Local and Other Items.

NAVAL.—The warships Bellerophon and Pylades are at Quebec.

ANOTHER CARNIVAL.—The summer carnival at Hamilton, Ont., opened on Monday. The city is full of visitors.

THE RIFLE.—The total winnings of the Canadian team at Wimbledon was £432, the largest amount ever gained.

INSPECTION.—The Charlottetown Engineer Company will be inspected by Major Davison on Monday next, 26th inst.

CRICKET.—A game between the visiting tennis players and the Park Club will likely be arranged for to-morrow afternoon.

NOTHING adds so much to a person's appearance as a fine thick head of hair of even color, and to insure this use only Hall's Hair Renewer.

PICNIC AT SUFFOLK.—The Baptist Sabbath School Picnic, at Suffolk, to-day, was well attended and passed off pleasantly. The weather was splendid.

ENGINEERS.—The Engineers will meet for drill, in uniform, this evening, at 8 o'clock sharp. A full attendance is requested. By order, W. A. Weeks, Jr., Captain.

THE POTATO CROP.—The potato crop in Yarmouth County, N. S., is almost a total failure. The damage from rotting is reported as general through the county.

WILLIE HAWKES DEAD.—The little boy Hawkes, shot at St. John last week, died from his injuries on Monday night. The boy who fired the fatal shot is still in custody.

MEETING.—A meeting of the South End Boating Club will be held at their rooms, Lower Water Street, to-morrow (Friday) evening at 8 o'clock. Every member is requested to be present, as important business is to be transacted.

THE TURF.—The first two day's trotting meeting of the Maritime circuit will be held at Halifax on Wednesday and Thursday, August 28 and 29. Horsemen are reminded that the entries close on Wednesday, with J. W. Power, secretary.

AFTER THE CARNIVAL.—Miss Mary Sturdee, a popular young lady belonging to St. John, died in Halifax on Monday. She went to that city to see the carnival festivities and contracted a cold which developed into peritonitis, causing death.

ANNEXATION.—The Halifax Recorder says: A curious instance of Annexation was witnessed on the streets this morning—a British soldier in uniform and a Yankee pickpocket, handcuffed together, being walked from the jail to the city court house.

TEMPERANCE.—The Nova Scotia grand division, S. of T., met in quarterly session last week at River John, Pictou County. There was a net gain of 300 members during the past three months, placing the order now up to 17,000 members, with 4,000 children in the bands of hope.

ZION CHURCH PICNIC.—The annual picnic of Zion Church Sunday School will be held at Cape Traverse to-morrow. The committee of management have made ample preparation for a pleasant time and expect a large attendance. The excursion train will leave the city at 8 o'clock, local time.

UNIVERSALISM.—On Sunday afternoon next, 25th inst., at 3 o'clock, Rev. Costello Weston, of the St. John Universalist Church, will preach in the Philharmonic Hall in this city. Mr. Weston was for years the popular pastor of the Church of the Redeemer at Halifax, N. S. The public are cordially invited to be present.

BAD FOR THE FARMERS.—A recent New York despatch says that the produce men feel blue over the prospect of a very poor season. The late heavy rains have caused even a greater damage to crops on Long Island, in Jersey, Delaware and New York States than was at first expected. The loss to the farmers and commission men alone, it is estimated, will run up well into the millions.

ON THE RIGHT SIDE.—A meeting of the Halifax Carnival press reception and advertising committee was held a few days ago, at which the accounts were submitted. The sum of $2,000 was at the disposal of the committee, but their expenditure was only $1,842.95. $227.95 of this amount was expended in entertaining the visiting press men; the balance was for advertising and printing.

EN ROUTE TO JAPAN.—From a letter written by Rev. Benj. Chappell on board the S. S. Batavia, in the Gulf of Georgia, 8 p. m., 9th August, we clip the following: "The pilot will go on shore (to Vancouver) in about an hour, so I embrace the chance of sending one line more, as some weeks must elapse before you hear from me again. Mr. Ayers and I are rooming together. . . . We will be 16 or 17 days on the ocean. It is calm as a lake on the Gulf this evening, but we may expect some sea on the way over. I am very well and have had a delightful time all the way across. . . . Have written for Wesleyan, 'A Day at Morley,' 'A Day at Kamloops,' and 'A Day at Vancouver.'"

A PLEASANT GATHERING.—A correspondent writes:—New Haven, on Monday, was the scene of one of the most pleasant social gatherings of the season. About three hundred persons assembled at the residence of Mr. McManus, where a picnic was held. After partaking of the many good things which were there provided, the party proceeded to enjoy themselves in dancing and the enjoyment of other games which were provided for the occasion. The party arrived in the city at 10 p. m., after having spent one of the most enjoyable days imaginable, the only regret being that the day came to such an early close. It may be added that it was owing to the hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. McManus, and the exertions of Mr. Patrick Connolly that the day's entertainment came to such a successful issue.

EVIDENTLY DOING WELL.—We have been shown a copy of the Bookbinders' Souvenir, containing the programme of sports, etc., at the excursion and games of the Boston Bookbinders' Association, held at Malis Gardens, Nahant, on the 3d inst. Besides the order of dances, programme of games, and other information, the souvenir contains likenesses of Master Workman M. F. Quinn and Worthy Foreman W. T. Dougan. The latter is a Charlottetown boy—a son of Mr. William Dougan—and is well and favorably known in this city and throughout the province. Besides holding the second highest office in the Bookbinkers' Union referred to, Mr. Dougan occupies prominent positions in several other Knights of Labor organizations. We are pleased to hear of his prosperity, and trust that it may long continue.

Men's Doubles—Brecken and Ings won against Roberts and Hensley, Windsor, 6-4; 7-5. Pope and Stewart won against Macdougall and Lloyd, Sydney, 6-4; 6-4. Primrose and Almon, Pictou, lost against McLeod and Knowlton, St. John, 3-6; 0-6. Weeks and Morson lost against Smith and Grant, St. John, 4-6: 3-6.

Men's Singles—Hensley, Windsor, vs. Almon, Pictou, 6-2; 6-0. Pope, Ch'town, vs. Smith, St. John, 6-1; 6-4. McLeod, St. John, vs. Morson, Ch'town, 6-3; 6-1. Brecken, Charlottetown, vs. Grant, St. John—6-2: 6-1; McLeod, St. John vs. Gregory, Antigonish—6-0; 6-4.

The ball at Mrs. Bartlett's last night was most enjoyable. The grounds were beautifully decorated with Chinese lanterns, and the music of the Citizen's Band was all that could be desired.

The game continues this afternoon. The players and visiting friends were photographed this morning by Mr. Lewis.

The finals to be played to-morrow will make an interesting game.
