MR. AND MRS. HERMANN SEWUSTER AND ATTENDANTS

First Wedding Is Held In St. Pius X. Church

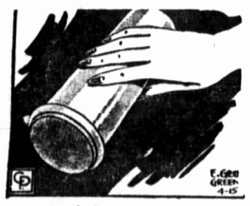
The marriage of Alisa Maria de Brower, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Johannis de Brower to Hermann Sewuster, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henrici Sewuster, all of Goirle, Netherlands, took place in St. Pius X Church, Parkdale, on April 23, 1957. The matron of honour was Mrs. Marinus Van Bysterveldt, a sister of the bride, and Mr. Van Bysterveldt was groomsman.

The officiating clergyman was Very Rev. Monsignor R. V. MacKenzie, pastor of St. Pius X Church and the marriage marked the first occasion of such a ceremony in the recently formed parish.

Following a reception in the basement hall of the church, the wedding party and 33 guests went to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Van Bysterveldt at Bedford where the C.W.L. under their president, Mrs. Percy MacDonald served a delightful turkey dinner. Assisting in serving were Mrs. Percy MacDonald, Mrs. John Beaton, Mrs. Joseph McEachern, Mrs. Joseph Dowling, Mrs. Reg McCarville and Miss Beverley Gaudet.

The toast to the bride was given by Monsignor MacKenzie and responded to by the groom. Col. F. I. Andrew and Mrs. Andrew were special guests, both the bride and groom being employed on the farm of Col. Andrew.

WIFE PRESERVERS



A new clothes sprinkler made of polyethylene plastic holds 16 ounces of water, more than the conventional sprinklers. Gently shaking the sprinkler like a salt cellar provides a steady spray, and the sprinkler is light in weight, even when full.

Is Dark-Skinned Beauty Specialist

By SYLVIA HACK
Canadian Press Staff Writer

LONDON (CP)—Something new in beauty salons has been opened in London. It's designed for dark-skinned girls who find it hard to get the right shades of cosmetics and proper hair care.

The establishment is in Brixton, the South London area which has attracted many of the recent immigrants from the West Indies. therefore, the clientele is ready-made.

Among other things, the establishment will provide a new "anti-kink" permanent guaranteed to take the curl out of the frizziest hair.

WEST INDIAN

The salon is the property of jazz pianist Winifred Atwell, who comes from Tunapuna, Trinidad and herself has the kind of complexion that will be catered for. "So I know the problems first hand," she said.

The decor is contemporary style in red, dove grey and lemon. There's an interior rock garden and a television set to while away the time. The hair-driers are in a semi circular nook screened off by bamboo poles. The three graces, portrayed as nude, dusky maidens, smile down on the clients as their hair is drying. Foam baths and massage can be had in marble baths.

Isabelle Lucas, honey - skinned Toronto singer who played in the hit-musical The Jazz Train, thinks London badly needed a salon of this type. "I have a heck of a time trying to find the right cosmetic shades," she said.

Miss Atwell, attractively plump and gentle-mannered, is one of Britain's most popular jazz pianists. She has a world-wide fan club of 12,000 members and has sold more than 8,000,000 records in five years..

The day she opened her salon she received a box of candy from a fan in Montreal. "All the pieces were shaped like maple leaves," she said. "I was so delighted to have it—it came as a present after I'd sent for some sheet music that couldn't be got easily in Canada."

SPRINGFIELD W. I.

The regular meeting of Springfield W. I. met at the home of Mrs. Norris Sinclair for the April meeting. The president presided and opened the meeting with the singing of Billy Boy. There were 13 members and 1 visitor present.

The roll call was answered with a decorated Easter egg the prize being won by Mrs. Reg Haslam. The minutes of last meeting were read and approved. Bills were presented and on motion ordered to be paid.

