SILLY FILLER: NO MORE TARANTULAS IN THE MAIL POST OFFICE WARNS

TUCSON (ZNS) - And you thought junk mail was disgusting.

The U.S. postal service has told an Arizona tarantula dealer to stop shipping the furry crawlers through the mail.

Mickey Jacobsen, owner of Pet Ranch Imports, claims that tarantulas make terrific pets and are harmless.

The post office disagrees. "Tarantulas are not mailable," says post office representative Gene Gardner. "I guarantee that if you get one crawling across a post office floor we'll have labour relations problems."

Jacobsen says he'll sue if the post office doesn't change its mind. The reason: he has 1,000 tarantulas in stock and another 2,000 on the way from Mexico.

SILLY FILLER: HE AIN'T NO HEAVY, HE'S MY BANDEADER -- HEAVY MUSIC FROM HAWAII

HONOLULU (ZNS) - A recently-formed Hawaiian band has given new meaning to the term heavy music.

That's because the four-man "Makaha - Sons of Niihau" weigh in for a total of 1,622 pounds.

According to the trade paper Variety, which describes the band's sound as "full-bodied, four-part harmony", the Hawaiian heavyweights may qualify for a spot in the Guinness Book of World Records.

"...Bumstead v. Dithers, Maggie v. Jiggs, ... Kent et al v. Daily Planet...Counsellor,...that was a nice try,...but I suspect that you just made those up..."
