

THE DAILY EXAMINER
JANUARY 22, 1883.

Editorial Notes.

Boston is looking forward to a "world's fair," to be held next summer. It is proposed to have an exhibition of foreign art, products, and manufactures.

The Manitoba elections will be held to-morrow. It is reported that Hon. Mr. Norquay, the Premier, and Hon. Mr. Brown, Commissioner of Public Works, were elected by acclamation.

It is announced that the next regular session of the Supreme Court commences on Tuesday, the 20th of February next. Appeals for hearing at this session must be filed on or before the 30th instant. The last day for depositing factums is the 3rd of February, and the last day for subscribing appeals for hearing the 5th of February. This news will doubtless interest certain appellants here.

It is not necessary that the editor of the Patriot should write elaborate articles on the question, "Should our people go to the Northwest?" He has been there himself; and he has come back to P. E. Island to settle down to newspaper work. This act of his speaks louder than his loudest words, more forcibly than the most highly wrought of his labored editorial articles, and says: "Our people should not go to the Northwest." This act renders his articles superfluous.

The lately elected Mayor of Toronto is evidently a man of the right stamp. It seems there is some doubt that he really received a majority of votes. He has therefore voluntarily arranged to have another examination of the ballots; and should it be found that there is good reason to believe that they have been tampered with, he will decline to be sworn in. He will not hold the position of Mayor of Toronto by virtue of even a suspected blunder or crime.

The Toronto Mail published the following statistics of expenditure by the Grit Government in colonization, and says that the fact that details are not forthcoming is suspicious:

Table with 2 columns: Year, Expenditure. Rows include 1872, 1873, 1874, 1875, 1876, 1877, 1878, 1879, 1880, 1881, 1882, 1883.

The "standard bearers" of Ontario should certainly explain why it is that the expenditures were so much higher election years than in other years. Surely they have not been using public money to corrupt the electorate.

The good-natured poking of THE EXAMINER and the wise admonitions of the Presbyterian have alike been lost on the editor of the Patriot. He is still dreaming. He took an active part in the election of May last, and appeared to realize at the time that both he and his party were beaten. Subsequently, he appeared in court (as a backer of one of his brothers) with a petition against the return of Mr. McKay; but after some loud talk the petition was withdrawn, although Mr. McKay had previously offered to open the constituency.

Now the ex-Governor says that the May election resulted in a tie. This is akin to the statement of his valedictory that Nova Scotia had, in the June elections, decided against the Government of Sir John McDonald. Perhaps the unfortunate compositor will have to do duty once more as a scapegoat, and atone for the mistakes of the drowsy editor! According to the Patriot, Dr. Robertson must also be a confirmed somnambulist. After the Dominion election he wrote a long letter to the Lieut. Governor, declaring that he was not a member of the Local House. When the writs were issued for the Fourth District of King's he took an active part in the election of his successor. It would seem by the Patriot that Dr. Robertson is now under the impression that he is still a member for Murray Harbor. It is to be feared that Governor Laird is not the only one who has partaken of "curious liquors."

In order to avoid the abuse of the freedom of the Suez Canal, the British Government propose, in the Note lately issued, that in time of war a limitation shall be placed on the time during which vessels of belligerent powers are permitted to remain in the canal, and no troops or munitions of war shall be disembarked and no hostilities be permitted in the canal or approaches or anywhere in the territorial waters of Egypt, even in the event of Turkey being of the belligerents. The recurrence of an emergency resembling the late rebellion is to be provided for by a clause excepting measures for the defence of Egypt from the above restrictions. It is also proposed that each Power shall be bound to bear the cost of the immediate repair of any damage its vessels cause in the canal and that Egypt shall take all the measures in her power to enforce the conditions imposed upon the ships of belligerent powers using the canal. No fortifications are to be erected on the canal or its vicinity. Nothing in the agreement shall be construed to curtail the territorial rights of Egypt, further than is expressly stipulated. The Note declares that the question of the suppression of slavery and the slave trade is one which the British Government has much at heart, and it will miss no opportunity of advising the Khedive to make steps to attain that end.

Local and Other Items.

L. B. ARCHIBALD, Esq., arrived home on Saturday night.

No business at the Stipendiary Magistrate's Court this forenoon.

MESRS. A. A. BALDWIN & Co., have adopted the six o'clock closing system.

REMEMBER the big meeting, on Communication with the Mainland, this evening.

The railway was opened by special trains last night, and regular trains are therefore on time to-day.

The carnival at Summerside promises to be a grand affair. A large number of skaters left this city by the afternoon train to take part.

