Director Outlines Details Of ARDA

Premier Walter R. Shaw said his cabinet yesterday heard the provincial research director, Harold Daley, outline the methods established for putting in operation specific projects under the federal-provincial agricultural rehabilitation and development program.

"We are now at the stage," the premier said, "where provincial resources development groups, organizations and government departments can complete an application form setting out the requirements of the projects. The applications, calling for details of all projects, such as estimated cost and scope, will be received by a research division and taken direct to the cabinet committee."

Contempt Threat Is Raised As Labor Hearing Resumes

By ROBERT RICE
OTTAWA (CP)—Mr. Justice T. E. Norris Tuesday threatened contempt citations against a witness and his lawyer for not returning exhibits they had borrowed from his one-man commission investigating Great Lakes labor strife.

The documents were finally sent by car from Montreal to Ottawa and were dramatically delivered minutes before Tuesday's hearing adjourned to the judge, who deferred action on the contempt issue until Friday.

Mona Lisa Stay In New York Is Completed

NEW YORK (AP)—The Mona Lisa, whose smile enchanted more than 1,500,000 Americans, was paid home Tuesday in ceremonies at the Metropolitan Museum of Art.

Two white-gloved museum employees gently removed the priceless painting from the wall where 1,077,821 persons had viewed the Mona Lisa in the last 26 days. It will be returned to France.

Stalin Death Anniversary Is Ignored

CP from Reuters-AP
MOSCOW—A single spray of mimosa with no inscription appeared Tuesday on the grave of Josef Stalin as the Soviet government and press ignored the 10th anniversary of the dictator's death.

The small spray of flowers in a transparent plastic case appeared after an early lineup of Russians filing through the Lenin mausoleum to view the graves of Soviet heroes swept clean of snow, but bare.
