L. was held on September 14th with an attendance of 28 members and two visitors. The meeting opened with the League prayer by the Reverend Director, Father McCormac. The president occupied the chair. The minutes of the last meeting were read and adopted as read, and the treasurer gave her report. The different conveners gave reports of their work. A thank-you note was read for a gift of remembrance from a League member, also a letter from Miss Arsenault and the Mother Superior of Notre Dame. The president, Mrs. Patrick Clarkin, gave a very wonderful report of the Diocesan Convention, taking each session in turn and giving a very interesting and detailed report on each. Rev. Father McCormac congratulated Mrs. Clarkin on her report, and gave a very interesting talk. It was moved and seconded that $10.00 be paid to the Catechism students who are on the Diocesan honour roll. Some discussion took place arranging for the annual chicken supper, and each member was to bring an article for the bazaar. It was decided that the Reverend Director would be remembered by a gift of money from the League members as a small token of gratitude for all he has done, not only as a director, but as a leader, and a spiritual advisor. It was also decided that a member who is leaving the Sub-Division would be remembered. The meeting was then adjourned, followed by Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament by Father McCormac. KENSINGTON LADIES' AID -The Kensington Ladies' Aid of the Prince County Hospital were guests for their September meeting on Monday night, September 29th of the matron and night supervisor of the Prince County Hospital. On arrival the members were shown through the hospital and many favorable comments were heard during the tour. A special interest was taken in the room furnished by this group and at the meeting which followed it was decided to purchase some extra articles for the comfort and pleasure of patients occupying this room. Mrs. P. J. Kennedy presided and the secretary, Mrs. (Dr.) R. W. Auld read the minutes of the last meeting. The treasurer, Mrs.

Ervin Champlon, gave the financial statement. Considering the expenditure on accessories for the room in the hospital it was decided to hold a pantry sale in the near future and arrangements were made for it. Twenty-two members paid their fees, two dime cards were turned in, and collection was taken which added considerably to the funds. Mrs. Fred Davison invited the members to her home for the next meeting. After the business meeting adjourned a social hour with the hostesses was enjoyed. Dainty refreshments were served by Miss Schurman and Miss Adams with Mrs. Heath Strong, president of the Summerside Ladies' Aid, pouring tea. The members saying good bye were unanimous in stating they had enjoyed the evening, and what might have been a drab meeting proved to be a pleasant and profitable evening. K. KENSINGTON HOME AND SCHOOL -The first meeting of the Kensington Home and School Association for the current school year was held on Thursday night, September 25th with a good attendance. The president, Mrs. George Brookins, was in the chair and the meeting opened with reading of the Creed in unison. Minutes of the last meeting were read by the secretary, Mrs. Thomas Turner, and duly approved. The treasurer's report showed the society in good financial standing. A letter was read from "Save the Children Fun" informing the group that a contribution was now due to continue the adoption of the little Italian girl by Kensington Home and School last year. A motion to send the required donation was unanimously passed and members expressed their approval of this act of brotherly love as a cure for the ills of the world. An invitation was received from Mrs. (Dr.) R. W. Auld for parents and those interested in Girl Guides to attend a meeting at her home in October when Miss Shirley Campbell of Toronto, Girl Guide leader and instructor, would address the meeting. A report was received from Mrs. Badger, music teacher, of a meeting of the South Shore Festival Executive which she attended. Discussion followed and it was decided to give a donation to the Festival, the details to be decided by the executive after contacting the South Shore Association; The Ways and Means Committee convener, Mrs. Gordon Cooke, made some suggestions for raising funds which were well received. A nomination committee was appointed as follows: Mrs. Ralph McMillan, Mrs. Bruce McLeod and Mrs. Ingham Jardine. Discussion on the prospect of having a regional high school in Kensington was introduced by a member who had recently visited
