RETURN.—Mr. T. B. Riley has authorized us to state that he has retired from the civic contest in ward 3. 2i

BEER BROS. are offering the balance of their dress robes at very special prices to clear. j26 2i

SCARLET FEVER.—The Pioneer is authority for the statement that scarlet fever is very prevalent just now at Lot 16 and theseabouts.

I. O. O. F.—Port la Jolie Encampment will convene in special session to-morrow (Wednesday) evening, at 8 o'clock, at which time fourteen candidates will receive the first degree.

LECTURE AT FERRER.—Professor Shuttleworth, of Prince of Wales College, is to lecture in the hall at Ferrer, on "Agriculture," on Thursday evening, 29th inst. Lecture commences at 7 o'clock. Admission free.

POSTAL.—We are informed by Post Office Inspector Becken that the Postmaster General has authorized the Postmasters of the following Post Offices in this division to transact Savings Bank business on and after the 23rd inst., viz.: Alberton, Georgetown, Kensington, Tignish.

L. O. A.—A regular meeting of Boyne Lodge, No. 614, to night in their hall at 8 o'clock sharp. The officers are especially requested to be punctual, as there is initiation in the first degree. A full attendance of members requested. Visiting brethren welcome.

POLICE COURT.—This morning, a young man named John Crowley was arraigned, charged with malicious injuries to property. The complainant, Mrs. Catherine Hughes, who lives on Powell Street, alleges that Crowley broke in her door while intoxicated, and assaulted her in her own home. The case stands adjourned for further evidence.

CALEDONIA CLUB.—Regular monthly meeting this evening at Club Room, Queen Street. Members will please meet promptly at 7 o'clock in order to attend the Burns Anniversary Concert at 8 o'clock, sharp. Members and visiting classmen will appear in plaid and bonnet, and march to the Lyceum, headed by their piper.

ARCHITECTURAL.—Mr. W. C. Harris, Architect, of this city, is busily engaged preparing plans for a new building to be erected in Montreal by the Board of Trade, which is to cover an entire square. Prizes are offered for the plans, and several of the best architects in the Dominion and United States are competing. THE EXAMINER wishes Mr. Harris success.

REMNANTS! REMNANTS!—Cheap sale of dress remnants from two yards to a full dress length selling out at bargains. Prints and gingham 6 cents a yard; ends winter cloths at nearly half price. A few ladies' felt hats selling off at half price. Great bargains in ladies' jackets and dolmans. Don't forget the great bargain store.—J. B. Macdonald.

HALIFAX GOT IT.—A Nova Scotia exchange says: There were applications to the Provincial Government from the Agricultural Societies of four different places for the holding of the Provincial Exhibition of 1891, and the grant of $4,000 from the Provincial Government. New Glasgow offered a prize list amounting to $7,000, Truro and Yarmouth $3,000 each, and Halifax $12,000. The Government has accepted the application of Halifax for the Provincial Exhibition of next autumn.

W. C. T. U.—The above society is in a flourishing condition at Montague, and is doing a noble work in favor of temperance. Its meetings are held in the bank building every Tuesday at 3 p. m. Following are the names of the officers: President—Mrs. W. H. Spence; Vice Presidents—Mrs. Dr. Robertson, Mrs. Opie, Mrs. Stewart, Mrs. N. J. Macdonald; Secretary—Mrs. D. Martin; Treasurer—Mrs. R. W. Sprague.

A. O. H.—Division No. 1, Ancient Order of Hibernians, gave a very pleasant literary and musical entertainment in their meeting room, O'Far's Building, last evening. The room was crowded. Those taking part were James Byrne, Mrs. M. Blake, Mrs. D. O'M. Reddin, Miss Caven, Miss McQuillan, the Misses Quirk, Miss May Macdonald, Prof. Caven, James H. Reddin, Dr. Conroy, J. O. Arsenault, J. P. Murray and P. McQuaid. Rev. P. A. McElmeel gave a short address. Conductor Bishop McDonald and several other clergymen occupied seats on the platform. At the conclusion of the programme refreshments were served.

TWO TRAGIC DEATHS.—An old man named Pierre Hamel, residing at St. Raymond, Portneuf, Que., was frozen to death one day last week. It appears that the old man had been visiting his son, who resided some ten acres from him, and in returning home lost his way and his life.

A woman was buried a few days ago whose death was caused by a fish bone. While eating fish on Friday a bone struck in her throat. Instead of calling a physician to remove the obstruction, she finally got rid of it herself as she thought by forcing it down into her stomach, where it did its deadly work sit 1 more effectively.

OBITUARY.—We regret exceedingly to hear that Mr. John Macdonald, a year or two ago a popular clerk in the Post Office Department in this city, died at his home in Be fest, on Sunday last, at the early age of 27 years. Mr. Macdonald, it will be remembered, was appointed to a clerkship in the Post Office in January, 1883. Shortly after his appointment his health began to fail, and in 1889 he applied for and was granted a year's leave of absence. This year he spent in Auburn, Cal., in the hope that a change of climate would have a beneficial result upon his health. But the much desired result was not obtained. Last autumn he returned to the Island not any better in health than when he left it. He gradually sunk, and died on Sunday, as above stated.

