds from which would go to orphans as he requested. This year the returns are sufficient to give 237 children $2 gifts.

Blair Bruce returned to his home in Red Point having been a patient in the P.E.I. Hospital for several days.