

ROSES AND THORNS

Let me begin this week by offering my thanks to that individual who so generously helped me with Roses & Thorns last week when I was engulfed in mid-term exams. You know who you are. Thanks. You readers may or may not ~~know~~ be aware of the fact that a couple of weeks ago the Barn was again vandalized - twice. Once by a break in and another time by the theft of the "O" out of the sign on the front of the Barn. I am not about to insinuate that a student at this university was responsible for either act but it is probably a reasonable bet that the missing "O" is presently in the possession of a UPEI student. I certainly hope I am wrong in that speculation and that everyone on campus has pride enough in the university to report any knowledge of either act of vandalism to UPEI Security. And if someone does have the "O" just bring it back in the same fashion as you "acquired it".

I must congratulate everyone who participated in Fall Fest. All events were very well attended - give yourselves a pat on the back or take a bow.

Bouquet of Thorns:
Those professors who so unthoughtfully scheduled exams on Wed, Thurs. and Fri. (during Fall Fest) and don't say you didn't know, cause you did.
Bouquet of Roses;
Soccer Panthers for being number two in the Atlantic conference. We're damn proud of ya. Also a special bouquet to Mary, Cathy, Bertha, and Janice for a Fall Fest job well done.

PANTHER NOTES
