LATEST NEWS BY TELEGRAPH.

BERLIN, July 30th.—Prussian journals denounce as false the Paris Moniteur's denials of Napoleon's note to the King of Prussia in regard to Schleswig, and insinuates that the denial was prompted by the defiant tone of King William's reply to the note from the French Emperor.

VIENNA, July 30th.—The Presse this morning announces on authority that the Emperor Napoleon will arrive in the city on the 7th August on a visit to the Emperor of Austria. Baron Vonbeust, Premier, and Fuad Pasha, Minister of the Sultan, who accompanies his Sovereign here, have had a conference on the proposed enquiry into the affairs of Candia.

LONDON, July 30th.—In the House of Lords the Reform Bill has been amended by the addition of five pounds to the annual amount of rental, upon which copy hold and lodger franchise are respectively based. By these amendments the basis of copy hold franchise is increased from five to ten pounds per annum, that of lodger franchise from ten to fifteen pounds.

PARIS, July 29.—The Moniteur of this morning declares that the rumours of war which now prevail on the continent are without foundation, and asserts that the relations of France with all human powers are eminently peaceful. It denies that the formation of new military camps is contemplated, and says reserves of horses are to be sold to farmers of the department.

LONDON, July 29 (noon).—The sincerity of the reported denials put forth by the Moniteur of the war reports now current in Europe, is doubted here. The London Times in its city article of this morning, is of opinion that those warlike rumours will have the effect to check trade generally until next spring.

VIENNA, July 29.—It is denied that the Hungarian organization, known as the National Guard, is to be re-established, though several meetings of the Honvido of 1848 have recently been held in Hungary, with the object of effecting reorganization. No action has yet been taken by either the Austrian or Hungarian Government to that end.

LONDON, July 30, midnight.—In the House of Commons to-night, Lord Stanley, Secretary of Foreign Affairs, in answer to a question, said that the Emperor Napoleon had sent a note to the King of Prussia, but it would be improper to disclose its contents at present.

PARIS, July 30.—The dry weather which has prevailed for over a week past proves unfavorable to the crops, and reports from some of the agricultural districts of France say that much damage has been caused by the drouth.

PARIS, July 30, evening.—It is understood that the Emperor Napoleon, on his visit to Vienna, will be met by the Emperor of Austria at the frontier village of Salzbach, in Tyrol, when the two Emperors will proceed to the Austrian capital.....10, P. M.—This afternoon the trial of the reaping and mowing machines of the world took place on the Emperor's farm at Vincennes. Over a dozen machines from France, Spain, England and the United States entered into competition for the international prizes. Maccormick's reaper performed its allotted task in 24 minutes. The prizes will undoubtedly be given in accordance with these results. The American machines worked better and faster than any of the others on the ground.

LONDON, Aug. 1st.—The apprehension of war between France and Prussia is declining, and consequently there is better feeling in all kinds of securities.

LONDON, July 31, eve.—To-day was the second day of the Goodwood races, and the attendance larger than it was yesterday. The principal race, which was for the Goodwood stakes, was unexpectedly won by the Duke of Beaufort's "Geomera." The leading horses came in in the following order: "Geomera" first, "Visi" second, and "Le Dauphin" third..... A terrible explosion has occurred in one of the large mines owned by Rothschild, in Moravia. The mine was full of workmen at the time of the disaster, and more than one hundred miners are reported killed or injured. .....The visit of the Sultan of Turkey to Vienna terminated yesterday. He departed this afternoon, for Pesth, will make a brief visit, and thence proceed to Constantinople.

The American reaping and mowing machines received the highest prizes at the Paris Exhibition.

THE REVOLUTION IN CRETE.

Omar Pasha— the Turkish General who has undertaken the job of suppressing the insurrection in Crete—vouchsafes the information that his endeavours have been successful, and that "the war in that island is now ended." Unfortunately, however, the same rumour has often been sent over the wires before, and as often been subsequently proved to be without foundation in fact, so that Omar Pasha at last finds himself, as to credibility, in the unpleasant predicament of the boy who started the cry of "wolf" when no danger was near. We much prefer to pin our faith to the latest official accounts of the situation in the island, received at the Greek legation in Washington. These give quite a different version of the story, which is to the effect that Omar Pasha has been repulsed with severe losses from the mountain region of Sphakia, and has retreated to the Fortress Herodeon, burning no less than fifteen villages on the way, and putting all Greek prisoners to death by crucifixion. While this has been occurring on land, the now celebrated Grecian blockade runner, Arkadi, has made her fifteenth expedition between Crete and the mainland, landing on the island munitions of war and provisions, and bringing away a large number of Greek women and children, who thus escape from Turkish cruelties.

