Sport Echoes From Prince County

It seems fairly certain now that the Summerside Town Baseball League of 1954 has been called out on strike. The league started out in June with very uneven competition, top-sided scores, and poor play generally, but came out of this slump later, and some close, exciting, well-played games were seen by the few faithful fans who still patronized the pastime.

Both Holman's and the R.C.A.F. improved considerably, the town intermediates tying C & B 3-3, on one occasion, and the Airforce boys losing a close 3-2 game from the local juniors. Holmans seem to have kept their improved status pretty well, but the R.C.A.F. lost players through postings and the newcomers weren't quite up to par. The boys in blue grew tired of getting lambasted, and it became difficult to get enough boys to turn out for a complete team. Mo Laporte and George Robinson who were guiding the destinies of the team, threw up their hands in disgust and decided to withdraw from the league. So that was that.

Baseball leaders in Summerside have no intention of giving up baseball however. Just what the program for the rest of the summer will be is still indefinite, but C & B and the Holman team (plus their Airforce acquisitions) will probably play a series of games, and we will try to fill in with whatever exhibition games that can be arranged. No doubt the brand of baseball will be improved.

Not very often does the "umple" get heckled in the horse-racing game, but occasionally it does happen. One of these occasions was on Saturday night at Summerside Raceway when the fans took exception to the placing of Vella Gratton ahead of Bud's Echo in one of the races. For a few minutes you'd swear you were attending a baseball or hockey game. But Ken MacDougall had the last word. He gave the catcallers the rule, and we haven't heard anyone repeat it successfully. The races, by the way, were among the most exciting seen at the Raceway since its opening.

We hear quite a number of people deplore the cutting out of show betting. Its surprising how many bettors there are who don't like to take too much of a chance with the green folding stuff, but like to place a bet to enhance their enjoyment of the race. Doubtless show betting gives added work and worry to the pari-mutuel boys, and maybe the profits are not worth the extra labor.

How about the softball bigwigs trying to make arrangements to have the Jerpettes play in an intermediate "B" League with Grand River and Wellington? It seems a shame to deprive all these girls of softball. The aim of the S.A.A.A. is to provide sport for as many boys and girls as possible. So how about it? Get a new coach, if that is needed, and get them back into competition.

We'd like to commend the choice of Johnny Whalen and Mel Campbell as the two representatives to

Hampton and Vicinity

Mr. G. R. Ferguson visited his family, relatives and friends on July 17-18.

Mr. Brent Cameron, with the Navy in Halifax, visited relatives and friends here and in Charlotte. He returned to duty on July 19.

One of the largest gatherings of people from all parts of the Province of Oranmen and women representing their respective organizations at Crapaud, in the new skating rink; over 2000 people were comfortably seated, and enjoyed a banquet dinner together.

Relatives and friends of Mr. Mark Cameron wish to extend best wishes for a return to good health and former duties, as a result of treatment being received while a patient in the General Hospital at Halifax, N. S.

Heavily loaded transports with steel framework, continue to pass through here via Borden, en route to Charlottetown for use of the T. Eaton Co's Store and other large buildings presently and later under construction.

Repairs to Victoria Wharf are being carried out, giving evidence by the P. W. Dept., of recognition of the necessity of maintaining this important old shipping outlet for the benefit of growers and shippers, residing in largely populated areas.

Relatives and friends of Mrs. Gordon MacDonald, are surprised and much pleased to observe that she is moving about again, following injuries sustained through an unfortunate accident occurring recently at her home in this vicinity.

DeSable's grand old man, Mr. Dougald MacKinnon, quite recently visited a number of his many friends residing in this district, some of whom have retentive memories of good old school days, of friends now gone, and of events and experiences which have taken place in the intervening years.

Injured by a fall from a tractor upon which he was riding, Moysa Callbeck, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earle Callbeck, of Hampton, was taken from the home of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Pearson, Chelton, to the P. C. Hospital, where his injuries were pronounced "not presently serious."

Seriously injured by a fall from represent Summerside at the track and field instruction course in Toronto the latter part of August. There can be little quarrel with these selections as the two boys have certainly been outstanding in interscholastic track competition here on the Island. We feel sure that, under Bob Clark's careful coaching, the boys will give a good account of themselves in Toronto.