I HAVE used St. Jacobs Oil, and esteem it the best remedy for rheumatism I have ever known, says Mr. C. N. Manchester, Cutler St., Springfield, Mass.

THE St. Vincent de Paul Society are to give an entertainment, in aid of the poor, in St. Patrick's Hall, on Wednesday evening, the 31st instant.

A STRONG friend of St. Jacobs Oil, is H. T. Duncan, Esq., of the Lexington, Ky. Press. He says: "A short time since St. Jacobs Oil was prescribed in my own family by a regular physician, and it was used with the most satisfactory results, as usual."

THE REV. EDWARD OSBORNE, missionary, crossed the Straits on Saturday, and preached here late on Saturday night, and preached two impressive sermons in St. Peter's Church yesterday. The first was from the text "Prepare to meet thy God;" the second "Ho! all ye that thirst," etc. He also held a service for children.

A FIREMAN of the old Colony Railroad, Mr. George S. Morey, Cohasset, Mass., was cured of a most torturing case of rheumatism, from which he suffered more or less for fifteen years, by the use of St. Jacobs Oil. Two bottles restored him to perfect activity.

Forty electric lights in a Chicago store suddenly ceased to burn the other night, and a rat was found under the dynamo, one leg was raised as if to take another step. The rat was dead and rooted to the spot. He had leaped it on one of the copper conductors underneath the brush, and in stepping on another closed the circuit so that the entire current from forty-eight machines passed through his body.

A HARDENED CRIMINAL—The prisoner Munn who is now incarcerated in the L'Original jail, Ont., charged with the murder of the Blake family, still refuses to see a clergyman of any denomination, and maintains the stolid indifference which has characterized his conduct from the first. The following incident will serve to illustrate how little the crime has interfered with his appetite—Sheriff Merrick observed yesterday that Munn did not wear his accustomed smile and asked if anything had gone wrong. Munn, smartly replied: "They don't give me half enough to eat; I'm almost starved." The Sheriff states that he gets the full prison allowance, which most people consider too good for the blood-thirsty luda wretch. In view of the threat not to lynch the murderer, the Inspector of Jails has telegraphed the Sheriff to take every precaution to prevent the ends of consequently placed another guard in the corridors. Randall, who was arrested with Munn, is still detained at the instigation of the County Attorney, who is in communication with the Attorney-General. He is an important witness, and being without money or friends, in the district, it is feared if he is liberated L'Original will see him no more. It is hardly probable that he could get bail.

Personal—Gossip.

Hon. Adam Crooks was, a few days ago, attacked by apoplexy. He is now better.

The World's London cable letter says:—The new Archbishop of Canterbury, Dr. Benson, will be formally enthroned at Canterbury on the 3rd of April.

The Lieutenant Governor of the Northwest Territories is now in Ottawa, to confer with the Government respecting the administration of Indian affairs and general territorial legislation.

According to the last arrangement, Princess Louise was to have sailed yesterday from Charleston, S. C., for Bermuda. The Governor-General is expected at Ottawa about the 31st.

Bismarck gets only $14,000 a year for services which even his bitterest enemies will admit are to Germany priceless. The Secretary of State in Germany gets only $12,500. Bismarck's confidential secretary is content with $1,500.

The feeling of terror created throughout the Ottawa valley by the Cook murder is something extraordinary. Several persons are prostrated by nervousness, and two of these are not expected to survive. One little girl has already died of fright caused by the appearance at the door of her uncle's house of a man carrying an axe.

Postmaster Pearson, of New York, has made public his annual report. From the report it appears that 253,523,628 pieces of mail matter were delivered during last year; in the registered letter department 1,093,195 letters were delivered, and 965,175 of domestic and 376,010 of foreign origin received and distributed in other offices; in the distribution department a total of 541,615,572 pieces were handled and divided. The total number of pieces of mail matter of all kinds handled during the year was 797,481,309, a daily average of 240,000.

A resident of Cuba, New York, named John T. Steward, overtook Tanner in his fasting peculiarities. There is considerable distinction between the two, inasmuch as Tanner's efforts have been purely voluntary, while Steward's are enforced; he cannot avoid it. At intervals of one or two years his stomach becomes paralyzed, and the sight of food then makes him sick. Steward fasted fifty-four days in 1880. Dr. Tanner, who was lecturing in Cuba, visited him, and did what he could for him through mesmerism. During that fast Steward became as one nearly dead, losing almost entirely his power of speech, seeing, hearing, and smelling. In his last fast he did not fare so badly, but was entirely helpless. He ended his last fast of 34 days on Jan. 8th, and commenced to eat by starting on a common ginger cookie. He then commenced to recover and eat, and is now able to walk about.

