Two Missing Cranes Found

REGINA (CP) — Two of eight rare whooping cranes missing at their winter refuge in the United States have been found, it was reported here.

Fred Bard, director of the Museum of Natural History in Regina, said a report from Washington, D.C., had been received saying the two birds were sighted in Texas.

Mr. Bard said the birds were not spotted previously because they had moved into a new location.

There were 38 whooping cranes known to be in existence when they flew north to Canada last summer. When they arrived at the game reserve in Texas this fall, only 30 were spotted by wildlife officials.

NOVELIST QUITS JOB

LONDON (AP) — Novelist Kingsley Amis, 40, says he is quitting his academic post at Cambridge University because of what he called stuffy atmosphere and backbiting. Amis said he wants to get a job in a U.S. university. He announced his resignation Thursday. An overnight success with his novel Lucky Jim in 1954, he joined the college staff in 1961.

Opening lead — five of clubs.

Let's say you're declarer at three notrump and West leads the five of clubs, which you win with the seven. You play the king of hearts, but naturally, the opponents don't take it.

This doesn't disturb you too much, because you lead a low club, planning to finesse the ten and then set up the heart suit. Assuming the club finesse works, which seems likely, you are sure of at least nine tricks.

Unfortunately, when you lead the two of clubs, West, a worthy adversary, plays the jack. This leaves you with no further entries to dummy and it becomes pointless to set up the hearts.

So you play a diamond and finesse the queen, hoping to find East with the king and the suit divided 3-3. If this is the case, you still have a chance to make the contract. But West takes the queen with the king and returns a club. You struggle a while, but eventually wind up going down one, due largely to West's fine play of the jack of clubs.

When you think the hand over later, you realize you could have made the contract. It's too late then to do anything about it, but you add the deal to your store of experience and hope you won't repeat the error again.

It all goes back to your play on the first trick. Instead of winning the opening lead with the seven of clubs, you should have won it with the king. You needed two entries to dummy to bring home the heart suit, and the best chance of btaining those entries was to play your king or queen of clubs on the opening lead.

Then you could play the king of hearts, and, after it was refused, the two of clubs, planning to finesse the ten. Now it wouldn't matter whether or not West put up the jack of clubs because, if he did, the ten would become a second entry to be used after the hearts were established.

DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE — Here's how to work it:

A X Y D L B A A X R
is L O N G F E L L O W

One letter simply stands for another. In this sample A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophies, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.
