ON A CHARGE OF MURDER.

ALFRED C. WILLIAMS OF SUMMERSIDE P. E. I., UNDER ARREST AT LYNN.

A Strong Suspicion that He Killed an Italian Named Gallo and Then Fired the House.

(Special to the St. John Sun.)

Boston, Aug. 2.—Alfred C. Williams, of Summerside, P. E. I., is under arrest at Lynn on suspicion of having murdered an Italian, of Lynnfield, named John Gallo. The evidence thus far accumulated is very strong against Williams, and undoubtedly he will be formally charged with murder.

Williams is a man of good appearance and is in the neighborhood of 35 years of age. He has been in this country about three years. He has been working on farms in the vicinity of Wakefield, Lynnfield and other towns. Among his acquaintances was an Italian workman who lived alone in a small shanty on a country road in the town of Lynnfield. The latter place is about fifteen miles from this city. Last Sunday night the house of the Italian was burned, and with it the body of Gallo. At the time it was thought the fire was an accidental one, and that Gallo had lost his life in the flames. It developed, however, two days after, during an investigation by the state police, that Gallo was murdered and robbed of all the money he had, about $100 or so, the house afterwards being fired. Suspicion fell upon Alfred Williams, who was out very late on the night of the fire. When Williams reached the house of his employer, which is about two miles from the scene of the tragedy, it was almost daylight, and blood was on his clothing. He explained his lateness in getting home and the presence of the blood by saying that he had been set upon by a highwayman and robbed. He claimed to have been wounded in the scuffle with the robbers. His explanation, however, did not satisfy the police, and he was arrested. When his room was searched, several gold pieces and bank notes were found, which were identified as those possessed by the dead man. Williams said he got the money from a relative, but the police found this statement was a false one.

Yesterday an axe near the scene of the murder was found, and it had on it marks of blood and hair. The axe was evidently the weapon with which he killed the Italian.

Williams will be arraigned in Lynn, Saturday, August 7. Williams belongs to Summerside, P. E. I., and has a brother, John W., at Nantasket Beach.

State Officer Neal gives out a little incident about the arrest of Williams. When they told the man he was to be arrested, and that his room was to be searched, they added that if the money was found in his room he would be charged with murder in the first degree. Williams became greatly agitated and lost his nerve, being fully five minutes before he could reply. The police think this is quite significant.

On the whole the police believe that the circumstantial evidence will be strong enough to fasten the crime on the prisoner.

Evidence has been adduced to show that Williams knew the Italian had money, and had several times called at the latter's shanty, and discussing the Klondyke gold fields. Gallo, it is said, told Williams he had money enough to go, at the same time producing part of it.

NOTICE.—All persons owing for poll tax had better attend to the same, as after the 15th day of August executions will be issued.

Fifty Years Ago.
This is the stamp that the letter bore which carried the story far and wide. Of certain cure for the loathsome sore that bubbled up from the tainted side of the blood below. And 'twas Ayer's name. And his sarsaparilla, that all now know, that was just beginning its fight of fame with its cures of 50 years ago.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla is the original sarsaparilla. It has behind it a record for cures unequalled by any blood purifying compound. It is the only sarsaparilla honored by a medal at the World's Fair of 1893. Others imitate the remedy; they can't imitate the record:

50 Years of Cures.

RECESSIONAL.

God of our fathers, known of old—
Lord of our far-flung battle line—
Beneath whose awful hand we hold
Dominion over pain and pine—
Lord God of Hosts, be with us yet,
Lest we forget—lest we forget!

The tumult and the shouting dies—
The captains and the kings depart—
Still stands Thine ancient Sacrifice,
An humble and a contrite heart.
Lord God of Hosts, be with us yet,
Lest we forget—lest we forget!

Far called our navies melt away—
On a dune and headland sinks the fire—
Lo, all our pomp of yesterday
Is one with Nineveh and Tyre!
Judge of the Nations, spare us yet,
Lest we forget—lest we forget!

If, drunk with sight of power, we loose
Wild tongues that have not Thee in awe—
Such boasting as the Gentiles use
Or lesser breeds without the Law—
Lord God of Hosts, be with us yet,
Lest we forget—lest we forget!

For heathen heart that puts her trust
In reeking tube and iron shard—
All valiant dust that builds on dust,
And guarding calls not Thee to guard—
For frantic boast and foolish word,
Thy Mercy on Thy People, Lord!

AMEN.

BOAT PICKED UP.—Capt. Boudreau, of the schr. Hydra, during the passage from Charlottetown to Port Hawksbury, picked up a fishing boat in the Straits, off Cape George. There were some fishing lines and a herring net in the boat. Her starboard side was somewhat damaged. The mast was gone, but the sail was there. The boat is believed to be the one in which Shea and Dalton left Pictou several weeks ago, and of which nothing has been heard since. The boat may be seen on board the Hydra which is lying at Pownal wharf.

THE SMALLPOX SCARE.—A Montreal despatch says: A foolish scare has been made of the fact that there have been a few cases of smallpox in Montreal. During the month there were three deaths in the isolation hospital, and two other cases of the disease, both now convalescent. A man named Whitney, supposed to have the disease in Toronto, on account of whom the passport was delayed, did not contract it here, as he only arrived on the Amarynthia from Glasgow on the 27th and left for Belleville on the 28th. It takes four days for the incubation of the disease. The man was complaining of being ill on the way over and so must have contracted it in Scotland, though he passed the quarantine all right. There is no smallpox in Montreal as a matter of fact.

W. C. T. U.—At the last regular meeting of the W. C. T. U., of this city, the following resolution was unanimously passed:

Further Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be sent to the secretary of the Charlottetown Temperance Alliance, and also to the daily papers for publication.