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

[SPECIAL DESPATCHES TO THE EXAMINER.]

The Bonapartist Expulsion.

PARIS, Jan. 22. The Bonapartist Deputies have issued a protest demanding an appeal to the people. The Chamber of Deputies has voted upon the Urgency Bill empowering the Government to expel the members of the foreign reigning houses and removing the Orleans Princes from the army.

Trial of Conspirators.

DUBLIN, Jan. 22. At the trials on Saturday, Farrell, the informer, stated that Brady, who killed Casey, was a conspirator for the assassination of Forster; but the plan of assassination accidentally miscarried. Kavanagh, another informer, admitted that he drove the car which was hired by the assassins of Lord Cavendish and Under-Secretary Burke.

Four or Five Hundred People Nearly Drowned.

LONDON, Jan. 22. The steamer "Cimbis" was on Friday sunk by colliding with another steamer in the German Ocean. Four or five hundred passengers, and one hundred of the crew escaped from the steamer in boats. Thirty-six of them landed at Cuxhaven. Steamers are now searching for the others.

Prince of Wales to Visit Canada.

LONDON, Jan. 22. It is reported that His Royal Highness, the Prince of Wales, will visit Canada in March.

Weather Bulletin.

Probabilities for the next 24 hours for the Maritime Provinces. TORONTO, Jan. 22—10 a. m. Westerly gales, fine, decidedly colder weather.

CURRENT NOTES.

The Czar has signed a decree abolishing all secret societies in Russia.

The Episcopal prayer book has been translated into no less than sixty languages. Over 1,000,000 copies are printed every year.

The infant city of Brandon has an indebtedness of over $77,000, of which $45,000 are notes discounted by the local banks at ten per cent. discount.

Ireland's crop returns for 1882 show an alarming falling off as compared with those for previous years, the principal item being the terrible failure of the potato crop.

A private despatch from Hon. Mr. Chapleau states that his health is very much improved, and that he will probably return to the Capital before the middle of February.

The editors of two London (Eng.) journals have been proceeded against for contempt of court in publishing correspondence in connection with a libel suit before the action was tried.

Austria is earnestly preparing for the struggle which appears inevitable in the near future. Under the recent reorganization her artillery arm has been greatly strengthened, and the army raised to an effective strength of a million and a quarter men.

Let us hope that the city of Quebec has seen the last of its municipal deficits, which for many years ranged from $20,000 to $50,000. Last year the Council managed to make both ends meet and to show a small surplus. On this improvement the city is to be congratulated; and we may express the hope that the new order of things may prove permanent.

The milk business, with its concomitant industries, is assuming enormous dimensions in France. In 1882 France imported 2,640,000 pounds of butter, and exported 2,420,000 pounds, while in 1881 she exported 74,800,000 pounds, for which she received in the neighborhood of $20,000,000. The department of Le Manche alone exports nearly one-third of the vast quantity mentioned.

Speaking of the vast pecuniary benefit to new communities from the construction of railways, an old resident of the west in a recent conversation stated that he knew instances where the increase in value of one wheat crop of the township had more than paid for the total pecuniary aid—which was considered a very liberal amount—voted by that locality to secure the road. This left out of account the enormous increase to the value of the land.

Immense deposits of tin have been found in Tasmania. The mineral is found at moderate depths, and the supply is said to be inexhaustible. Iron is also found in the gravel of the river beds, and underneath veins of gold bearing quartz. The geological formation of Tasmania bears a close resemblance to that of the gold-producing regions of California. The undeveloped mineral wealth of the island is said to be great. Besides tin and gold it contains iron, copper, silver, lead, and lime.

It is almost impossible to rent a grand English country house for more than $5,000 a year, and the owner who gets that sum is thought exceptionally lucky. It is said Sir Robert Peel would gladly let Drayton Manor to anyone who would keep it in repair. A poor Kentish Baronet who lets his shooting to the Attorney General hit upon a clever plan to keep the pot boiling. He took in a parlor boarder at $10,000 a year, answering her advertisement which rigidly insisted that "no boarding-house keepers need apply," and that the establishment must be existing, and not formed for her. She had her own apartments both in town and country house, brought a footman and maid, and the arrangement, which lasted several years, indeed until her death, proved perfectly satisfactory to both parties. To visit as she appeared as an intimate friend staying in the house. The Baronet got cash, the lady a luxurious home.