It was moved and seconded that Mrs. Crawford Sinclair be on the Executive Committee in place of Mrs. John Hickox.. It was moved and seconded that the executive be empowered to invite the District Convention to be entertained by Springfield in 1958.

The Red Cross committee reported work received and more yarn for knitting be given to the members. Correspondence was read and discussed. It was moved and seconded that $2.00 be sent in for Easter seals. Carried.

It was moved and seconded that $5.00 be donated to the Girls Sewing Club. Carried. Some discussion followed on the Exchange Program and each member volunteered to prepare a part.

There being no further business Mrs. Andrew Hughes convener of the program on Home Enconomics took charge and presented a very interesting program. Mrs. Crawford Sinclair read a paper on Home Enconomics. This was followed by a demonstration on proper table setting by the convener. A flower contest was won by Mrs. Sutherland MacKay.

At this point an address was read to Mrs. Samuel Gillespie and she was presented with a gift from the Institute in recognition of her splendid work as leader of the Girls 4-H Sewing Club. Mrs. Gillespie and her family leave shortly for Alberta, where they will make their future home.

Next meeting will be held in the hall and will take the form of a Pot Luck Supper to which the husbands are invited. Lunch was served by the hostess and committee in charge after which the meeting closed with the singing of the Quilting Party.

KINGSBORO W. I.

The regular monthly meeting of the Kingsboro Women's Institute met at the home of Mrs. Arnett Robertson on April 2nd with an attendance of fourteen members and three visitors.

In absence of the president the vice president, Mrs. Robert Robertson opened the meeting with the Institute Creed followed by roll call answered by waist measurement which increased the funds by $4. 89. Two new members were welcomed.

Minutes of last meeting were read and approved. Reports of Committees were then given. Secretary gave report of Souris Hospital Collection. Amount for Kingsboro district $246.65, Kingsboro Women's Institute $20.00 a total of $266.65.

New committees for April is. School—plans were made to scrub and clean school. Mrs. Wesley Bruce, Mrs. Ken MacGregor, Mrs. Bernard Massey and Mrs. Lowell Ching volonteer to go. Lunch—Mrs. John, Mrs. William and Mrs. Fred Robertson. Sick—Mrs. Wesley Bruce, Mrs. Staffer Borteen and Mrs. Arnett Robertson. Program—Mrs. Peter Stewart and Mrs. Colleen MacLean.

Roll call—get well or sympathy card or pay 10 cents. Meeting invited by Mrs. Arnett Robertson. Correspondence were then read and discussed. Plans were made to pack a box of used clothing at next meeting.

A box of Red Cross knitting and sewing were passed around also bundle of remnants from Eaton's and Simpson's. Collection for the evening amounted to one dollar seventy cents. Guessing game put on by Mrs. Bernard Massey won by Mrs. Wm. Robertson increased the fund by $2.25.

A contest of scrambled words by Mrs. Staffer Borteen was enjoyed by all. Meeting closed with the Queen, followed by lunch served by hostess and Ladies.

PARKDALE W. I.

Nineteen members assembled in the hall for the April meeting of the Parkdale W. I. The topic was "Thrift in Housekeeping" Meeting opened by singing the "Ode" followed by the "Collect" Roll call was answered with a hint for thrift.

The minutes were read and approved and the treasurer's report showed a substantial balance in the funds. The school committee told of two trombones being needed for the Rhythm Band. The sick committee had sent flowers to a member in hopital, eight Get Well, one baby, and three sympathy cards.

Reports were heard from the Guides and Brownies. Mrs. Blakeney a Brownie Leader had received her warrent. The convener of the Hall committee told of the Handicraft Van visiting the Hall and an Achievement Day being held, when some lovely work was shown. The instructors were presented with gifts and refreshments were served by the committee in charge.

