Ask For Ayer's

Sarsaparilla, and be sure you get it, when you want the best blood-purifier.

With its forty years of unexampled success in the cure of Blood Diseases, you can make no mistake in preferring Ayer's to any other. The fore-runner of modern blood medicines, Ayer's Sarsaparilla is still the most popular, being in greater demand than all others combined.

"Ayer's Sarsaparilla is selling faster than ever before. I never hesitate to recommend it."—George W. Whitman, Druggist, Albany, Ind.

"I am safe in saying that my sales of Ayer's Sarsaparilla far excel those of any other, and it gives thorough satisfaction."—L. H. Bush, Des Moines, Iowa.

"Ayer's Sarsaparilla and Ayer's Pills are the best selling medicines in my store. I can recommend them conscientiously."—C. Bickhaus, Pharmacist, Roseland, Ill.

"We have sold Ayer's Sarsaparilla here for over thirty years and always recommend it when asked to name the best blood-purifier."—W. T. McLean, Druggist, Augusta, Ohio.

"I have sold your medicines for the last seventeen years, and always keep them in stock, as they are staples. 'There is nothing so good for the youthful blood' as Ayer's Sarsaparilla."—R. L. Parker, Fox Lake, Wis.

"Ayer's Sarsaparilla gives the best satisfaction of any medicine I have in stock. I recommend it, or, as the Doctors say, 'I prescribe it over the counter.' It never fails to meet the cases for which I recommend it, even where the doctors' prescriptions have been of no avail."—C. F. Calhoun, Monmouth, Kansas.

Telegraphic Odds and Ends.

A BUDGET OF GENERAL NEWS FROM ALL PARTS OF THE WORLD.

HALIFAX, Sept. 23.—The late Judge James' estate is worth about $10,000. His wife is to have the use of it absolutely, and can will what is left.

LONDON, Sept. 22.—Wilkie Collins, the novelist, died this morning.

WINNIPEG, Sept. 23.—A despatch from Victoria, B. C., announces the arrival there of the sealing schooners Beatrice and Maggie MacEachern, with a large number of sealskins. The former did not once sight the United States cutter Rush, but the latter was overhauled and boarded after a three hours chase, but was allowed to go.

MALAGA, Sept. 23.—A report is current here that the Spanish gun boat Cocodrilo was fired upon by Riffians on the Morocco coast. The gunboat replied, destroying a number of Moorish houses.

MONTREAL, Sept. 23.—The St. Lawrence sugar refinery, which has been closed for seven weeks, has again commenced operations. The resumption of work is stated to be due to the fact that the surplus sugar has now been almost entirely consumed. The Canada sugar refinery, which has also been closed for some time, is expected to resume work shortly.

OTTAWA, Sept. 23.—Wallace Graham has been appointed judge in equity and judge of the Supreme Court of Nova Scotia, vice James, deceased.

ROME, Sept. 23.—The Pope has written Cardinal Manning, congratulating him upon the successful outcome of his efforts to effect a settlement of the dock troubles in London.

KANSAS CITY, Sept. 23.—There is every reason to believe that a gang of adroit swindlers are preparing to flood eastern cities with fraudulent bonds of counties in southwestern Kansas and northwestern Texas. The authorities of Texas have about run the swindlers to earth, but are holding off until they have sufficient evidence to break up the gang.

LONDON, Sept. 23.—Balfour, in a letter to the secretary of the Protestant alliance, relative to the establishment of a Catholic university in Ireland, says: "Though I desire to take steps to promote the higher university education for Catholics, the foundation of an endowment for the proposed university has never been in contemplation by the government. Such an endowment is not in my opinion necessary. Before passing judgment upon supposed plans of the government the public ought to suspend an expression of opinion until the views of the government are known."

BERLIN, Sept. 23.—Count Von Munster, German ambassador to France, has been with Prince Bismarck since Friday. It is rumored that the Count wishes to resign, owing to age and ill health, but it is more likely that the two are discussing the situation in France. The German government will soon notify England that Germany regards herself bound by the stipulations of the London sugar convention, unless the English Parliament fails to ratify them, in which case Germany reserves the right of acting for her own interests.

VIENNA, Sept. 23.—The Emperor Francis Joseph has signified his wish that the official circles cease talking about his coronation at Prague.

ROME, Sept. 23.—The Italian Government has ordered from Krupp a number of masked towers for the defence of the Alps.

MADRID, Sept. 24.—Advices have been received to the effect that Riffians fired upon the boat sent ashore by the Crocodile with a flag of truce. The Crocodile has returned to Alpucemas.