Turning to the field of diplomacy, we find that the proposed Commission to which the Sultan consented to submit the Cretan question, will probably never be formed. The Porte, it appears, is determined that the Commission shall consist of Turks alone, while the Foreign Powers insist, and very properly, on a mixed Turkish and Christian Commission. Whether the Sultan, on his return from his western tour, will yield, remains to be seen, but no stone should be left unturned by the Christian Powers in the effort to rescue the Cretans from the persecutions of Omar Pasha and his followers. The burning of villages and the crucifixion of prisoners, are somewhat antiquated modes of warfare, and the Porte should be made to understand that they cannot be practised with impunity at this late period of the nineteenth century.—N. York Albion.

Owing to the smallness of the stock of sound flour in St. John, N. B., the article of good quality has recently advanced in price in that market. It is thought, however, that the advance will be but temporary.

Some sections of the West have been visited by a severe thunder storm, accompanied by hail. The hail stones, we are informed, were of considerable size, but we did not hear that much damage was done to the crops.—S. Journal.

COUNCIL OFFICE, 27th July, 1867.—His Excellency the Lieutenant Governor in Council has been pleased to appoint Henry Palmer, Esquire, a Justice of the Peace for Queen's County.

THE FRENCH AND BRITISH INFANTRY.—Gen. Trochu, an able French officer, recently published a pamphlet on the French Army in 1867. It contains, among other excellent things, a description by Marshal Augeaud of the different modes of fighting of the French and British infantry. Bugeaud, writing from personal experience in Spain, says that the French advanced with much noise and gesticulation and enthusiasm. Arrived within 1,000 yards of the British line, they saw a "red wall" of men with ordered arms and perfectly silent and motionless. Getting nearer while the wall remained quiescene, the French began to give a dropping fire. Still approaching, they began to shout louder and to encourage each other to fire advancing, and even to run. Coming within 300 yards, they were staggered to see the red line move a right-half face and levelling their muskets to pour in well-aimed volleys, then with three tremendous shouts, to charge and hurl the French back—all done without enthusiasm. I mention this because, happening to then alight on the journal of a private soldier, perfectly authentic, published in 1819, I found this counterpart to Bugeaud from one of his adversaries in those bloody fields. "How different," he writes, "the duty of the French officers from ours. They stimulating the men by their example; the men vociferating, each until they appear in a fury, shouting to the points of our bayonets. After the first huzza, the British officers restraining their men, still as death 'Steady, lads, steady!' is all you hear, and that in an undertone." The one account is the complement of the other.

A HORRIBLE STORY OF SUFFERING.—Brief mention was made a few days since in a despatch of the burning of the barque Meteor, at sea, and loss of six lives. Captain Mason, one of the survivors, has arrived at New York, and furnishes the particulars of the sad catastrophe. The Meteor was loaded with petroleum, bound for London. On the 14th day of June, two days out from New York, the watch was thrown into confusion by the decks blowing up and the flames running up the masts and setting the sails and boats on fire. At the time of the accident there were five men below, two of whom got on deck, the rest perished in the flames. The remainder of the crew, ten in number, took to pieces of the decks and masts. The chief officer and one man kept to the pieces of the decks and drifted away, but the remainder of the crew could not escape the burning ship, owing to the bobstay holding them fast, and the heat at that time was so intense the captain and companions had to immerse their bodies in the water. Their sufferings at this time are represented as having been agonizing, crippled as they were with burns and bruises, and not being able to help themselves. About one o'clock in the afternoon, however, signs of relief came to them in the shape of a vessel to the leeward; but it was not until six o'clock, at which time the fire had now reached the copper, that a boat from the welcome vessel came up to the burning wreck. The vessel proved to be the Prussian barque Lucy and Paul, Captain Schiel, from New York for Cork. Captain Schiel reported that he had picked up one of the crew at three o'clock, on a loose spar, and that the chief officer had been drowned who was with this man. In addition to this loss of life, one of the crew who had both legs broken died on the spars. The survivors were landed at Falmouth on July 8th, and arrived at New York a few days since.