SPECIAL DESPATCHES TO THE EXAMINER.

OTTAWA NOTES.

Preliminary to Closer Trade Relations with Barbadoes.

GETTING OVER THEIR FRIGHT.

OTTAWA, Jan. 27. Parcel post arrangements have been concluded between Canada and Barbadoes. The Premier went west last night. He is to return on Wednesday or Thursday. The Grit papers are now getting over their fright about the election, and announcing a session for March.

Great Storm in New York

BUSINESS PARALYZED.

NEW YORK, Jan. 27. The great storm of yesterday and the day before has almost paralyzed this city. Telephones, telegraphs, and electric lights have all stopped business. D. B. Mitchell, acting chief of the Western Union Co., said to-night: "We are a perfect wreck. We have one line to Albany, one to Buffalo, one to Chicago—that is all. About eight-hundred wires are all down."

Civic Elections in Fredericton.

Greek Meets Greek.

FREDERICTON, Jan. 27. In the Aldermanic elections held yesterday, editor McNutt of The Farmer led the polls in Queen's Ward, while Pitts, of The Reporter, a strong Scott Act man, was defeated by fifty votes.

An Appeal.

Mothers and Sisters of Charlottetown: As we look at our present surroundings, and think of the great responsibility that rests upon us as women, we appeal to you, for the sake of the youth of our city, to look about you. You cannot fail to see the many snares laid for unwary feet; then, use your votes and influence for the man who will be fearless and earnest in protecting those you love. There are some of you, perhaps, who do not think it womanly for a woman to vote. This is a false impression. The woman who votes for righteousness is worthy of true womanhood. God lays upon you a great responsibility, but in the martyrs' name go to the polls to-morrow and use your vote and influence for the advancement of God's kingdom, for the beloved interests of our homes and for the prosperity and morality of our city.

W. C. T. U. Ch'town, Jan. 27th, 1891.

Georgetown Notes.

THE DAILY EXAMINER is anxiously watched for no. 4. Any election news will be gladly received.

Our harbor is as open as in July, just a little ice around the wharves. We expect to have a regatta about Friday or Saturday next.

Our enterprising townsman, W. W. Jenkins, has purchased the trotting stallion "Almont M." from J. Buchanan. Any one wanting a flyer cannot do better than patronize him.

The Stanley is doing good work now. By, the way, not a word about the Capes route; only two foreign mails received here last week.

COLD.—During last night the mercury in the thermometer dropped to zero.

CARPET REMNANTS.—150 ends in 1 1/2 yd. lengths, just opened—Harris & Stewart, London House. jan 27 5i

PRESEBYTERY.—The quarterly meeting of Presbytery will be had in St. James Hall on Tuesday evening next, at 8 o'clock.

"TAM GLEN," "Ye Banks and Braes," "Scotland Yet," "There was a Lad," and other popular Scotch songs at the Lyceum to-night.

FAULT FINDING THAT PAYS.—The editors of the Hans Journal and Yarmouth Herald have won $10 each in a magazine error competition.

TICKET HOLDERS for the concert to-night will please note that the numbers on tickets do not correspond with numbers on seats. To secure a good seat go early.

GOOD WORK.—The City Surveyor has a number of laborers at work to-day, opening up drains in order to be ready for the first s'f' s'nap. This is a move in the right direction.

SPECIAL SERVICES.—A very interesting meeting was held in the Upper Methodist church last evening. The meeting to-night will be conducted by Rev. Mr. Spargo and Mr. Sutcliffe, at 7.30 o'clock.

ANNUAL SALE of odds and ends at Perkins & Sterns, on Monday, Jan. 26th. Remnants of colored silks, velvets, dress goods, print cottons, muslins, laces, etc., etc. Come and get a bargain. jan 24 2i

PLENTY OF IT.—Kernels of buckwheat to the number of 3,469 was the count given by Mr. C. M. Shipley, Salem, N. S., as the number found on one stalk of buckwheat lately grown on his place.

DEVOUT BUT CLOSE.—At the recent Union Prayer Meeting a rich farmer in a New Brunswick county village prayed five times with great fervor for the conversion of the heathen; the next day he gave his annual subscription to the Bible Society of ten cents.

THE MEDIUM ARRESTED.—Edith Anderson, of Brerton, Mass., the second eldest daughter of the Anderson family, has died from the effects of the morphine administered by her mother, recently, particulars of which were given in THE EXAMINER of yesterday. The given in Auburn, Cal., in the hope that a change of climate would have a beneficial result upon his health. But the much desired result was not obtained. Last autumn he returned to the Island not any better in health than when he left it. He gradually sunk, and died on Sunday, as above stated.
