THE DAILY EXAMINER.

JANUARY 16, 1889.

Our Book Table.

The second number of a New York monthly entitled Philosophy of Nature, was issued for the closing month of last year. It is a 16 pp., double column quarto, on good paper, and is clearly and correctly printed. So much is self-evident to any one familiar with press work, and discriminating enough to know the difference between good and bad work. But when an ordinary philosopher of nature gets inside to the writing, he has to pause and consider what his verdict ought to be. It is a publication that seems to ask a reviewer for more than he is willing to confirm. It is, perhaps, too boastful; it assumes a greater weight to its opinions than the scales of ordinary minds can register; and notwithstanding its liberal distribution of many fragrant thought-flowers, they are not without thorns when you pick them up. Our space is too limited and customary periodical reviewing too general to analytically explain the non-sequiturs of the learned editor of Philosophy of Nature, but we cannot commend the prevailing animus too highly, nor would we too highly condemn the self-assertion, or "handling without gloves," so prominent throughout. One dollar a year will buy the monthly from Philbrook & Dean, 261 Broadway, New York.

The Century Magazine for the first month of the New Year carries on its pages its old evidences of valuable reading. It has Giotto for its subject, from among the old Italian masters, with engravings from originals. The article called "Horses of the Plains" is spirited and well illustrated. The Romance of Dolland begun in the November number of last year, has its third portion this month. "Pagan Ireland" is especially appropriate to the present position that the Green Isle occupies. Iconoclasm seems now to be after the stony hearts of the landlords. "Round about Galilee" is better illustrated than written, and yet overflowing with historic interest. Less sentiment and more of discovered facts, would have better satisfied the general reader.

There is a third paper on "Pictures of the Far West," with illustrations by Mary Hallock Foote. Kemble has made a good thing of Jessops "Old Men from the Old Country." The four papers on topics of the times, the several open letters, and the page of bric-a-brac, are all calculated to instruct, so there is no room for disappointment anywhere in this January number of The Century illustrated monthly magazine, issued from Union Square, New York City.

Exorbitant Charges.

The Halifax Herald, to hand yesterday morning, contains the following letter, which speaks for itself:—

Sir,—In your columns this morning we notice a complaint regarding brokerage and charges on goods shipped per S. Stanley from P. E. Island to Pictou, which charges are certainly extortionate.

On the 29th Dec. we received two cars oats from P. E. Island with bill of charges, $121.25 Through rate on those 2 cars should be 93.00

Over charged.....$ 28.25 Allowance to summer steamer on that rate would be $24; therefore the Stanley must have been allowed $24 plus $25.25, or $49.25. As yet we have been unable to obtain particulars of this exorbitant charge, but see no reason why the Government cannot carry freight at as low a rate as they allow the Steam Navigation Company, and should their through rates not be as low when they control the whole carrying stock? Had we shipped by schr. from P. E. Island, allowing the intercolonial and P. E. I. local rates, there would have been a saving of some $20 on those two cars alone. Under present circumstances it is unsafe to do business with P. E. Island after Dec. 1st, it being better to have any heavy goods in transit stored on P. E. Island until spring than shipped by the Stanley at those rates.

A Crusade of Revenge.

A Zanzibar despatch of the 11th says: Advice has been received from the interior that in October last Mwanga, king of Uganda, plotted to destroy his entire body guard; his intention being to abandon them on an island in lake Nyanza, where they would starve to death. The guard, who had been forewarned of the king's intention, refused to enter the canoes which were to convey them to the island, but returned to the capital and made an attack on Mwanga's palace. The king fled to escape the fury of the guards, and his brother, Kiwewa was enthroned in his stead. Kiwewa appointed Christians to the principal offices. This enraged the Arabs, who murdered many of the Christian officials and replaced them with Mohammedans. The Arabs burned the English and French mission stations and killed many converts to Christianity. The mission boat Eleanora, in which some persons who had been converted by French missionaries were fleeing, was struck by a hippopotamus and sunk. Five converts were drowned. Many letters for Emin Bey and Stanley were destroyed by the burning of the mission stations. The missionaries have reached Usambve in safety. The Msolala depot is safe. Mwanga is a prisoner at Magu. He has appealed to English missionaries for assistance. Arabs have written to Missionary McKay exulting in their triumph and prophesying the extinction of the mission stations in Central Africa in revenge for England's anti-slavery policy. They have proclaimed Uganda a Mohammedan kingdom.

Local and Other Items.

I. O. O. F.—Port la Joie Encampment, No. 13, holds a special session this evening, at 8 o'clock. Important business.

REDUCED.—The balance of the Christmas number of the Montreal Star, etc., at the Diamond Bookstore, are selling off very cheap.

There is comfort for the man with a prematurely gray beard in Buckingham Dye, because it never fails to color an even brown or black as may be desired.

LONGEVITY.—The Woodstock Sentinel says that there are six persons living within an area of one mile of each other near that town, whose ages aggregate 517 years.