AN INTREPID WOMAN.—San Francisco telegram, recently received, briefly noticed the arrival at that port of the ship Ellen Southard, of Bath, Maine, (we believe), but the story of the vessel from Hong Kong is quite a romantic one. About the beginning of June last the Ellen Southard was seen by a schooner about eighty miles west of the Farallone Islands, flying a flag of distress.—The schooner at once went to her assistance, and found her in command of Mrs. Howe, her husband, the captain, having died when the ship was out a few days from Hong Kong.—The ship was short of water, and the crew and Chinamen in a state of mutiny. The captain left his mate on board and brought a message from Mrs Howe to the consignees to send a tug out to tow the ship into port.—But, strange to say, no efforts were made to rescue this brave woman—who, in the midst of her own deep afflictions worked night and day against fearful odds to save the ship for two or three days, and finally the United States Government sent out the Wyanda in search of her, which succeeded in finding her in the Bay of Santa Cruz, where she had drifted. Mrs. Howe although worn out with watching over her husband's death bed and sad burial at sea, took charge of the ship.—The water being short they were put on allowance. The crew was picked up in a foreign port, and they, with the Chinamen, made threats against Mrs. Howe's life if she did not get the ship into San Francisco by a certain time. Mrs. Howe was a good sailor, and she worked the vessel well. She stood her watch, and the Chinamen were so brutal that she was obliged to carry a revolver in her hand all the time. At last, completely worn out, she was prostrated and confined to her bed. The Chinamen came into her cabin when she was not able to rise, and threatened to kill her it she did not reach San Francisco in two days. She said if she had been able to go on deck, the ship would not have drifted so far to the leeward. The officer of the Wyanda says that he never listened to a more heartrending tale than that of Mrs Howe, and he could not restrain his tears when she related her trials.

In regard to the loss at the late fire at St. Eleanors, the Summerside Journal says:—

The loss though considerable, is not nearly so great as was at first supposed. Mr. Fraser has lost his shop, but nearly the whole of its contents were saved. Haszard & Co's building and stock were insured to the amount of somewhere about £1200 currency. The value of the stock alone, we were assured, amounted to over £1600. The books of the firm were recovered, but in a very dilapidated condition, and many valuable papers were totally destroyed. It was at first thought that no insurance had been effected on the property.

CITY COUNCIL.

JULY 23rd.

His Worship the Mayor Presiding. The Council Board had under consideration the protest made by Mr. H. B. Smith against the election of Mr. D. M. Hooper, as Councillor for Ward No. 5, on the grounds that the Poll for said election was not opened according to law at the hour of nine o'clock, forenoon.

Councillor Brecken admitted, as Returning Officer for said election in Ward No 5, for which Mr. Smith was one of the Candidates, that the Poll was not opened until about 25 minutes before ten o'clock in the forenoon, he not having received instructions to act in the capacity of Returning Officer until a late hour. His Worship the Mayor then explained to the Board that it was the duty of Councillor Brown to have acted as Returning Officer at that election, he being Councillor for Ward No. 5.

His Worship also said that he caused the City Clerk to communicate with Mr. Brown on the subject, and read that gentleman's reply to the Board, declining to act as Returning officer on the occasion referred to, as he, (Mr. Brown) declined to serve any longer as Councillor for Ward 5. His Worship added that Mr. Brown should have performed his official duties until he had complied with the terms of the law relative to his position as Councillor, hence the cause of the delay relative to the opening of the Poll at the hour of 9 o'clock, as specified by law. The Board then proceeded to hear evidence relative to the protest in question, with the view of ascertaining what votes (if any) were lost to the contending Candidate (Mr. Smith) because of the late hour at which the poll was opened. Several witnesses were called but it appeared that no evidence could be produced to show that electors had been deprived of the opportunity to record their votes owing to the hour at which the poll was opened. Several members of the Board then expressed the opinion that as it could not be shown that voters were precluded from recording their votes at said election, because the poll had not been opened at the hour of 9 o'clock, as prescribed by law, Mr. Hooper's election as Councillor, he having a majority of votes, should be confirmed.

