

Doctors now agree that consumption is curable. Three things, if taken together, will cure nearly every case in the first stages; the majority of cases more advanced; and a few of those far advanced.

The first is, fresh air; the second, proper food; the third, Scott's Emulsion of cod-liver oil with hypophosphites.

To be cured, you must not lose in weight, and, if thin, you must gain. Nothing equals Scott's Emulsion to keep you in good flesh.

For Business Men

Don't Be a Knocker.

Says an exchange: If your neighbor is prosperous, let him prosper. Don't grunt, growl or grumble. Say a good word for him and let it go at that. Don't be a knocker. Your turn will come. No one man is the whole show. If you see the town is moving along nicely, feel good about it. Help things along—shove a little; push. Try to get some of the benefit yourself. Don't stand around like a chummy old cadaver. Don't waste your time feeling sore, because some fellow has a little more sand and sense than you have. Do a little hustling yourself. Don't be a knocker.

We learn how to advertise by advertising.

The local weekly is the best medium for the local merchant.

It is easier to write an "original" advertisement than a good one.

No man knows how successful he will be in advertising until he tries.

The best mediums for one business may be poor mediums for another.

Local topics, deftly touched, are likely to gain regular readers for any advertising.

The advertisement which does not say anything cannot be expected to bring returns.

It is what is put in the space that determines the ultimate value of advertising space.

If the truth were strictly adhered to by every advertiser, the results would be better for all.

The greatest fortunes in advertising have been made with articles that appeal to the entire public.

It is as important that the advertisement should have the appearance of truth as that it should be truthful.

Don't be tedious in your advertising talk. Better leave a little to be said to-morrow than to be tiresome today.

"Keeping everlastingly at it" in the wrong direction is a form of persistence that cannot be expected to bring success.

We hear a good deal lately of the man behind the gun. There is just as much in another way of the man behind the advertisement.

The only real way to get rid of fraudulent advertising is to instill a higher degree of mercantile morality among advertisers.

Success in advertising does not depend so much on a large expenditure of money as it does on knowing how to expend a little judiciously.

Advertising in its broadest sense, is making people think and influencing them to act. And no rule or school ever taught that ability.

The secret to advertising is so simple that many persons miss it. It is merely telling what you have to offer, and making plain how you can benefit the buyer.

To belittle other form of advertising, as so many advertising publications are doing, does not increase the value of newspaper advertising or the respect in which it is held.

A public speaker who strains his voice and beats the air for effect displeases his audience. And an advertiser tism that strikes a shrill, screaming note does the same thing.

One fact about an article, told in simple, forcible language, will do more toward the ultimate sale of that article than a bewildering array of arguments given in a single advertisement.

Every advertisement should tell the why of something. If a price is low—why? If a quality is excellent—why? If better nutmegs come from Indiana than from Connecticut—why? Give a reason for everything.—Money Maker.

The sort of people you want to attract by your advertising are people that you can probably sell goods to. You don't want to attract mere idle curiosity seekers. You don't want advertisements or headlines that will merely catch an idle fancy. That isn't business; and advertising is business.

The Danger of PILES

Too frequently overlooked, Dr. Chase's Ointment a Prompt and Positive Cure.

The suffering caused by the intense itching and burning sensations of piles is only one of the horrors of this disease, for there is always great danger of piles developing into fistula, one of the most disgusting diseases imaginable.

Even the great danger and expense of an operation are preferable to running the risk of contracting this most loathsome of diseases.

But there is no necessity for a surgical operation for piles. Dr. Chase's Ointment is guaranteed to cure any case of piles, no matter of how long standing, or how aggravated the case may be, so long as piles have not become fistula.

It is only by rare chance that internal treatment will cure piles. But it matters not from what cause they arise, Dr. Chase's Ointment will at once stop the itching and burning, and soon effect a perfect cure.

You can use Dr. Chase's Ointment with fullest assurance that what has cured scores of thousands of cases of piles will cure you. For sale by all dealers, or Edmanston, Bates & Co., Toronto.
