
INDONESIAN MOTOR VESSEL AGROUND

The Indonesian motor ship, the H.O.S. Tjokroaminoto, lies fast aground on part of nier jutting out into water at Hook of Holland, near Rotterdam Wednesday. The skipper of the 7,332-ton vessel did not pick up a pilot and attempted to bring the ship into the mouth of the estuary, with which he was not familiar, in darkness early Wednesday, and the accident resulted. An attempt to free the vessel is scheduled to be made at high tide later. (AP Wirephoto via cable from Rotterdam).

Former RCAF Pilot Flew Many Anti-Castro Missions

SAULT STE. MARIE, Ont. (CP)—A former RCAF pilot says he worked for an anti-Castro group in 1960 and 1961, flying missions into and out of Cuba.

Toronto-born John Glynn, 28, recovering in hospital here from a diabetic attack, said he joined the group in 1959 after answering an advertisement in a Chicago newspaper. A month and a half later he was sent to Miami.

During early 1960, Glynn said in an interview, he made two or three trips a week from Miami into Cuba to pick up passengers. He also flew equipment to the island, but never knew what he was carrying.

"I used a four-passenger float plane for most of my trips since you could put it down on any of the thousands of bays and lakes in Cuba," he said.

"I didn't really know what I was taking into the country, nor did I know who I was taking out. I would be given a rendezvous point and it was my job to get there, and back too, if possible."

Glynn, who had previously worked as a DEW (District Early Warning) line pilot, said that during 1960-61 he was picked up three times by United States immigration authorities and handed a first class plane ticket to Montreal. Each time he landed in Montreal he simply caught the next plane back to Miami.

Stories circulating in Miami about the treatment of prisoners in Havana kept him in constant fear of being caught.

Glynn said he left the group shortly before the abortive Bay of Pigs invasion in April, 1961, because of a worsening diabetic and tuberculosis condition. He has been unable to fly since and has been living with his parents in Orillia.

Glynn suffered a diabetic attack a week ago while passing through here. He expects to be in hospital for at least another week.

Savings Bond Sales Trailing Record Pace

OTTAWA (CP) — Sales of this year's Canada Savings Bond issue are trailing last year's record-setting pace, but officials expressed confidence Wednesday that, on balance, a large slice of new savings will be invested in the 1963 issue.

A finance dep rtment report said total sales up to Nov. 15 had topped $800,000,000 to 1,116,711 buyers. This includes 634,301 purchases through the payroll savings plan totalling $219,000,000.

There is no strictly comparable figure from last year's sales campaign. Last year, total sales had reached $1,350,000,000 up to Nov. 17. But that included a large number of sales reports received here in the two days after Nov. 15 — the last day on which bonds could be purchased without payment of accured interest.

Another factor operated last year in boosting tot l sales—a record high interest return of 5.11 per cent which prom t l many Canadians to sell off older savings bonds to buy new ones. Total sales of the 1962 issue were $1,709 000,000. But in main sales period in Octob r-November, net sales after deducting redemptions of older bonds tob lled $819,000,000.

This year's issue offers an interest return of 5.03 per cent if the bonds are held to maturity, and officials said the amount of roll-over — switching from old bonds to new — is much less than last year.

U.K. POPULATION

The United Kingdom's population as of the 1961 census stands at 52,673,221, excluding the Isle of Man and the Channel Islands.