There being a difference of opinion, however, on the point before the Board, it was deemed advisable in the absence of the Recorder to obtain a legal opinion on the subject, and his Worship, in compliance with the request of the Board, procured in writing the opinion of counsel, which only served to substantiate the views of a majority of the Board as expressed in a Resolution submitted by Councillor A. H. Yates, to the effect that the protest of Mr. H. B. Smith, against the validity of the Election held on Saturday, the 20th of July, for Ward 5, was not sufficient to invalidate the said election, no evidence having been adduced to prove that any voters in the said Ward had been precluded from polling a vote for either of the candidates during the day; and that therefore the election of Mr. D. M. Hooper be confirmed. Councillor Morris submitted an amendment, to the effect that the Board having heard the protest made by Mr. Smith, and also the Presiding officer's admission relative to the hour at which the Poll for the Election in question was opened, cannot but consider that the said Election was not opened as required by the 12th Section of the Act of Incorporation, and was therefore invalid and should be set aside. The Council divided as follows: for the amendment, Councillors Morris and Reddin—against it Councillors Yates, Mitchell, Butcher, Heartz. The election of Mr. Hooper was accordingly confirmed.

MELANCHOLY OCCURENCE.—A man named John McMahon, for some years past a servant in the employ of L. P. W. DesBrisay, Esq., of Richibucto, was drowned at the entrance of Bedeque Harbor, on Monday last. This unfortunate man while assisting to haul in the mainsail of a schooner bound from Richibucto to Summerside, was carried overboard, and as the wind was blowing strong, ere any assistance could be rendered, he sank. The mainsail had been lowered; the strap of the main sheet block had parted after the boom was lowered, and it is probable that McMahon seized the sail and was carried over by it. A pine plank quite sufficient to have supported him was thrown within a few feet of him, but the man in his terror appeared not to regard it. An attempt was made to launch the boat, but as usually happens in such cases, the boat, which was on the deck under the foresail, when got out was filled in the act of launching. This casualty, as it happened, was of little consequence, for ere the boat reached the water poor McMahon had disappeared. McMahon's parents reside on the Hillsborough River, in this Island. The unfortunate young man left in the schooner, not as one of the crew, but for the sake of a trip to the Island. He was a very inoffensive man, and it is sad to reflect that by his untimely end a wife and five small children are cast upon the world.—Isl.

Holloway's Pills.—Diarrhœa, Dysentery.—The medicines commonly used for the subjugation of these diseases so frequently fail of effecting that object that it should be known to all sufferers from these maladies that Holloway's Ointment, well rubbed upon the abdomen two or three times a day, with the application of warm bran poultices in the intervals, gives immediate relief, gradually soothes the irritable bowels, and assuages their most distressing pains. This treatment is applicable to all forms of diarrhœa, dysentery, and cholera, and, with attention, will always be successful. Farinaceous diet, milk, and barley water, should give subsistence during the continuance of the disease, to the utter exclusion of all solid food, which the deranged bowels are incompetent to assimilate.

A SPECIFIC FOR THROAT DISEASES.—"My communication with the world is very much enlarged by the Lozenge which I now carry always in my pocket; that trouble in my throat (for which the 'Troches' are specific) having made me often a mere whisperer. N. P. WILLS.

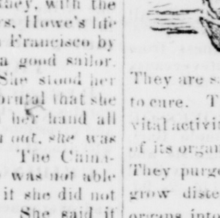
Ayer's Cathartic Pills



Are the most perfect purgative we are able to produce, and, as we think, has ever yet been made by any body. Their effects have abundantly shown to the community how much they excel the other medicines in use. They are safe and pleasant to take, but powerful to cure. Their penetrating properties stimulate the vital activities of the body, remove the obstructions of its organs, purify the blood, and expel disease. They purge out the foul humors which breed and grow distemper, stimulate sluggish or disordered organs into their natural action, and impart tone and strength to the whole system. Not only do they cure the every day complaints of everybody, but formidable and dangerous diseases. While they produce powerful effects, they are at the same time, in diminished doses, the safest and best physic that can be employed for children. Being sugar-coated, they are pleasant to take; and, being purely vegetable, are entirely harmless. Cures have been made that would surpass belief, were they not substantiated by men of such exalted character, as to forbid the suspicion of untruth. Many eminent clergymen and physicians certify to the public the reliability of our remedies, while others have sent us the assurance of their conviction that our Preparations contribute immensely to the relief of our afflicted fellow-men.

The Agent below named is pleased to furnish gratis our American Almanac, containing directions for the use of these medicines and certificates of their cures of the following complaints:—

Costiveness, Bilious Complaints, Rheumatism, Dropsy, Heartburn, Headache arising from foul stomach, Nausea, Indigestion, Morbid Inaction of the Bowels and Pain arising therefrom, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite, all Diseases which require an evacuant medicine. They also, by purifying the blood and stimulating the system, cure many complaints which it would not be supposed they could reach, such as Deafness, Partial Blindness, Neuralgia and Nervous Irritability, Derangements of the Liver and Kidneys, Gout, and other kindred disorders arising from a low state of the body, or obstruction of its functions.

