A RARE TREAT—The lecture on "Tennyson and His Friends," to be delivered by the Rev. J. DeSoyers in St. Paul's Schoolroom. The lecture will begin at 8 o'clock. Admission 15 cents.

MISSING—A copper coin—about the size of a Dominion cent—having a heart and hand stamped on one side has been accidentally passed out in change. The holder will be rewarded by leaving it at the Diamond Book-store.

BIG Apple Auction on Wednesday, Nov 16th, at half-past ten o'clock. 300 barrels specially choice winter apples without any reserve. Will housekeepers should attend—E. H. Norton & Co., Auctioneers. nov14 2i

THE FIRST VICTIM—The postmaster at Hope, Kansas, named S. M. Teas, commit suicide at that place at Friday 1 a. m. It is said that Teas was in actual embarrassment, and the fear of losing his place under a Democratic administration had caused him to become despondent.

LECTURES—Our lecture goes will have at least two treats this week. The Rev. Mr. DeSoyers will lecture this evening on "Tennyson," and the Rev. Dr. Lachere tomorrow evening on "The English Bible." Both subjects are splendid, and both lecturers men of high ability.

THE GRAB-BAG ENTICEMENT.—According to an exchange one of the fixtures of a recent church fair out west was a grab bag, and among the contents was a slip of paper on which was written: "Good for one grave. Will be dug any time during the ensuing year. John Smith, sexton."

CHRISTMAS TREE—The Christmas Tree under the auspices of St. Joseph's Sodality will be held in St. Joseph's Convent on Wednesday and Thursday evenings next. The proceeds go towards the convent fund. Give the Sodality a full house and help along a good cause.

BAPTISM.—Yesterday, at the close of the evening service in the Baptist Church, in the presence of a large congregation, the ordinance of baptism was administered to two candidates. This Church is continually adding to its membership and strength.

"FAIRBOLD"—The plan of this magnificent property, to be sold on Thursday next, by E. H. Norton & Co., is now posted round the town. Should it be necessary to divide the property, the trustees of the estate have laid it off in large and very desirable lots, which makes it by far the best property in the city.

THAT SETTLES IT—Gen. Booth, the head of the Salvation Army, makes the few modest remarks about himself: "I have been to the looking glass again and again; I have scanned my features and tried to notice my bearing, and I think that my personal appearance, my demeanor and my conversation generally are eminently calculated to create confidence."

A VALUABLE PAINTING.—The late James Lear, of Halifax, who was well-known in Charlottetown, previous to his death owned a very small oil painting. The picture could not get more than $20 for the picture in Halifax, and it was taken to England and sold to Sir Donald Smith for $1,200. The picture was painted by Louisa, the celebrated Flemish artist.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT.—Mrs Gordon desires gratefully to acknowledge the gift of a valuable and beautiful set of furs left at her home on Saturday "with the compliments of the Ladies of Baptist congregation." A very generous act on the part of his people is no surprise to the pastor nor to his family. In this kind and tangible way they are in the habit of expressing themselves very heartily.

VALUABLE SHIPMENTS.—The Sumner-shire Pioneer says: "As our 2,000 sheep have been crossing over by this route every week since the fall shipping commenced. On Thursday Mr John Henry sent away 400 and Mr M. Grath 214 and on the following day the latter gentleman sent over 200 more. On Thursday, W. B. Brown's horse Jules F. O. was sent over to St. John."

CHRISTMAS PUBLICATION.—The Christmas Dominion Illustrated of 1892 promises to be most creditable in every way to Canadian artistic and literary skill. The work will be beautifully illustrated, and there will be stories and poems from some of our best writers. There will also be three colored supplements, and a reproduction in colors of a work specially prepared for the Illustrated by Mr. Robert Harris, R. C. A., entitled "Christmas Morning."

