Royals Take Lead

"BUCK" Whitlock and his Royals have taken the lead in their series with 'Bucko' Trainor's Penguins.

Thursday night the Royals managed a 4-3 decision over the Juniors and the Frizzellmen richly deserved their triumph. On the night's play they were the better team and had the license to head into the fourth contest sporting a 2-1 margin in games.

However, at that they just made it as the Penguins bounced back from a 3-1 deficit in the third, squared matters at 3-3 and for a few minutes were threatening to escape as the conquerors.

It wasn't a good hockey game as many of the players performed far below their capabilities. That goes for both teams. 'Puck hogging' was most noticeable and some of the 'super stars' indulged in this all night long. In fact a few have been doing this ever since this series got underway. They seem most reluctant to pass to a fellow teammate. It's beginning to look as though they want all the glory themselves.

The fans are wise to these fellows by now. Their rushes look lovely until they hit the enemy blueline and then everything stops because of their stubborn refusal to admit that anybody else has a right to carry that little disc.

It's no wonder that players gets disgusted when they are left waiting but no pass is forthcoming. There's no quicker way to break the spirit of any team than to have guys like this trying to steal the whole show.

Played Strong Games

WE thought that young Donnie Frizzell was a standout Thursday night. He had no chance on the goals that beat him and he stopped plenty of others that had the Royals shaking their heads in amazement. Frizzell is playing the best goal of his career and we rate him right now as the best goaltender in Dr. Clark's loop. We can get plenty of arguments on that score but our vote is for Donnie Frizzell at the moment.

On the Royals' lineup, Eustace Reeves is playing fine hockey. Reeves is dangerous on every attack and it was his persistence that got the Royals away on a winning note Thursday. Defensively Eustace is a tower of strength and invaders to Royals' territory surely respect him. And Reeves is doing his work with a surprisingly few minutes in the penalty box.

We particularly like the play of Donnie Arnold MacLeod who looks like one of the most improved hockey players in the league. 'Bucko' Trainor surely has found the key to this fellow who has been a standout in all three semi-final games to date. Another great digger is Summerside's Dave Gaudet who is willing to go into any corner with anybody.

There Are Many Others

JUST because we mentioned these few names doesn't mean we think the rest of the boys on both clubs are playing poor hockey. That's not the case but at the moment these boys we feel rate a special word of praise.

The Birds should benefit when Royals get a penalty but the way things are looking, it's better for the Old Spainers if they haven't got a manpower advantage. They have looked their worst when they should have been applying the heat to the Whitlock-coached gang. This is one problem coach Trainor is faced with, but undoubtedly 'Bucko' will find a solution to this problem.

Top Refereeing

IN our book, Don Whelan did a fine job of refereeing Thursday night. There never was any question about the game getting out of hand as Whelan sharpened his whistle right in the bud.

We've watched plenty of referees outside this province and we've talked with coaches and players who worked under mainland referees. Our opinion and their opinion agree that the Island officials are better than the mainlanders. We've been saying that for several years and we are more convinced than ever that we are richt.

It's easy to shoot off at the mouth, say cheap things from the stands and blame referees unjustly. Talk is cheap but we must face facts and ask ourselves where we can improve on what we've got.

Alberta Dumps Que. 11-8 To Capture Curling Crown

By PAUL RIMSTEAD

GUELPH, Ont. (CP)—In a match that had been touted as the highlight of the Canadian school boy curling championships, Alberta Friday night dumped Quebec 11-8 with ridiculous east to win the title.

Wayne Saboe's smoothies from Edmonton's Bonnie Doon Composite High School, curling strongly as a unit, showed little regard for John Hammond's hot streak as they swept to the title without a loss.

The Quebec team had been the Cinderella rink—one which won nine successive games before Friday night's round, a record show by a Quebec rink in national competition.

Hammond had been the backbone of his rink in the week-long round-robin competition, making comeback shots in tight spots with regularity.

However, he had one of his poorer nights Friday night and nobody else could take over.

SABOE A GIANT

Saboe, a slight, bespectacled fellow with a high - pitched voice, was a giant.

He continued in his cool and determined style, missing some shots along the way, but curling as well as he had to.

He jumped to a 4-0 lead in the first end, Hammond came back with one in the second, Saboe counted one in the third, Hammond two in the fourth—then the roof fell in.

Saboe took another big four—end in the fifth to take an unsurmountable 9-4 lead.