A successful leadership course was held and the appreciation of all goes out to the Provincial W. I. for the splendid leadership given. Easter seals were brought for the crippled Children's Fund, and a group of members catered for the Ayrshire Breeders dinner at Birch Court. Lnuch committee for May is the following, Mrs. K. Moore, Mrs. H. MacInnis, Mrs. B. Compton, Mrs. L. Brown. Owing to the Music Festival our next meeting will be held on May 8th. Meeting closed with the National Anthem.

ELLEN'S DIARY

To-day The Robins Sang And Everyone Was Happy

"This is the best day yet" one of the family said this morning.

"Hush!" we chuckled, "remember what the rhymester wrote:

"The sun was warm but the wind was chill,
You know how it is with an April day,
When the sun is out and the wind is still
You're one month on in the middle of May!
But if you so much as dare to speak,
A cloud comes over the sunlit arch,
A wind comes off a frozen peak
You're two months back in the middle of March!"

Nevertheless, Time proved, as in its passing it proves much, that this was "the best day yet" of the Spring.

"We don't mind walking to school these mornings", Granddaughter smiled happily when the two set out along a shortcut of orchard road-ward "not when robins sing for us on the way."

Robins trilled for us this evening, after the sun had left Island farms in shadow to light strange distant scenes. So dark then the evergreens on the hilltop were limned against the afterglow, above the dimming snow-patched fields, it seemed that the countryside was not of earth but of velvet in a beautiful tapestry, the colors faultlessly blended, the lighter and ark.

And presently. . . It is good for one to watch, to put for a time every duty and care aside and behold the miracle of twilight as it comes in on a gentle flow: filling the low of the valley with shadow, dimming the distant hilltops and filling all between with its purpling magic and peace. Then the evening star glows, southward like a great jewel on a lady's moired gown both silver and blue. And quickly, lest their flames be tardy, other stars — constellations pattern the heavens of Night. These keep lovely watch and ward now over the fields and the woodlands.

Today with its sunshine and loveliness was one, it came to mind, to encourage back to usual good health, those presently miserable and laid aside from the joys of their daily round. Good days, pain-free, happy, there yet should be — that was its promise. For those who had suffered recent bereavement and mourn sadly the loss of a loved one, the very loveliness would bring them solace . . . proof of after Winter. Spring, the thought that withal the sorrow, not every happiness has been taken, that smiles stilled in sadness now, will break again. And in compensation for loss, much content still remains.

Content is so many things. It is literally "Having the desires limited to that which one has"; it is pearly dawns and rosy ducks and a work to do . . . and a perfect April day and the sweet of rest at its close.

Until tomorrow — — — Diary — Goodnight. . . . .

HAPPENINGS

Mr. Alan Jarvis, director of the National Gallery, captivated his audience Tuesday evening at the Canadian Club dinner held at The Charlottetown. A summary of Mr. Jarvis's career was given shortly before his arrival in this province.

It is interesting, however, to recall his 1955 activities. An abridged account runs like this: April, 1955. Returned from Britain where he had lived for 15 years. May: Took over as director of the National Gallery. June: Bought a house in Rockcliffe Park in suburban Ottawa. July: Got married. September: Began a series of speaking enagements that has taken him from the Atlantic to the Pacific.

A photograph of Alan Jarvis, as the family man, taken at that time presents a charming picture indeed. Mrs. Jarvis is tall; fair and very attractive — a most joyous smile. There are three children by her first marriage. The oldest is a lovely looking young teen ager with her arm resting on that of Mother's.

Then there is an adolescent age boy who looks just what a real boy should look like at that age. The hair is ginger (a few strands not quite in place). The shirt is of course red check and the jeans are blue. The youngest, around nine, is seated by her father. With her horn-rimmed glasses she looks quite sweet and serious enough to be considering the affairs of the National Art Gallery.

Then there is the director himself. All in all Mr. Alan Jarvis seems, both in private and public life, to be a most fortunate Canadian.

Mrs. Harry Cudmore is in Halifax, for a week with a group of people from this province. Mrs. Cudmore is an instructor in the Water Safety Instructors' course given at the .Y.M.C.A. pool in Halifax.

Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Bell and Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Gass are attending many parties prior to their departure on a holiday trip to Great Britain and the Continent.

Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Rogers, Brighton Road, entertained at their residence this week at a supper party in honor of Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Bell and Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Gass.

Mrs. G. F. Moore was entertaining at luncheon Wednesday at The Charlottetown for Mrs. R. R. Bell and Mrs. D. M. Gass.

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Rogers, Goodwill Avenue, are entertaining this Thurssday evening at a Bon Voyage party for the Bells and Gasses.

Mrs. E. K. MacNutt entertained at luncheon Wednesday at the Charlottetown Hotel in honor of Mrs. Oscar MacCallum and Miss Elsie Nicholson. The latter are leaving for a trip abroad within the near future.

Mrs. J. P. Lantz is in Montreal visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Brodie.

Mr. R. M. Nicholson, Charlottetown, returned yesterday afternoon by plane, after spending Easter with friends in St. George, and Moncton, New Brunswick.

P. R. O. For Royal Family Enjoys Theatre And Books

By SYLVIA HACK
Canadian Press Staff Writer

LONDON (CP)—Anthea Fairfax Ross, a tall, 27-year-old brunette, has just stepped into one of the toughest of all British public relations jobs — answering questions about the Royal Family.

The blue-eyed British girl succeeds Diana Lyttelton, long-time assistant to the chief press officer at Buckingham Palace, Cmdr. Richard Colville. Miss Lyttelton, sister of jazz bandleader Humphrey Lyttelton, quit the job for matrimonial reasons.

Every week day at 10 a.m., Miss Fairfax-Ross walks through the main gates of the palace to her ground-floor office in the right-wing block. She says she "thoroughly enjoys" her new post, which she has held for less than a month.

TOURED CANADA

Asked about herself, Miss Fairfax-Ross says: "We regard ourselves as servants of the Queen who have the honor of working at the palace, and it's not right to talk about oneself."

The thing that has impressed her most so far is the amount of work the Queen and the Duke of Edinburgh get through.

Last January Miss Fairfax-Ross did a Canadian coast-to-coast tour with her father to visit her brother John, who emigrated to Montreal five years ago. He now lives in New York.

Miss Fairfax-Ross says she liked Montreal best of the cities she saw. "I think the French-speaking population give a gay continental flavor to the place."

LITERARY EXPERIENCE

Before hew new appointment Miss Fairfax-Ross worked on the editorial staff of The Times and for a literary agency, reading and selling manuscripts for television and magazines.

She shares a flat in the West End with a friend and at weekends goes to her family home in Cuckfield, Sussex.

"I'm not at all the athletic type," she says. "Theatres and books are my two hobbies, or driving in my new blue car which was given to me recently by my grandfather."

Her father is a member of the London Stock Exchange.

Average age at marriage in Canada is just under 27 for bachelors, just under 24 years for spinsters.

CHARMING

Miss Carol Willoughby is shown modelling at the Parade of Spring Fashions. What could be smarter than the navy sheath dress with the new "bloused on" back. The dress is trimmed with dainty nylon pleated collar and cuffs. Smart accessories complete this charming smart outfit.

CONFIDENTIALLY YOURS
—by Byrne Hope Sanders

MONTREAL, April 25th — Breakfast in bed! There's a pleasure, isn't it? 'Specially with a piping hot cup of INSTANT CHASE & SANBORN COFFEE to enjoy. I think every mother should have her breakfast in bed on Sundays — d'you agree? And don't worry about the work — for Instant Chase & Sanborn takes only a split second to prepare. Back of this full-bodied 100% real coffee lies nearly 100 years of Chase & Sanborn coffee experience. Just look through the window in the jar and see the rich coffee color that means real coffee flavor. Yes, you can see that this is really wonderful coffee! Then taste it — and enjoy it every day.