MUCH SICKNESS.—We are very sorry to hear that Mr. and Mrs. A. F. McNeill, of Long Creek, had such a hard siege of sickness in their family. Ten weeks ago they fell sick with the scarletina, then followed whooping cough, and when they were almost over this they were taken down with the measles. Mr. and Mrs. McNeill have the sympathy of the community in their affliction. This was plainly seen by the large gathering that attended their child's funeral, which took place the other day. The child died of whooping cough.

A GOOD MOVE.—A gymnasium, music room and reading room, under the auspices of the boys' branch of the League of the Cross, is being fitted up in the Market building. The gymnasium will be in the room formerly used as a court-room, and the room lately used as a private committee room by the Liberal Conservatives will be fitted up for the music room. The reading room, the hall in the room recently occupied by the Western Publishing Co. will be ready for use in a few days. THE EXAMINER congratulates the boys on their enterprise, and trusts that the new move will be successful in every way.

Big Election Winnings.

IN NEW YORK CITY ALONE FULLY $5,000,000 WAS WAGERED ON THE ELECTION.

There has been more heavy betting in New York than on any other of recent years. Probably the man who won the most money on the election of Grover Cleveland is Michael Dwyer, the famous horseman. His winnings will aggregate fully $75,000, to win which he staked $180,000, having given big odds. Dwyer's money was placed with Joe Vendig, his commission agent. He enjoyed the distinction of being the first man who offered odds against Harrison. He bet on the general result in New York state, on the plurality, on the county and its plurality, on the general result. Then he bet on Indiana, both as a general result and the Democratic majority. Every bet Mr. Dwyer made he won.

John Mahoney was another of the plungers who came out ahead. He won about $50,000 on the result.

Ed Murphy, jr., won $50,000, $35,000 of which was placed in one bet at even odds. He did not bet much on the result of this State, but placed his money on the general result.

Joseph J. O'Donohue came over with $80,000 to the good. Tom Patton is another of the lucky men, his winning amounting to $50,000.

Walton Storm has $12,500 more than he had before the election, and Ed. Kearney has $35,000, chiefly won on the result in this State. President William J. Thompson, of Gloucester, counts his winnings at $30,000. About $20,000 in cold cash will accompany Pat Duffy back to the Crescent City. Broker H. A. Hart won $20,000.

There was enough money bet in the Hoffman House, New York, to turn a man's head. In the corridor and in the bar not less than $1,000,000 was placed both ways. Billy Edwards held $150,000 in bills, gold, and certified checks.

The amount wagered in Wall Street, either on the exchanges or in brokers' offices was very nearly $200,000, and there were many bets in other hotels than the Hoffman House and also in the business districts.

There are some two or three dozen others than those mentioned, whose winnings total up all the way from $2,500 to $20,000. The names of the losers are not so easily obtained, but the number must be correspondingly large.

That Crossing.

Sir,—The wag who got up that "tear and cent" joke must be awfully proud of it. Not satisfied with writing letters about it all the week, he sends an old New York Life Insurance "ad" to a North Star, and then calls for an explanation of what became of the cheque for street repairs. Funny, isn't it?

Were a check put on some of our anonymous newspaper scribbles, a serious harm would be done to the community.

COME AND SEE THE BALL ROLLING

THE STAR TAILORING ESTABLISHMENT.

TRADE has commenced to move earlier than usual, and we mean to keep it moving if BARGAINS will do it. As we have decided to run our business, on and after October 1st, for CASH, and CASH ONLY, we have determined to quote prices lower than the lowest to secure the patronage of Cash customers.

We have taken this step after an experience of years in business. We learned that those who pay cash are entitled to the full benefit derived from prompt payments; and as "pay as you go" is the only safe road to travel, we will endeavor to educate public sentiment in favor of that independence of character which is not found in those who prefer credit to paying cash.

As we want money, we also want to give value for your money. We must, therefore, have you come in and see what we can do for you. The LATEST NOVELTIES in our line always on hand.
