IN MEMORIAM

J. ALEXANDER McDONALD

There passed away in the City Hospital on August 13th, J. Alexander McDonald in his 48th year, after an illness of three weeks.

"Alex", as he was known by his numerous friends, was born in Vernon River, and after primary school entered S. D. U. for a time in preparation for his studies as a pharmacist, and later began this study with his brother, Aeneas who operated a Drug store in Tignish. He afterwards entered Foley's Drugstore, Summerside, later returning to Tignish to operate the Drug business during the illness and death of his brother.

In Tignish and Summerside, he made a host of friends by his pleasing, quiet manner, and readiness to help in everything that was beneficial to the Community. He was a member of the Knights of Columbus, and did much to further the aims of that organization, both in Summerside and Tignish. As a member of the Tignish Dramatic Group he was indispensable, and it was with regret that the community saw him leave, to again enter S. D. U. to prepare himself for another field of duty; but fate had already decided his future and war clouds gathering over Europe burst in its fury in his graduating year. With much to offer and with that ever ready eagerness to "help", he offered his services immediately and was posted in the Royal Canadian Army Medical Corps, where he served with distinction which was recognized by promotion to the rank of Sgt. which rank he held for some years previous to demobilization.

Returning to civilian life he married Miss Estelle Brennan of Tignish, and moved to Dorchester, N. B., where he accepted an important position in the dispensary of the penal institution of that city, where he again served with distinction. But his years of active service had taken its toll, and he was forced to retire in October, 1949 on account of ill health, and returned to Tignish. But his life had been too full to be long, and a greater reward than retirement was awaiting him, for he who had given so much was now to receive not the blare and emptiness of earthly praise but the approval of the heavenly Father in the words, "Well done good and faithful servant, enter into the joy of the Lord." In his illness as in life, he was cheerful and reconciled, and had the consolation of a holy death by receiving the Holy Eucharist daily for the last three weeks of his life.

He leaves to mourn besides his sorrowing widow, two sisters—Mary, Mrs. P. Murnaghan, Charlottetown, and Elizabeth of Newton, Mass., along with a host of friends and acquaintances.

The funeral was held Tuesday morning, August 15th from his home in Tignish to the Church of Saint Simon and Saint Jude, where Solemn High Mass was celebrated by Rev. John A. McDonald with Rev. Louis Dooley as Deacon and Rev. Claude Shea as sub-Deacon. It was a largely attended funeral with many friends coming from various parts of the Province. Members of the Canadian Legion and of the Summerside Council of the Knights of Columbus attended in a body. After the committal service was performed by Rev. Louis Dooley the members of the Legion and all present observed the "two minutes silence" and dropped their poppies in the grave as a tribute to a departed comrade.

The pallbearers were Messrs. James Christopher, Peter Burke Joseph McDonald, Charles McInnis, Alfred McCarthy, Albert Bernard.

"Rest in Peace."
