ODDS AND ENDS. Kidney Feet. In Jan. 1892 my son was taken with Kidney disease. Though attended by three physicians, and change of climate he grew worse and by 23 had fallen from 135 lbs. to 85 lbs. In 10 days from starting to use Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills we were able to move him home. In 4 months he gained 50 lbs. and was fully restored to health by the use of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills.

ODDS AND ENDS. The resolution of the Marquis de Salabury to secure the adoption of the reforms proposed by the powers and to use coercive measures if necessary, is causing the Sultan of Turkey a great deal of uneasiness.

ODDS AND ENDS. One pill a dose, one box 25 cents. One pill relieves constipation. One box cures an ordinary case. One pill takes weekly neutralizes formation of uric acid in the blood and prevents Bright's Kidney disease and Diabetes. True only of Dr. Chase's Kidney Liver Pills.

ODDS AND ENDS. Newfoundland's revenue for the September quarter was $315,700, being $250,000 less than the same quarter of the year before the commercial crash, and an improvement of $100,000 on the previous quarter of this year.

ODDS AND ENDS. If you want to know what Miller's Emulsion of Norwegian Cod Liver Oil will do for a consumptive patient ask one who has tried it. Ask anyone who has used it in lung troubles of any kind. What they say about Miller's Emulsion shall be its recommendation. It is the finest preparation of its kind in the world and is worth its weight in gold to a consumptive sufferer, whom it will raise from a bed of sickness to health and strength of body and mind, giving a new lease of life. Thousands testify to the value of Miller's Emulsion. Miller's Emulsion is the great nerve strengthener and blood maker, and cures Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Scrophulous, and all Lung Affections. In Big Bottles, 50c. and $1, at all Drug Stores.

ODDS AND ENDS. Mr. S. Barfoot, a private banker of Charlottetown, Ont., suspended a few days ago. The liabilities are estimated at upwards of $200,000, of which about $50,000 is owing to depositors. Mr. Barfoot published a letter to his depositors stating that with their kind assistance he will be able to pay dollar for dollar to all of them with four or five per cent interest.

ODDS AND ENDS. For Nervous Prostration and Anemia there is no medicine that will so promptly and infallibly restore vigor and strength as Scott's Emulsion.

ODDS AND ENDS. The French budget committee has recommended a reduction in the naval estimates of 7,500,000 francs. A little while ago there was talk of France undertaking to equal Britain's naval strength, but it seems to have petered out.

ODDS AND ENDS. Hands and Ankles Raw. For years I have been a great sufferer from itchy skin trouble and salt rashes. My hands and ankles were literally raw. The first application of Dr. Chase's Ointment relieved the burning, itching, and smarting. One box and a half entirely cured me. It is also instant relief for chilblains. Henry A. Parmenter, St. Catharines, Ont.

ODDS AND ENDS. PARIS, October 14.-Canois asserts that another convention has been signed between Russia and France pledging Russia to forcibly intervene against other powers than these composing the Dreubund in the event of their attacking France.

ODDS AND ENDS. A Remarkable Cure.-J. W. Jenkinson, Gifford-Spent between $200 and $300 in consulting doctors; tried Dixon's and all other treatments, but got no benefit. One box of Chase's Catarrh Cure did me more good than all other remedies. I consider myself cured, and with a 25-cent box at that.

ODDS AND ENDS. Kinross, Pa., October 14.-Advices from Port au Prince, say that the Haytian chambers have dissolved, and elections for a new parliament will take place January 10. Before dissolving the chambers sanctioned the raising of a loan of $10,000,000, in Paris.

ODDS AND ENDS. Orellia's Prominent Furniture Dealer Gives Facts. ORELLIA, Feb. 10th, 1894. EDMONDSON, BATES & CO. Gentlemen,-About three or four weeks ago I had an attack of Itching Piles. I tried two or three different remedies recommended by druggists as the "best and only cure," etc., but got no relief. About the time I was beginning to despair of finding any relief, with some slight misgivings I bought a box of your pile cure, which I am pleased to say gave me almost instant relief and permanent cure. I consider your Dr. Chase's Ointment a God-send. ALF. J. DEAN.

