TORONTO

TORONTO (CP) — The stock market strengthened at the close Friday to score index highs and provide a number of favored issues with their best values ever. Speculative action was light at best amid mixed prices.

Industrials were paced by Great Lakes Paper, up 1⅛ to 29⅝, Alberta Gas Trunk A, ahead a point to 34¾ and Rothmans, up ⅞ to 19⅝.

Some industrials had small losses. Brazilian Traction fell 10 cents to $4.15 on volume of more than 16,500 shares, while Algoma Steel, Canadian Breweries and Consolidated Paper each dipped ⅛ to 73⅞, 10¼ and 44¾.

Speculative volume was poor and prices mirrored investor disinterest. Chima and Raglan lost two cents each to $1.02 and $1.21. First Maritimes was ahead 11 cents to $3.

The senior base metals list was strong through the day. Inco gained 1⅜ to its high of 94½ and Falconbridge ¾ to a high of 79¼.

Heiress Has Marriage Annulled

NEW YORK (AP) — Heiress Gamble Benedict won annulment of her four - year marriage to ex-chauffeur Andre Porumbeanu. She described him as a lecher, a leech and a drunk.

The 39-year-old Porumbeanu, Romanian - born, was denied visitation rights of any kind with their two children, Ghorghe, 2, and Grigori, 1. He did not contest the annulment action.

Gamble testified her husband had no regular job and that she spent at least $500,000 to support him during the marriage. She told of drinking bouts in which Porumbeanu started off with beer, interspersed scotch and brandy, then switched to wine and tapered off with beer. She said he was in a "continuous state of alcoholism."

The heiress testified further a 17 - year - old German nursemaid was aborted earlier this year of Porumbeanu's child, and that when she had girl friends visiting overnight he tried to get into their rooms.

"I had to stay up nights," she continued. "I had a terrifying relationship with him . . . he always talked about other women before friends and guests. I assumed it was a European affectation."
