SAVED FROM DEATH.

Mr. J. H. Ireland Was Said to be Dead.

The Report was Incorrect, Though Kidney Disease Nearly Killed Him - But He Used Dodd's Kidney Pills and Was Saved.

Halifax, N. S., Sept 16.—It sometimes, though not often, happens, that a man reads the report of his own death and burial.

When this does happen, the person concerned is not always pleased at the way his faults and failings are pointed out.

Mr. J. H. Ireland is one of the oldest travellers on "the road," and is well and favourably known throughout the entire Dominion.

For several years he suffered the most extreme torture, caused by Kidney Disease.

All the skill of the best physicians, and all the medicines he used could not relieve the terrible pains in his back, that seemed as he said, to be cutting him in two.

He grew so bad, finally, that his friends at a distance from his home, believed he had died. The belief was confirmed by the report of the death of another gentleman, whose name was similar, and the papers reported his decease.

Fortunately, however, Mr. Ireland did not die.

Whenever hope seemed gone, he began to use Dodd's Kidney Pills, and from that day he began to recover.

Now he is well and strong, and not a vestige of his old trouble remains.

"Dodd's Kidney Pills saved me," says Mr. Ireland, "I don't know what back ache is now. I look pretty healthy, don't I? Well, my good health and freedom from pain are due to Dodd's Kidney Pills alone."

Dodd's Kidney Pills will cure any other case of Kidney Disease, if they are given a fair trial. They are absolutely certain. Try them.

CHINESE CHARACTERISTICS.

The spirit of economy in the Chinese race transcends all that can be imagined. The smallest particle of matter is utilized. The old cast off account book of the merchant is cut into pieces and oiled to serve instead of glass in windows or lanterns. A coolie who has a six hours' march with a heavy burden will return to his point of departure without having broken his fast in order to save the 2 cents his breakfast would have cost away from home. Nothing is more curious than to see them eat, although with their famous chopsticks they do not perform all the wonderful feats generally supposed. Everything is served them in bowls or saucers, and with the chopsticks they raise the pieces of meat or fish to the mouth with sufficient grace. Each one has a bowl of rice, which he holds near his lips, and with the aid of the chopsticks he pushes the contents into his mouth. It is curious to see them pick up with their chopsticks the grains of rice that fall on the ground. The children are taught this art from their earliest years. Nothing must be lost, not even the smallest grain. Here is an example of their politeness: A Chinese arrayed in his most beautiful costume who presented himself at a house disturbed a rat which was enjoying himself in a jar of oil. The rat in his flight overturned the jar upon the visitor, whose dress was ruined. While the unfortunate visitor was still pale with rage his host entered the apartment and after the usual salutation the visitor explained his misadventure: "As I entered your honorable apartment I had the misfortune to alarm your honorable rat, which in taking flight overturned your honorable jar of oil upon my miserable and insignificant clothing, which explains the contemptible condition in which you find me in your honorable presence."

To determine your conduct when a Chinese offers you a present is the most difficult thing in the world. Certain things are not offered to be accepted, and others must be refused peremptorily. In a general manner nevertheless one may accept, understanding perfectly that the gift must be returned a hundredfold. — St. Louis Republic.

DOUGHNUTS AND CRULLERS.

Bakeries That Produce Nothing Else and Sell to Wholesalers Only.

Doughnuts, as every housewife knows, are raised with yeast, and crullers are not. For doughnuts a sponge is made in a doughnut and cruller bakery at 9 a. m. The time required for the sponge to rise depends somewhat on the season and the temperature. It is made to rise at a uniform time by keeping it where it is warm in winter and by the use of cold water and cold milk in summer. More flour and the spices and other ingredients are mixed in at 1 o'clock, and the dough is then left to stand until 4 p. m., when it is rolled out and cut up into pieces that will be doughnuts when cooked. Thus cut out they are laid along in boxes or trays and raised again for an hour or an hour and a half, and then they are cooked.

