SEMINARY FOR YOUNG LADIES.

VISITOR:

The Lord Bishop of Nova Scotia

PRINCIPAL:

The Rev. John Padfield.

THIS SCHOOL offers, at very moderate cost, the advantages of a comfortable and pleasant home together with a thorough and refined education.

The course of Instruction is the same as that of the best Schools in England and is founded upon the University Examinations for Women. Eight young ladies from this School passed the Local Examination of the University of King's College in June last. This is the only School in Canada that has passed pupils at a University Examination. The number of pupils is limited, rendering the School select, and while it possesses all the educational advantages of a large public school, each pupil is enabled to receive that individual care and oversight which is so important, and which cannot be given in a large establishment.

Mr. and Mrs. Padfield are assisted by a staff of four resident governesses, besides visiting masters.

Parisienne French is taught conversationally. There are two resident French Governesses.

References given to parents of pupils. For further particulars address the Principal.

NEWS BY TELEGRAPH.

CANADIAN

TORONTO, Nov. 1.

Last evening Hanlan sent the following letter to Mr. Blaikie, and it is to be hoped that the matter is now at an end at last:

WM. BLAIKIE, Esq.:—Dear Sir,—Yesterday I received the articles which I prepared and sent to Mr. Courtney, according to your suggestion. I need hardly inform you that they were unsigned, as you have already been made aware of the fact through the press. This determines me to settle the ownership of the $8,000 in a court of law without further delay. I am deeply obliged to you for your efforts to get this unfortunate affair settled in a satisfactory and sportsmanlike manner and I am only sorry that they have not been successful.

Yours truly,
EDWARD HANLAN.

QUEBEC, Nov. 1.

The writs were issued last night by the Clerk of the Crown in Chancery for the Ministerial elections to be held in the Counties of Terrebonne, Sherbrooke, Laval, Brome, Gaspé and Lévis, in consequence of the vacancies caused in the House by Ministers acceptance of their portfolios. The elections are to take place not later than the 25th of Nov. It is probable that the nomination, excepting perhaps that for Gaspé, will be held on the 13th and voting on the 20th. In Lévis the campaign will, it is said, be opened to-day, and a meeting in Mr. Paquet's interest is to be addressed by Hon. Mr. Chapleau. The opposition candidate is not yet announced. In Sherbrooke, it is supposed that Mr. Heunecker will oppose Hon. Mr. Robertson. The Ministers will probably visit their respective departments to-day and then leave for their several constituencies.

UNITED STATES.

NEW YORK, Nov. 1.

Mrs. Thompson, aged 102 died here yesterday. A mob at Farmersville, La., on Thursday night, took W. J. Overstreet, a wife murderer, from jail and hanged him.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 1.

The Grand Jury has found a true bill of assault to murder against Charles De Young for his assault on Kalko.

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 1.

The Spanish steamship Enrique brought here a passenger and a sailor from the barkentine Sally from Pensacola for Havana, which foundered in the Gulf, Oct. 27. There were eight persons aboard the foundered vessel: the others are supposed to be lost. The parties picked up had been in an open boat four days.

MEMPHIS, Nov. 1.

No new cases of yellow fever since Thursday. Last night was the coldest of the season; thermometer this morning 73. The Appeal and Avalanche resume publication in full size issue to-morrow. Merchants report an increase in business, and physicians agree that the cold winds last night have swept away all lingering germs of fever.

GREAT BRITAIN.

LONDON, Nov. 1.

The Echo this evening publishes a statement that fresh outbreaks of rinderpest in the Western States of America will prevent the rescinding of the order against the importation of live American cattle.

LONDON, Nov. 1.

Sir Stafford Northcote, Chancellor of the Exchequer, in answering a letter calling attention to the popular distress in the South-west of Ireland, and suggesting immediate action of the Government in providing work, says he sympathises with the people but can only refer them to the Irish Executive. Direct interposition by the Government would be open to great abuse.

NEW YORK, Nov. 2.

A special London despatch says that it is now probable Parliament will be dissolved in December in which case the success of Gladstone in Midlothian will be more than doubtful.

It is rumored in well informed circles that Russia is preparing to declare war against England.

There are signs of a real revival of British trade, but there will certainly be a great deficiency in revenues.

Gladstone is preparing a speech attacking the financial policy of the Government.

AFGHANISTAN.

LONDON, Nov. 2.

A despatch from Cabul says the Ameer has informed Gen. Roberts that there are about nine lacs of rupees buried in the city. Troops have been sent to discover and seize the treasure.