Springfield Notes.

The farmers in this vicinity have about completed their harvest operations, which were performed this season with scarcely any delay, owing to dry weather throughout the entire harvest season.

The crops in general appear to be fair, but the wheat crop, although excellent, feels disposed to remain mute, as though not satisfied with the development of its neighbor, the oat, which appears to strike the line considerably below the average.

Already the potato plants have changed their verdant hue, and lie downcast and shattered, as much as if to let us know that their growth is nearing its termination, and reminding us that it will not be long ere the grating of hacks and the rumbling of carts laden wish robust McIntyres reign predominant. From this it can readily be seen that the season is much in advance of its usual time. Indeed it seems as if it were between two opinions, viz.: "whether it has time to give us a spell of nice spring weather, or pursue its customary course of introducing something keener." However this may be, here is something to show what I am driving at: A few days ago, while Rev. Benjamin Sickles of this settlement, was engaged in clearing a piece of land he found several strawberries, perfectly matured, and as fresh as when picked in their proper season. Wonderful it is, but it serves to show that if it is impossible for us to be favored with another spring, we can, at least, behold some of its productions.

For the last week or so the woods here have been in a conflagration with fires, which were set out some time ago by persons anxious to clear their farms of brush and other rubbish. Continued dry weather and hot winds caused them to spread rapidly, until the woods extending from Springfield to Montague were enveloped in flames, which besides destroying all the valuable trees within its grasp, threatened to go further, and sweep the fences most exposed to it. Happily, however, a few drops of rain began to fall, then heavier and faster, until at last ended in a heavy shower, leaving the fire exhausted and the ground a blackened ruin.

Prince County Exhibition

A FEW NOTES.

The Prize List.

As usual, the best part of the show was seen in the people who went to see the show. A larger or finer crowd of sightseers was never collected at Summerside. It is very pleasing to observe, from year to year, the evident improvement in the condition and dress, the manners and conduct of our Island farmers, their wives, sisters, cousins and aunts. Clothed in the comfortable tweeds which are made in our home manufactories, and behaving, for the most part, like sensible and educated men and women, they come together to reflect credit upon themselves and upon the country.

There was some drinking at Summerside yesterday, ample opportunity being offered in the dens of the town; but there was little of the wild drunkenness that we used to see some twenty or thirty years ago. The body of the people have evidently learned that it is wrong, or at least that it is not respectable, to drink to excess; and men have learned to control their appetites. Perhaps the recent shocking examples of the evils resulting from drinking, which have been seen at Kensington, had some effect upon even the more thoughtless of the young men congregated at Summerside yesterday.

The want of preparation for the show was apparent in too many of the exhibits. Some of the animals had evidently been taken direct from the pasture to the show ground, with their hair standing out and looking as though a drink of water and a breakfast would do them good. Scarcely one was properly fitted for the competition. The curry-comb and brush was far too little used. Strangers who have seen shows abroad must have been not a little surprised, not to say disgusted, at the disregard shown by many of the competitors for the appearance of their really fine animals.

The names of those who deserved most credit will, of course, be found in the prize list below. The absence of imported stallions shows that their owners care more for the little bit of prize money than they do to make a good show in their county. The diploma offered by the Commissioners to those who own the best horses did not draw worth a cent. To Mr. Woodman belongs the distinction of entering a horse or a diploma, and his horse was ruled out fecause, though very highly bred, he happened to be a pacer.

By the way, a very fine mare, owned by William Ross, Esq., of Harding's Creek, and a foal at her feet, from this same horse—Mr. Woodman's horse "Woodlawn"—attracted much attention and admiration; but, as Mr. Ross lives in Queen's County they could not be entered for a prize in Prince County.

It was evident, to any one looking at the horses while competing for honors in the show ring, that the scale of points is the only satisfactory test in awarding premiums. Some colts, standard by breeding, are required to be as large and weigh as heavily as colts from well-bred horses, whose dams were out of Clyde, Gladstone or some other draft horse, and thereby would show greater size and have what some people are pleased to call substance, than horses or colts of fine breeding. We noticed in the contest of the stallion colts under three years old, that the handsomest and most stylish colt, with the elastic action movement which denotes the trotter, was awarded only third place. On enquiry we learned that he was owned by Mr. Wm. Hunt, of Summerside, that he is standard under Rule 6, and has the blood of three of our best standard stallions—Hernando, All Right and Principal—blended. Yet he had to contend with colts out of draft dams. This ought not so to be. The following is the
