IN MEMORIAM

MACDONALD—In loving memory of Mr. John A. MacDonald, Bethel, who passed away April 13, 1955.

God knows how much we miss him
Never will his memory fade,
Loving thoughts will always wander
To the spot where he is laid.
Ever remembered by sisters,
Laura and Sadie.

MACDONALD—In loving memory of Mr. John A. MacDonald, Bethel, who passed away April 13, 1955.

We often sit and think of him
When we are all alone,
For memory is the only friend
That grief can call its own.
To think he could not say good-bye
Will always bring regret,
But the hearts that always loved him
Are the hearts that can't forget.
Ever remembered by wife and family.

FOLLAND — In fond and loving memory of Robert H. Folland who passed away on April 12, 1956.

Always remembered by son Nelson, daughter-in-law Isabel and grandchildren, George, Billy, Arthur, Arnold, Marlene, Marybelle, Joan Folland, Graham's Road, P.E.I.

CARD OF THANKS

I Mary Florence Burnett wish first to thank my friends and relatives in Charlottetown who were so kind to me before and after my operation. To my Clergy the Rev. Father Butler who made it possible to attend my operation and many other acts of kindness during my sickness. To the many clergy who visited me particularly my former pastor the Rev. Louis P. Callaghan, who visited me quite often during my stay there also Father Wood and the many other Clergy a special thank you to the Mother Superior the kind Sisters and nurses who did so much to alleviate my sufferings. To Dr. Joseph and Dr. H. Allan McMillan, Dr. Coady and Dr. Shimeack who attended my operation and did all possible to make it a success. A very warm thank you to Mrs. Walter Currie and Mrs. Daniel Sarter who spent so much time with me and did so many kind things for me. Also Mrs. St. John R.N., my special nurse. My best to you. Last but not least to the dietitian and the very kind tray girls who did everything possible for me owing to having a broken wrist along with my operation and so was unable to help myself and to all my old city neighbors and friends and the very many who called to see me, those who sent cards, get well messages, treats etc., and to my friends who were so kind to my adopted brother during my absence, and to Father Frederick Lynch, S.J., Winnipeg. God bless you all.
Florence Burnett, Fort Augustus

IN MEMORIAM

J. FOSTER SKERRY

The news of the sudden death of J. Foster Skerry in City Hospital, Charlottetown, Prince Edward Island, on the evening of March 30th, 1958, came as a great shock to his wife, family and the neighbors.

Although suffering from a heart ailment for the past number of years and having to enter hospital for periodical check-up, his loved ones did not realize, that his condition was of such a serious nature. Two weeks prior to his death he had gone to the hospital and members of his family journeyed from Tignish to visit him on several occasions never believing death was so near.

On the day his death occurred, his son Leo spent the afternoon with him, although Leo thought he did not seem too well, yet, he was up and about his hospital room, and advised him as to some work that was to be done at home, it was therefore a terrible shock to arrive home in the early night to receive the news of his father's death shortly after he had left him.

The late Mr. Skerry was born at Alberton, sixty-one years ago, the son of the late John Skerry and his wife Charlotte Leonard Skerry, at the age of eighteen and when World War One was declared, he enlisted in His Majesty's Service, serving his country faithfully with the Canadian Army, spending about one year in active service in France, returning home with an honorary discharge when gunshot wounds in the arm and gas poisoning rendered him unfit for further military work. Later with his health improving he resumed his work of meatcutting, but due to those war injuries was never able to work for any great length of time, and about five years ago was forced to retire from all active duties.

He was widely known and favourably thought of by everyone. His nature was of the pleasant and kind type, which made him welcome in every group, whether it was composed of young or old.

Besides his wife the former Evelyn Gaudet of Tignish, he is survived by two sons, Chester, Toronto, Ont., and Leo at home, and five daughters, (Lillian) Mrs. Clayton Ripley, Amherst, N. S., (Aldona) Mrs. Brian Masterson, Montreal, P.Q., (Marion) Mrs. Howard Gaudet, Toronto, Ont., (Lyn) Mrs. Daniel Burns, Trenton, Ont., and (Jean) Mrs. Ernest DeWolfe, Amherst, N.S. Also surviving are two sisters (Cassie) Mrs. Frank MacDougall, Alberton P.E.I. and Mrs. Annie Farrell, Lynn, Mass., and by ten grandchildren. A son Foster Jr. predeceased him eight months ago and a daughter (Frances) Mrs. John Vaundette, about ten years ago.

His son Chester with his wife, and his five daughters with their husbands came to Tignish to attend the funeral which was largely attended and held on Wednesday morning, April 2nd., from his home on Church Street, to the Church of St. Simon and St. Jude where at nine-thirty a Requiem Mass was sung by Reverend Floyd McLaughlin, assisted by the parish choir, Reverend M.J. Rooney, P.P., was seated in the sanctuary.

The members of the Canadian Legion Tignish Branch No. 6, under command of Comrade Hector J. Buote and the Tignish Air Cadets, under command of Walter Bernard marched in solemn procession from the home to the church, where they formed a Guard of Honor through which the flag draped casket of their late comrade was carried by Charles J. Gaudet, Terr
