NEWS BY TELEGRAPH.

CANADIAN.

HALIFAX, N. S., June 26.
The "Uncle Sam" sailed for England at 11 o'clock this morning. Thousands of spectators lined the wharves and cheered lustily. After leaving the City Wharf, Captain Goldsmith sailed up the harbor and saluted Her Majesty's war ships. When passing H. M. S. "Griffin" one of the officers put off and presented the captain with a purse containing a handsome sum of money, as a present from the officers of the ship. Coming down the harbor the "Uncle Sam" was accompanied by a fleet of yachts and boats.

UNITED STATES.

NEW YORK, June 26.
Wm. Lightman and Jos. Shute, seamen, beside Capt. Cumming, both of Halifax, died of yellow fever on board the brig "Cumming."
A car containing a funeral party was thrown from the track of the railroad near Hamburg, N. Y., yesterday, and two persons were fatally and four seriously injured.

RALEIGH, N. C., June 26.

Robert Jones, a negro, who murdered Radelph Eaton, a white man, in Rocky Mount, in 1877, was publicly hanged to-day at Tarboro. Jones was twice convicted on strong circumstantial evidence. He talked, laughed, and poked fun at the Sheriff; he dwelt long on his religious experience, said he was going straight to Heaven, and was the coolest man ever seen on the gallows. Death resulted from strangulation in 26 minutes; he seemed to suffer much.

FRANCE.

PARIS, June 26.
The collapse of the scheme for supplanting Jerome Napoleon by his son Victor in the Napoleonic succession is complete.

VERSAILLES, June 26.

The Committee on the Divorce Bill has pronounced in favor of the re-establishment of divorce in France.

REPORTED INSTABILITY OF LARGE FIRMS IN THE MANCHESTER TRADE.

LONDON, June 26.

The Manchester correspondent of the "Standard" says that the most disquieting rumors are circulated and there is almost a collapse of trade in consequence of the reported instability of large firms engaged in the Manchester trade in the iron works and collieries.

COARSMEN AS ACTORS—ELLIOTT COMING TO AMERICA.

LONDON, June 26.

The "Sportsman" reports that at the Theatre Royal, Newcastle, last night, after the performance of "Little Emily," the trial scene from "There's millions in it," was presented. The jury in the play was composed of Hanlan, Elliott, Hawdon, and other scullers. At the end of the trial Hanlan and Elliott were presented with gold medals. Both responded to the presentation address. The latter said if he won the Boyd match he would go to America and row Courtney. He would meet Hanlan in American waters and try to bring the cup back.

EGYPT.

LONDON, June 26.

A Cairo correspondent says Foreign Consuls have visited the Khedive and informed him that his deposition in favor of Halim Pasha has been decided by the Porte. The Consuls urged his abdication, promising a written guarantee to Tewfik Pasha. The Khedive demanded, as conditions of abdication, that his family be provided for and his abdication be made into the hands of the Sultan. The Consuls replied that the latter condition was inadmissible, and consequently withdrew their offers.

LONDON, June 26.

It is believed in diplomatic circles that the Porte will consent to the abdication of the Khedive.

NEW YORK, June 26.

The following is a telegram from Cairo, Egypt:—

"The British and French Consuls waited upon the Khedive at 3 o'clock in the morning, and were admitted to his sleeping chamber. When the question of his resignation was broached, the Khedive fell into a towering passion, and declared that before he would abdicate he would resort to arms. He absolutely refused to listen to any suggestion concerning Halim Pasha becoming his successor.
"Meanwhile military preparations are continually being made, and complications are hourly expected. The report of the Khedive's departure for Constantinople to hand his abdication to the Sultan, is therefore premature. Great excitement exists."

FROM ENGLAND.

LONDON, June 26.

In the Lords to-day, the Marquis of Salisbury confirmed the report that the Sultan had ordered the Khedive to abdicate and that the latter expressed his acquiescence. Lord Salisbury stated further, that Prince

Tewfik had been installed as Khedive of Egypt.

LATER.

CAIRO, June 25.

Prince Tewfik, the new Khedive, held a reception to-day which was attended by Foreign Consuls, Egyptian Officials, and all notable Europeans in Cairo.

NOTE.—This would seem to confirm reports of the Khedives abdication, notwithstanding all reports to the contrary.

LATEST.

Cairo, June 26.

Tewfik Pasha was proclaimed Viceroy of Egypt, with a salute of 101 guns.

The Russian Consul General has been ordered to support the other Consuls in the positions they have taken.

It is reported that the late Khedive will receive an annual pension of £50,000.

BERLIN, June 26.

Talaat Pasha, who was recently sent by the Khedive on a special mission to Constantinople, was the bearer of a large sum of money for the Sultan.