FRIENDS ASK: "HOW'S SIR ISAAC?" in much the same way they enquire for any member of the family . . . for our beautiful budgie has become such a saucy, lovable character. He's mad about his BROCK'S BUDGIE TREAT which is a balanced mixture of 8 favorite seeds and is one of the 5 Basic Brock Products. Always in tip-top condition, Sir Isaac is a constant delight!

WE OWN THE DEAREST DOG! I hope you do, too...for there's nothing more endearing than a healthy, sweet-dispositioned dog. To keep him in top condition, feed him DR. BALLARD'S CHAMPION DOG FOOD. I have had complete confidence in Champion Dog Food ever since I learned that Dr. Ballard, as a famous Veterinarian long specialized in pet foods, and created a perfectly balanced diet for all dogs. You can vary your dog's diet with Chicken, Liver or Regular flavors — and he'll thrive through the long summer months that lie ahead. A well-cared-for dog is an unending pleasure. Let Dr. Ballard help you keep yours well!

LOVELY TO LOOK AT — a delight to the taste! I'm describing the ten sun-ripened fruit flavors of LUSHUS JELLIES. There's a world of difference in the fresh-fruit taste of these delicious jellies . . . each one a pleasure to serve. The makers of Lushus have greatly increased the flavor content of their exclusive flavor "bud"—so that now, as you dissolve the "bud" you bring the full fresh quality of the fruits to your jelly. You'll feel there's nothing like Lushus! I like to keep several moulds of Lushus always ready in the 'frig . . . for unexpected raids by the family. Why not lay in a supply of all ten flavors? Come on . . . let's!

I CHALLENGE YOU — to make a more delicate, delicious or more flavorful soup than LIPTON CHICKEN NOODLE! We serve it several times a week — and it's always a delight. Try it sometime in this scrumptious recipe.

SUCCOTASH SOUP

Stir 1 package Lipton Chicken Noodle Soup mix into 2 cups of boiling water. Add 1 tbsp. chopped onion, ½ tsp. salt. Cover and boil for 7 mins. Stir in 1 cup cream-style corn, ½ cup cooked lima beans, 1 cup milk and 1 tsp. of butter, and heat to blend flavors. Makes 4 to 5 servings.

And oh! be sure to save all the Lipton Soup packages for your set of Royal Dutch Stainless Steel Flatware. It's beautiful — and the savings are tremendous. Ask your grocer about this wonderful offer!

● And it's so easy to make, when you use fast rising dry Best Yeast! If you bake at home, please your family by baking this treat tomorrow!

CHEESEBREAD

Scald 3 c. milk, ¼ c. granulated sugar, 1½ tbs. salt and 4 tbs. shortening; cool to lukewarm. Meantime, measure into a large bowl ½ c. lukewarm water; crumble and add 1 cake Best Yeast—or stir in 1 tsp. granulated sugar and sprinkle with 1 envelope Best dry Yeast. Let stand 10 minutes, THEN stir well.

Stir in cooled milk mixture. Stir in 4 c. once-sifted all-purpose flour; beat with a rotary beater until the batter is smooth. Cover and set in a warm place, free from draft. Let rise until doubled in bulk. Work in 2 c. lightly-packed finely-shredded old cheese and 5 c. (about) once-sifted all-purpose flour. Knead on lightly-floured board until smooth and elastic. Place in greased bowl and grease top of dough. Cover and let rise until doubled in bulk. Punch down dough; turn out on lightly-floured board and divide into 4 equal portions. Cover lightly with a cloth and let rest for 15 mins. Divide each portion of dough into 3 parts; knead and shape into smooth balls. Place 3 balls in each of 4 greased loaf pans (4½" x 8½"). Grease tops and sprinkle each loaf with ¼ c. shredded cheese. Cover and let rise until doubled in bulk. Bake in moderately hot oven, 375°, 45-50 mins.