ODDS AND ENDS. When the cold winds and rains of autumn and winter come on, and the grip of pain gets hold of you, there is nothing that will so quickly relieve you as PRUSSIAN OIL. All who have used it say that it is The Great Modern Pain Reliever. Try it at once.

ODDS AND ENDS. Like the Touch of Magic. Desperate Itchings of the Skin Allevied by Chase's Ointment-The Recognized Skin Specific.

ODDS AND ENDS. It is only a few months since Dr. Chase's Ointment brought prominently before the public, principally by its cure of stubborn and long-standing cases of Itching Piles, and defied all other treatments. To-day it is recognized from ocean to ocean as an infallible cure for Itch of the Skin. Its cures have rendered it the most popular of all remedies for such ailments combined. People use Dr. Chase's Ointment with confidence, because in every community someone has been benefited like Mr. Simpson, Berlin, Ont., who under date of Feb. 8, writes that for a number of years he was troubled with Itching Piles; they came "dense matting," and although dozens of good ointments were used, none of them did any good although some of them had long and thorough trials. Here are his own words quoted from his letter: "Last fall I got a box of Chase's Ointment from Mr. Landreth's drug store, Berlin. I applied according to directions and soon found it was what I wanted. Only used part of one box when I was well as ever in my life. Once in a while I have felt slight symptoms of the return, but one application of the Ointment and all is right again."

ODDS AND ENDS. These expressions as to the value of Chase's Ointment for Itch of the Skin are given in full in the following circular: PRICE 50 CENTS. Sold wholesale and retail by Geo. E. Hughes, Charlottetown.

ODDS AND ENDS. THE TURNING POINT. TO HOME COMFORT AND SUCCESS. IS GAINED BY THE USE OF. Like the Touch of Magic. Desperate Itchings of the Skin Allevied by Chase's Ointment-The Recognized Skin Specific.

ODDS AND ENDS. DIAMOND DYES. These wonderful Dyes save thousands of dollars annually to happy homes in Canada. At this season, old faded and soiled dresses, capes, jackets, and men's and boys' suits can be re-dyed, and made to look as well as new, at a cost of ten cents. Diamond Dyes are the easiest to use; they are the brightest, strongest and most durable. Ask for the "Diamond," reduce all other dyes to a cost of ten cents. UN MAUVAIS QUAIN D'HEURE. A refreshment room at Earl's Court. Enter Mrs. and Miss Ormerod. As they pass one of the tables, a young man starts violently, half rises, and takes off his hat. Mrs. Ormerod eyes him with an impatient stare and Miss Ormerod looks hardily at the wall beyond him. The young man hastily retreats to a safe distance and ordered refreshment, the ladies give vent to their indignation.

UN MAUVAIS QUAIN D'HEURE. "Well, Laura, of all the impudent!" "Mr. Marston never was noted for his modesty, mother."

UN MAUVAIS QUAIN D'HEURE. "I should think not; but London is the place to bring him to his senses. He'll soon find his level here."

UN MAUVAIS QUAIN D'HEURE. "I wonder what he is doing? He seems well-dressed."

UN MAUVAIS QUAIN D'HEURE. "Counter-jumping or shop lifting. I should imagine. That's all he's fit for. He could well be doing that."

UN MAUVAIS QUAIN D'HEURE. "Then he had one redeeming feature. Perhaps he teaches dancing."

UN MAUVAIS QUAIN D'HEURE. As the band outside cases playing, sundry people stammer and gasp. "Why, there's Sir William! I do hope he'll see us."

UN MAUVAIS QUAIN D'HEURE. "Why doesn't the man look this way?" "He isn't talking to Mr. Marston! how flattering that young man must feel!"

UN MAUVAIS QUAIN D'HEURE. "Perhaps he is ordering a new coat." "Or, more likely, complaining about some dancing lessons. He waits horribly."

UN MAUVAIS QUAIN D'HEURE. "You could forgive that if he were only good-looking."

UN MAUVAIS QUAIN D'HEURE. "At any rate, he is very good-natured."

UN MAUVAIS QUAIN D'HEURE. "Or he wouldn't be talking to young Marston."