The doughnuts are laid on wire holders, which are submerged in boiling fat or oil. When done, they are lifted out and drained and are then ready for sale. Doughnuts are made of different shapes, and there are some variations made on doughnut stock. There are, for instance, doughnuts made with an opening in them which is filled with jelly, and there are variations on the cruller—as, for example, one made with an icing or frosting—these several variations having each a name of its own.

When the various ingredients of which crullers are made have been made into dough, the dough is rolled out, and the crullers are cut from the sheets. They are picked up separately and the crossbars deftly twisted in and out, facilitating the perfect cooking and giving the cruller its old time familiar form and appearance. Crullers are cooked in the same way as doughnuts.

Doughnuts and crullers are made in many bakeries that make bread and cake and other things for their own retail trade. There are at least four bakeries in the city that make nothing but doughnuts and crullers, selling to bakeries and restaurants at wholesale only. — New York Sun.

How Sienkiewicz Writes.

Sienkiewicz's method of making a book is as follows: He works out a detailed plan, and writes it down carefully. He fixes this in his head and lets it "seethe and ferment" there, as he says. When ready to begin work, he divides his time, not into days, but weeks. During the first week he produces a certain amount, the second week a similar amount, and so on, week after week. He writes without correction, and never copies, producing just one manuscript—the one which he sends to the printer. Each week's work continues that of the preceding week. Though the plan of the book is elaborated carefully in advance, this plan is not followed strictly. From the "seething and fermenting" in his head changes are suggested to the author, and he makes them. He has no secretary, amanuensis, copyist or assistant. — Jeremiah Curtin in Century.

NERVOUS WOMEN.

Suffer From an Insufficiency of Rich Nourishing Blood.

Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets Remedy the Evil by Ensuring Perfect Digestion. Plenty of Rich Blood and Good Health.

Why do women suffer from nervous headache than men do?

Because women's nervous system is more delicate, more sympathetic, more quickly responsive to every influence, than man's.

It is therefore necessary that her nervous system should be kept in perfect health and strength, in order that it shall be able to resist any and all evil influences.

The nerves must be promptly nourished so that they may be strong. If they are kept strong and well nourished no headache will ever be felt.

That they may be kept strong and well nourished, they must be constantly supplied with rich, pure blood.

That plenty of rich, pure blood may be obtained, the food must be perfectly digested, for perfectly digested food makes rich, pure blood.

That the food may be perfectly digested to form an abundance of rich blood, the stomach must be perfectly, for a healthy stomach only can thoroughly digest the food.

That the stomach may be kept in good health and strength always, Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets must be used, for Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets, and they only, can ensure perfect digestion.

Try Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets and be free from nervous headache—be strong, pure-blooded and healthy.

Little Boy—Please, I want the doctor to come and see mother.

Doctor's Servant—Doctor's out. Where do you come from?

Little Boy—What! Don't you know me? Why, we deal with you—we had a baby from here last week.—London Fun.

Hindoo Use Little Soap.

The only soap which the Hindoos of the orthodox type employ is made entirely of vegetable products. But soap is little used in India, being almost an unknown luxury with the natives.

HUMAN SACRIFICES

On the Altar of Diabetes, Saved by Dodd's Kidney Pills, Only.

Hardly a family in the country is free from Diabetes. Great thirst, failing sight, numbness in the thighs, bleeding gums, swollen ankles, emaciation, nervousness, pale or turbid urine, loss of sexual power, decaying teeth, pains in the loins or small of the back, are all positive signs that Diabetes is in the system.

Do you know how it ends? IN DEATH. A premature, horrible, agonized, pitiful death. The victim has no peace, no ease in life. His days are filled with tortures. His nights are waking dreams of agony. He longs to die, yet fears the terrors of his end. He dies, a bloated, fetid, repulsive mass of corruption. That is the only end of unchecked Diabetes. Dodd's Kidney Pills will cure it. They drive it out of the system thoroughly, create new, clean blood, rebuild the diseased kidneys, and restore robust health.