Another despatch from Cabul reports that eight lacs of the treasure have been unearthed, consisting chiefly of gold coin. It has been confiscated for the present.

Eleven prisoners have been executed for participation in the massacre of the British Embassy, and sixty persons have been examined since the trials began.

ENGLAND AND TURKEY.

LONDON, Nov. 2.

A Vienna despatch is published in Paris journals stating that a telegram from Constantinople represents that relations between England and Turkey are strained.

England has sent an ultimatum demanding the execution of reforms in Asiatic Turkey. If the demand is not complied with, it is believed the Sultan will be deposed and replaced by his brother, who will be under tutelar supervision of England, France and Austria. Russia upholds the Sultan.

SOUTH AMERICA.

BUENOS AYRES, Oct. 10.

via LONDON, Nov. 1.

The hostile relations of the Southern borders of Peru are advancing to meet each other. A great battle is believed to be imminent.

ROME.

ROME, Nov. 1.

After a long trial, Cardinal and mistress Raffaella Saraceni, widow of Captain Fadda, have been found guilty. Cardinali was convicted of the murder of Captain Fadda and was sentenced to death. The woman Saraceni, convicted of complicity before the fact, was sentenced to hard labor for life.

Sir Francis Hincks.

The Canadian Spectator gives a summary of the case lately decided in the Court against Sir Francis Hincks and adds:

"It is a matter of painful regret that a man of Sir Francis's distinguished public services should be exacted as a victim for pursuing a system of banking to which almost every bank director in Montreal has, directly or indirectly, given his assent. Already the sober second judgment of the country is that he should not have been condemned. The price of satisfying the public wrath has been too exorbitant. A mature statesman and financier, a bold and fearless publicist—the Nestor of Canadian men—bearing the honors of two continents upon his head, and withal an unsullied name—while verging on his four score years, must expiate the crime of a system, rather than of personal wrong-doing. In all this painful legal drama, there is one matter of sincere congratulation,—he was personally advantaged in nothing. He acted for his bank, and not for personal gain. His honor remains intact. Were it otherwise, it would have been better that his ashes were commingling with those of his co-peers in the front rank of Canadian public life, even before his generation began,—with Baldwin and Lafontaine; for the name of Sir Francis Hincks is not his own merely,—it is his country's."

Fish Breeding in New Brunswick and P. E. Island.

The St. John Sun is pleased to state that two very imposing buildings have been fully completed and are now in readiness for the laying down of millions of salmon ova. These buildings are located, in New Brunswick, at Rapid des Femmes, three miles below Grand Falls, on the St. John River; and in P. E. Island, on Dunk River, nine miles from Summerside. The buildings are handsome designs, of the Gothic style of architecture, and fitted up with the latest and most approved methods for the artificial propagation of fish. Their dimensions are each 30 feet by 70 feet. The lower flats are divided into capacious breeding rooms, with office, hall and stairway. Each breeding room has a capacity for laying down two, four or six millions of salmon eggs, should this supply be obtainable, and the upper flats are fitted up for the residence of the officers in charge, with kitchen, parlor and bedrooms. The buildings are pleasant throughout, and neatly finished, with a view to securing warmth and protection from frost during the inclemency of the winter, which is essentially necessary in carrying on the delicate and intricate work in connection with artificial fish culture.

Agriculture for the Month.

Preparations must now be made for a long and severe winter. The summer vehicles and implements should be dried, cleaned and stowed away. The fences should be put in order, so that none of the fields may be exposed of cattle, sheep or hogs. The farmer should walk about daily with a hammer and a pocket full of nails, patching and repairing the barns and sheds where they require it. The barn should be well bedded with turf, peat, muck, straw, sawdust, weeds, or other vegetable matters, at the same time it should be so constructed that the soluble part of the manure, which is the best, shall not be lost. Finish digging and storing of roots and the fall ploughing. One good ploughing of clay land in the fall is worth two or three in the spring. Husk the corn; examine and make cuts for the drainage of surface water; underground drains are preferable to surface cuts.

One of the latest Yankee notions is ground shavings for horse-bedding. The notion is said to be a capital one. The article is said to form a soft bed and to act as an absorbent and a deodorizer. Are our livery stables men awake and posted on this matter?

Persons desirous of getting Hyacinth Bulbs and Crocuses, had better call early to-morrow morning, as a fresh supply is expected to-night at the Agricultural Store.—ROBERT MAX.—Oct 31, 2m