UN MAUVAIS QUAIN D'HEURE. "At last he sees us!" "The ladies bow gracefully. Sir William walks across to them."

UN MAUVAIS QUAIN D'HEURE. "Now, whoever would have thought of meeting you here?"

UN MAUVAIS QUAIN D'HEURE. "An unexpected pleasure" would have rounded so much better."

UN MAUVAIS QUAIN D'HEURE. "I sit corrected. I see, I see; are they good?"

UN MAUVAIS QUAIN D'HEURE. "Very bad; but we are pretending."

UN MAUVAIS QUAIN D'HEURE. "By the way, Laura and I am quite dying to know what you have in common with Mr. Marston?"

UN MAUVAIS QUAIN D'HEURE. "A very great deal, Mrs. Ormerod."

UN MAUVAIS QUAIN D'HEURE. "Dancing?"

UN MAUVAIS QUAIN D'HEURE. "Really, I ought to have had an idea, for without one I see no connection. You know Marston, then?"

UN MAUVAIS QUAIN D'HEURE. "He was a clerk in father's office. We did know him, mother?"

UN MAUVAIS QUAIN D'HEURE. "Certainly, my dear. Sir William will understand the degree of intimacy that indicates."

UN MAUVAIS QUAIN D'HEURE. Sir William looks from one to the other in a doubtful, questioning manner, and then says gravely: "Mr. Marston is a friend of mine."

UN MAUVAIS QUAIN D'HEURE. "How extremely condescending of you to put it that way. Mr. Marston would be flattered if he heard you."

UN MAUVAIS QUAIN D'HEURE. "I'd like to see why?"

UN MAUVAIS QUAIN D'HEURE. "Somebody not read 'Waiting'?"

UN MAUVAIS QUAIN D'HEURE. "Of course. Someone sent me a copy by 'Goody Neesome'."

UN MAUVAIS QUAIN D'HEURE. "Quite so-Marston's pseudonym. When I saw you have seen his play, for I was in your box at the Lyceum on Tuesday, wasn't it?"

UN MAUVAIS QUAIN D'HEURE. "The Mr. Marston write 'My Lady Dido'?"

UN MAUVAIS QUAIN D'HEURE. "Indeed, he did, Mrs. Ormerod. I am surprised you did not know it."

UN MAUVAIS QUAIN D'HEURE. Miss Ormerod appears lost in thought. Then she sees Marston rising to go; she turns quickly to Sir William.

UN MAUVAIS QUAIN D'HEURE. "Do me a favor. Tell Mr. Marston I wish to renew our old friendship."

UN MAUVAIS QUAIN D'HEURE. "Delighted!"

UN MAUVAIS QUAIN D'HEURE. "Marston, an old friend wishes to speak to you-Miss Ormerod."

UN MAUVAIS QUAIN D'HEURE. "Does she?" A pause. "You remember what I told you about that girl in the country who said she would give her answer when I was famous?"

UN MAUVAIS QUAIN D'HEURE. "Yes."

UN MAUVAIS QUAIN D'HEURE. "I told her she would have to send for me then, as I should never ask again. You have just brought her summons."

UN MAUVAIS QUAIN D'HEURE. "The deuce I have!"

UN MAUVAIS QUAIN D'HEURE. "She has only just learnt that I am engaged to her."

UN MAUVAIS QUAIN D'HEURE. "Not a whisper of it till I told her."

UN MAUVAIS QUAIN D'HEURE. "I thought so. She cut me dead a quarter of an hour ago. It's too late, now, old man. Tell her-what you like-only don't hurt her unnecessarily."

UN MAUVAIS QUAIN D'HEURE. "All right, sonny, I understand. Wait for me outside."

UN MAUVAIS QUAIN D'HEURE. Rejoining the ladies:- "Rejoining the ladies:- He would have been delighted to have had your message a quarter of an hour earlier, but as it is:-"

UN MAUVAIS QUAIN D'HEURE. "As it is, Marston and I are returning to town together. Good afternoon, ladies."

UN MAUVAIS QUAIN D'HEURE. -HENRY A. HERRING.