Hammond also made fine shots—but he missed more than usual. While he was sometimes fantastic in other games, he was only average Friday night.

The shots he missed hurt him. In the first end, with Saboe lying three, Hammond missed. Saboe drew to the four - foot ring. Hammond nudged one out and stayed, but Saboe counted four with a takeout on the last rock.

Alberta's big fifth started with them lying four in the back of the house. Hammond drew to the four-foot ring, lying shot, but Saboe took him out and went out himself. Hammond drew again, nudged one out and stayed shot, but Saboe won it with another good takeout.

RALLY MISSES

The Quebec rink, from the high school of Montreal, came back with singles in the seventh, eighth and a double in the 10th and final end.

There was little doubt throughout the week, after Alberta's stunning win over Saskatchewan Tuesday, that Saboe had the best rink in the competition.

However, things were going the right way for Hammond—he seemed unable to do anything wrong.

Alberta's worry Friday night was that perhaps Quebec—with everything to win and nothing to lose—would pick this one for its biggest upset.

Alberta coach Steve Kashuba, a mathematics teacher who is pretty adept at figuring the angles in curling too, worried soft ice would help Hammond's strong draw game.

His theory was that Hammond's front end couldn't takeout with Alberta's front end and that was the way to beat them.

The temperature was warm in Guelph Memorial Gardens Friday night, but if it helped Quebec's chances it didn't help enough.

The rinks were "piped in" during a colorful presentation ceremony after the game with Saboe, vice-skip Ron Hampton, second Rick Aldridge and lead Mick Adams being the centre of attention.

Hammond and his mates, vice-skip Dick Creese, second Don Aitkens and lead Ross Betts, stood quietly through the presentation of the Tosi Cola Trophy obviously very disappointed.

NOVA SCOTIA THIRD

Dirk Rafuse, a mature and likeable young fellow from F. R. Davis Memorial High School at Bridgewater, N.S., led his rink into third place with a 14-9 win over Prince Edward Island's Wayne Matheson from Charlottetown.

Rafuse finished with seven wins and three losses, a much better showing than had been expected.

In other action Friday night, New Brunswick sent Newfoundland home with another winless record with an 11-5 victory, British Columbia downed Northern Ontario 10-9 and Saskatchewan topped Ontario 10-3.

In the 10th round earlier Friday, Alberta crushed Newfoundland 16-5 and Quebec defeated Northern Ontario 10-7.

In other 10th round action, Manitoba edged Ontario 8-7, Saskatchewan squeezed by New Brunswick 7-6 and British Columbia defeated Prince Edward Island 8-6.

Combines Down Eagles 5-4 In Overtime Action

SUMMERSIDE — The Prince County Combines scored with 29 seconds left in regular play to pull into a 4- all tie, and then fired the winning tally at 6.35 of the ten minute overtime session to defeat the Eagles 5-4 in the first game of the best- of-seven semi-final series at Civic Stadium last night.

The game was fast but had little of the hard bumping which featured the 8-2 defeat of the Eagles which was declared no contest. Eight penalties were handed out by referee Don Whelan, the Combines getting five.

The RCAF boys opened the scoring at 2.40 of the first period when Doug Tucker's gristling left wing shot kicked in behind Mann. Ten minutes later Greg Deighan snapped home a high rebound off MacArthur's shot just as the puck hit the ice. This tied the score at one-all.

The second period was fast and hard fought with the Combines away ahead in shots on net, but managing only to split even again on tallies. Ev White fired home a pass after 16 minutes of play, and with 32 seconds left in the period Tucker shot his second goal of the night getting Bob McCallum's rebound to beat Mann from fairly close in.

Vance Harris's slap shot, partly screened zipped into the cage, giving the home boys a 3-2 lead, but five minutes later Hugh Spicer poked it over the goal line from the corner of the crease, and Leith Ellis scored from in front of the net at 15.27.

This looked like the margin of victory, but the Combines kept digging and were rewarded with only 29 seconds left in the period, Ron MacArthur banging in a long counter from a wild scramble in front of Walsh.

The winning tally was the prettiest goal of the night. Vance Harris went in on the left side, deked Walsh, then flipped the puck over to brother Garth who fired it onto the open left side. The Eagles fought hard for the next 3½ minutes, but the Combines held them off, keeping the puck in the Eagles' zone a good part of the time.

Joe Coyle and LeRoy Burnett were linesmen.