HEART DISEASE.—Another sudden death is reported from heart disease. Mrs. McDonald, a widow, of Big Island, Pictou Co., was found dead in her bed on New Year's morning.

SUNDAY SERVICES.—Rev. J. Hutchison, M. A., will (D.V.) preach on Sabbath next, the 20th Jan., at West River, at 11 o'clock, a. m.; and at Clyde River, at 3 p. m.

TAKEN IN.—At a meeting of the Montreal Presbytery recently, Chiniquy was received into the Presbytery of Montreal as a missionary and given full status as a member thereof.

OUR PUBLIC MEN.—The last issue of the Dominion Illustrated announces that portraits of Hon. W. W. Sullivan and Donald Ferguson are in preparation for publication in that excellent weekly.

NEW HOTEL.—A number of St. John men propose applying to the Legislature at its next session for an act to incorporate the Marlborough Hotel Company, for the purpose of erecting a hotel in St. John at an estimated cost of $120,000.

The great popularity of Ayer's Pills as a cathartic is due no less to their promptness and efficacy than to their coating of sugar and freedom from any injurious effects. Children take them readily. See Ayer's Almanac for this year, just out.

SUDDEN DEATH.—Wm. Boak, who some years ago was largely engaged in mercantile pursuits in Halifax, died suddenly at his residence in Morris street, on Thursday, from an attack of apoplexy. He was 69 years of age, and a brother of Hon. Robert Boak.

Weak eyes and inflamed lids indicate an impure condition of the blood. The best remedy is Ayer's Sarsaparilla. It vitalizes the blood, regulates the secretions, and expels all scrofulous humors from the system. Try it. Price $1. Worth $5 a bottle.

SCOTT ACT.—It is said, remarks an exchange, that Judge Wallace, of Sussex, N.B., will soon be called upon to commence new cases under the Scott Act, while there is also a rumor that a petition will soon be put into circulation asking that the act be repealed.

THE RECENT GALE.—A Toronto despatch says: Reports of damage by the recent gale continue to come in. At Coburg the custom house was unroofed and the roof carried some distance. The steeple of St. Peter's Church was unsettled and it is in danger of falling.

FOUND AGAIN.—Linnenburg, N. S., now claims to have Thompson, the Braintree murderer, and it is said he is camping in the woods four miles from that place. Persons who have seen this tramp, and who have shown Thompson's photo, are positive he is the fugitive.

WICKED HALIFAX.—There were 160 prisoners, 145 males and 15 females, committed to the county jail at Halifax last year, including among them, 3 for rape, 2 for murder, 23 for larceny, 2 for forgery, 2 for perjury, 10 for passing counterfeit coin, 12 for assault and 27 for drunkenness.

THE USUAL RESULT.—Mrs. Sophie Gagnon, wife of George Boyle, St. Lauvur, Que., procured ten cents worth of Paris green and after mixing it with a tumbler of water, swallowed the whole dose. Excruciating pains followed, which terminated in her death at 2 o'clock on Friday morning.

THE COAL OUTPUT.—The output of the Nova Scotia coal mines during the past year was 1,586,500 tons, an increase over 1887 of 51,500 tons. The Cumberland collieries show a decrease of 50,000 tons, owing to the stoppage of work for some time on the Springhill mines, but Pictou county shows an increase of 78,000 tons, and Cape Breton 23,500.

DROWNED WHILE SKATING.—John Moynehan, son of Dennis Moynehan, of Coldbrook, N. B., was drowned on Saturday evening, by skating into an air-hole, at Drury's Cove, on the Kennebecasis. On Sunday morning a searching party grappled for the body, and in the afternoon it was found. The deceased was 18 years of age.

KILLED BY A DOG.—During a gale on the 10th inst., Edwin Williams, a farmer living near Pictou, Ont., found his barn doors open. He tried to shut them, but found that he could not do so without assistance, and so got a neighbor to help him. The two succeeded in getting the door closed, and while the neighbor was holding it till Williams got a stone to put against it, the door was again forced open by the wind and struck Williams on the head with such force as to fracture his skull, death resulting shortly after.

THE MACKEREL MARKET.—Boston advices of the 12th say that the arrivals of mackerel are very small and the position firmer. Only 67 bbls. of English mackerel have come to hand within a week, with but few from Nova Scotia. The jobbers are quoting: Rivaler mess, $4; blower No. 1, $35; extra No. 1, $28; shore 1's, $27; large 2's, $22 to $23; medium 2's, $20; large 3's, $19; Irish, best, $20 to $23; stained and rusty, $15 to $16. (Since Jan. 1 the total importations amount to but 711 bbls.; same time last year, 1340 bbls.; same time 1887, 30 bbls.; same time 1886, 213 bbls.)

Rouillon's Kid Gloves, in blacks, tans and dark shades, just received at Stanley Druce.
