IN MEMORIAM

TOOMBS—In loving memory of Walton Toombs who passed away October 18th, 1948.

Not today but every day
In silence we remember.
Lovingly remembered by his wife and family.

DIXON—In loving memory of Frank H. Dixon who passed away October 18, 1948.

Sweet are the memories
Silently kept.
Of one we loved and will never forget.
Sadly missed by Frank and Merton.

DIXON—In loving memory of Frank H. Dixon who passed away October 18, 1948.

This month recalls sad memories
Of a loved one gone to rest.
And those who think of him to-day
Are the ones that loved him best.
Sadly missed by wife Albina and daughter Marquerite.

MACKINNON—In loving memory of our dear daughter, Patricia Ann McKinnon, who was killed on Oct. 18, 1956.

Gone is the face we loved so dear
Silent is the voice we loved to hear
Tis sad but true, we wonder why
The best is always the first to die.

Lovingly remembered by Mom and Dad sisters and brothers.

Militia Stress Civil Defence Since October

OTTAWA (CP)—Defence Minister Pearson said Wednesday that since Oct. 1 the emphasis in Canadian militia training has been on civil defence rather than on "some phoney glamorous role that no longer exists."

Questioned in the Commons by the former Fisheries Minister James Sinclair (L-Coast - Caplan) as to what "phoney glamorous role the militia has had in the past," Mr. Pearson said he had not suggested that it had. The minister had been asked by William M. Bendickson (L - Kenora-Rainy River) when the reserve army would go on to civil defence training.

NO CHANGE IN ROLE
He replied that non-permanent militia training programs are drawn up annually, beginning Oct. 1. Quoting from the preamble to the current year's directive, he read:

"To prepare the militia for its role in any future mobilization for active service and for civil defence, emphasis will be given this year to civil defence."

"It would be seen, Mr. Pearson added, that there really was no change in the militia's role. "But the emphasis during the coming year will be on civil defence."

That was a realistic starting point for the militia, "particularly in view of the scientific advances made in some other countries."

"It may not be as glamorous as some roles it has had in the past, but I have no doubt that the militia will continue to be as patriotic as it has been in the past and will not seek to perpetuate some phoney glamorous role that no longer exists."

When Mr. Sinclair pressed him on the reference, Mr. Pearson said he had not suggested militia roles in the past had been "phoney" or "glamorous," but "there might be roles in the future which would not be practical."

READMIT UK PLANES

CAIRO (Reuters)—Egyptian officials announced Wednesday that Australian airlines, banned from Egypt since the Suez crisis last November, will be allowed to resume operations here. British airlines, also forbidden admission during the Suez conflict, were readmitted last July.
