

Where the Difference Modestly Came in.

A certain gentleman requiring legal assistance had been recommended to one of two brothers, but had forgotten the Christian name of him he sought, so he called at the office of the one first found and asked for Mr. Podger.

That's my name, sir.

But there are two of you of that name here in town?

Yes.

Well, I wish to consult the Mr. Podger—excuse me for the allusion—who wears a wig.

We both wear wigs, sir.

Well, the man I seek was divorced from his wife not long ago.

There you bit us both again, sir.

The man to whom I was recommended has recently been accused of forgery, though I trust unjustly.

There we are again, my dear sir.

We have both had that gentle insinuation laid at our doors.

Well upon my word, you two brothers bear a striking resemblance. But I guess I have it now. The one I am after is in the habit of occasionally drinking to excess—sometimes to intoxication.

My dear man, the little vice is unfortunately characteristic to the pair of us, and I doubt if our best friends could tell you which was the worst.

Well, you are a matched pair certainly. But tell me, continued the visitor, which of the twain it was that took the poor debtor's oath a few months ago?

Ha, ha, we were both in the muddle. I was on Bob's paper and he was on mine.

In mercy's name! cried the applicant desperately, will you tell me which of the two is the sensible man?

Ah ah, you touch bottom, my friend. Poor Bob. I can't stretch the truth even to serve a brother. If you want the more sensible one of the two I suppose I must acknowledge the corn. I'm the man.

The salmon failure experienced this season is variously accounted for. Some attribute it to the unusual quantity of ice in the Gulf of St. Lawrence; others to an unusual abundance of sharks and porpoises on the fishing grounds. The cause, whatever it was, may well be believed to have been beyond human control.

A Boston theatrical company recently played a scene laid in a church so naturally that to many of the audience it seemed so real that they went to sleep.

Don't invite a "self-educated" man to address a school. He will be sure to tell the pupils that he never went to school and yet knows as much as anybody.

A young man who has recently taken a wife says he didn't find it half so hard to get married as he to get furniture.

August Flower.

The immense sale and great popularity of Green's August Flower in all towns and villages in the civilized world has caused many imitators to adopt similar names, expecting to reap a harvest for themselves at the expense of the afflicted. This medicine was introduced in 1863, and for the cure of Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint, with their effects, such as Sour Stomach, Sickheadache, Indigestion, Palpitation of the Heart, vertigo, etc., etc., it never has failed to our knowledge. Three doses will relieve any case of Dyspepsia. Two million bottles sold last year. Price 75 cents. Samples 10 cents.

Remedy for Hard Times.

Stop spending so much on fine clothes, rich food and style. Buy good, healthy food, cheaper and better clothing; get more real and substantial things of life every way, and especially stop the foolish habit of running after expensive and quack doctors or using so much of the vile humbug medicine that does you only harm, and makes the proprietors rich, but put your trust in the greatest of all simple pure remedies, Hop Bitters that cures always at a trifling cost, and you will see better times and good health. Try it once. Read of it in another column.

ST. MARGARET'S HALL.

HALIFAX, N. S.

SEMINARY FOR YOUNG LADIES.

VISITOR:

The Lord Bishop of Nova Scotia

PRINCIPAL:

The Rev. John Padfield.

THIS SCHOOL offers, at very moderate cost, the advantages of a comfortable and pleasant home together with a thorough and refined education.

The course of Instruction is the same as that of the best Schools in England and is founded upon the University Examinations for Women. Eight young ladies from this School passed the Local Examination of the University of King's College in June last. This is the only School in Canada that has passed pupils at a University Examination.

The number of pupils is limited, rendering the School select, and while it possesses all the educational advantages of a large public school, each pupil is enabled to receive that individual care and oversight which is so important, and which cannot be given in a large establishment.

Mr. and Mrs. Padfield are assisted by a staff of four resident governesses, besides visiting masters.

Parisienne French is taught conversationally. There are two resident French Governesses.

References given to parents of pupils. For further particulars address the Principal. Sept. 19, 1879.

NEW GOODS.

LORNE HIGHLAND WHISKY. ANALYTICAL SANITARY INSTITUTION, 54, Holborn-viaduct, E. C., London, Aug. 18, 1879 REPORT ON THE LORNE HIGHLAND WHISKY: "We have visited the bottling stores of Greenlees Brothers, and have selected from the vats, samples of their Lorne Highland Whisky, and have subjected them to careful examination and analysis. The samples were very fragrant, mellow, and of pleasant flavor, and possessed all the characteristics of pure and well-matured Scotch Whisky of the first quality.
