On Display In Charlottetown Wednesday, June 2

Pioneering one of the most novel methods of merchandising business machines ever attempted, R. C. Allen Business Machines, Inc., of Grand Rapids, Mich., U. S. A., has introduced the Salesmobile, which is now touring Canada and will be on display in Charlottetown on June 2, 1954.

H. M. Simpson Ltd., of Charlottetown, P. E. I., local dealer for R. C. Allen products, will be host to the Salesmobile for one day.

The "Salesmobile" is a specially fitted bus bringing R. C. Allen Business Machines directly to the customer, to supplement the traditional "briefcase" selling of the industry.

The bus contains counters on both sides of the front portion displaying the entire line of R. C. Allen Adding Machines, Bookkeeping Machines, Cash Registers and Typewriters. The rear of the bus has been converted into a comfortable lounge, providing visitors a pleasant atmosphere in which to conduct business.

The R. C. Allen Salesmobile will be at H. M. Simpson Ltd., 160 Richmond St., and representatives of the manufacturer and of the local dealer will be on hand to welcome visitors interested in seeing the latest in office machines and in progressive merchandising.