Do not be put off by unprincipled dealers with other preparations on which they make more profit. Demand AYER'S and take no others. The sick want the best aid there is for them, and they should have it.

Prepared by DR. J. C. AYER & Co., Lowell, Mass. and sold by all Druggists and dealers in medicine everywhere.

AN EFFECTUAL WORM MEDICINE.

Brown's Vermifuge Comfits,

OR WORM LOZENGES. Much sickness undoubtedly, with children and adults, attributed to other causes, is occasioned by worms. The "VERMIFUGE COMFITS," although effectual in destroying worms, can do no possible injury to the most delicate child. This valuable combination has been successfully used by physicians, and found to be safe and sure in eradicating worms, so hurtful to children.

Children having worms require immediate attention, as neglect of the trouble often causes prolonged sickness.

Symptoms of worms in children are often overlooked. Worms in the stomach and bowels cause irritation, which can be removed only by the use of a sure remedy. The combination of ingredients used in making BROWN'S "VERMIFUGE COMFITS" is such as to give the best possible effect with safety.

NEW TRIUMPHS OF ROGERS' MEDICINES.

Run your eye over them and tell your affected neighbour about it.

Messrs. Rogers & Co.:

This is to certify that about five years ago I had a lump on the back of my neck, which all the doctors to whom I showed it pronounced it a Tumour, and said it could only be cured by cutting it out. I did not like the operation much; and by accident heard of Messrs. Rogers' medicine for the cure of cancers, &c, and concluded to try it; and to my surprise the tumour disappeared in a very short time, and I have not since been troubled with it.

JOHN W. McPHERSON.

Pugwash, 28th May, 1863.

Mr Colin McCallop, Loading Ground, Pictou, is cured of a bad ulcer on his side, of many years standing. The doctors pronounced it incurable.

HANTSPORT, Jan. 25, 1864.

Messrs. Rogers & Co.:

It is with pleasure that I can justly say that your medicines are truly great, after proving them faithfully in two cases,—one of Erysipelas, which is now cured, the other that of the late Capt. F. McKenzie, of this place, who was widely known to have the worst of diseases, viz., Scrofula, and who consulted many of the best physicians in Europe and America, who pronounced his case incurable eighteen months ago. I attended him, and applied your medicines during the last few months of his life, and am fully persuaded that had you been sent for six months sooner his life would have been saved, and the disease cured. His constitution was gone, but your medicine worked marvellously for good. The captain himself had the fullest confidence in it to the last, and said to me frequently that if he had known you sooner, his life would have been saved.

I do, with every confidence, recommend your medicines to the suffering everywhere, and wish you God's blessing in your work of humanity.

Yours, very respectfully,

T. H. HARDING.

Miss Mary McDonald, East River, Picton, was afflicted with a tumour on her face the size of a hen's egg, of six years' growth. Is now entirely removed.

(Extract of a letter.)

HANTSPORT, 14th January, 1864.

Messrs. Rogers & Co.:

I watched with interest the effects of your medicine upon the late Capt. F. McKenzie, of this place, and the facts of its straightening the nose, and nearly healing up the face, as well as reducing the swelling, proves to me the virtue of the medicine. I would earnestly recommend all afflicted with Scrofula or Skin diseases, as well as Cancer, to employ your skill. I have every faith in your applications, and wish you success, and pray the Lord may bless and prosper you in your work of love to mankind.

I am, respectfully yours,

N. T. HARRIS.

Every Man his own Fire Brigade.

"A little fire is quickly put out, which being suffered, rivers cannot quench."—Vide Mr. Cardwell in the British House of Commons.

L'EXTINCTEUR,

A new Portable, self-acting Fire Engine, for the Extinguishing of fires in their early stages.

This little Engine can be carried on the back to any desired spot; throws a small stream of water, impregnated with eight times its volume of carbonic acid gas, which is the most simple and most effective means yet known to science for destroying fire. They have the advantage of being always ready for use. All that is necessary in applying them is to turn the tap with one hand and with the other direct the stream upon the flame. The cost of them is but trifling, ranging from $18 to $35. They are also made in copper, up to $60. They are indispensable for houses, stores, warehouses, factories, public offices, halls, &c., &c.
